Choosing and Using Fiction and Non-Fiction 3-11 is a guide for primary teachers to the many kinds of texts children encounter, use and enjoy in their nursery and primary school years, providing an invaluable insight into the literature available. Addressing important issues and allowing for the voices of teachers, reviewers and children to be heard, it contains suggestions of best practice which offer a more creative approach to learning. Including both fiction and non-fiction with genres ranging from picturebooks to biographies, this fully updated second edition features new coverage on recent books. Discussion of new changes in concepts of literacy, particularly focused on technological advances in moving image media and virtual worlds. The balance between print and screen-based texts on developing children's visual and multimodal literacy. Annotated booklists for each genre for different age groups. New sections on equality, diversity and translation. Exploring fiction, non-fiction and poetry. Choosing and Using Fiction and Non-Fiction 3-11 is an invaluable resource supporting teachers as they help children on their journey to becoming insightful and critical readers of non-fiction and sensitive and reflective readers of fiction.

Routledge Library Editions: Curriculum Various, 2021-07-09 Reissuing works originally published between 1971 and 1994, this collection includes books which offer a broad spectrum of views on curriculum, both within individual schools and the wider issues around curriculum development, reform and implementation. Some cover the debate surrounding the establishment of the national curriculum in the UK, while others are more international in scope. Many of these books go beyond theory to discuss practical issues of real curriculum changes at primary or secondary level. The Set includes books on cross-curricular topics such as citizenship and environment, and also guidance, careers, life skills and pastoral care in schools. A fantastic collection of education history with much still relevant today. Getting Beyond
