Keeper Craig Crime Catriona King:

The Keeper Catriona King, 2015-12-08 After three men are shot dead in Belfast Marc Craig's team is tasked to investigate. But are the murders the work of a random killer or a legacy of Northern Ireland's past? When pathologist John Winter finds that the bullets were unmarked it becomes clear the killings are the work of someone highly organised. Investigation points the team to a significant Belfast location but will they get there in time to prevent another death? Meanwhile two of the Murder Squad's members experience life-changing events and Craig's failure to deal with a personal issue almost costs him his career. The Keeper Never Forget The Victims

The building yields a secret that sets the Belfast Murder Squad hunting for a killer from the past and reveals a desperately sad personal story and an international fraud. The Good Woman Catriona King, 2019-11-18 When a body is found in an unusual location near Belfast's Cave Hill the Murder Squad led by Marc Craig is called to investigate. Sightings of two mysterious women in the area make the case one of the most confusing in years and the unravelling of long held secrets leads Craig and his senior officers to a perilous stand off in which someone dies. Meanwhile a boy who was kidnapped from Portugal in twenty seventeen and trafficked for adoption to America is abducted for a second time and the unearthing of a century old Irish grudge sends two of Craig's team searching for answers across the sea. There are family traumas in the extended investigation team as well with more than one relationship coming under extreme strain and another sparking deportation fears. Happy events too with the early signs of a truce between two sworn enemies and more than one team member planning romance. The Good Woman Appearances Often Deceive.
