The Hatchet of the United States Ship George Washington (Classic Reprint) Edwin Taylor Pollock, 2017-10-15
Excerpt from The Hatchet of the United States Ship George Washington A letter from the Captain to the Postmaster at New York stated that he thought that the forces going overseas might also have some of the papers etc while on the way and a request was made for several thousand The matter was referred to the Postmaster General at Washington and as a result all transports applying for the papers would receive all they asked for Moving pictures at sea were out of the question They could not be held on deck and if an accident happened such as a torpedo hitting the ship when several hundred men were crowded in one compartment the results might be very serious After the ship was in good running order however movies were held when the ship was in port and since the armistice was signed they have been an almost nightly occurrence About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
