Leahy,

Catalogue of Irish Manuscripts in the British Museum British Museum. Department of Manuscripts, Standish Hayes O'Grady, Robin Flower, 1926 The Celts Ian Stewart, 2025-03-04 A new history of the Celts that reveals how this once forgotten people became a pillar of modern national identity in Britain, Ireland, and France. Before the Greeks and Romans, the Celts ruled the ancient world. They sacked Rome, invaded Greece, and conquered much of Europe from Ireland to Turkey. Celts registered deeply on the classical imagination for a thousand years and were variously described by writers like Caesar and Livy as unruly barbarians, fearless warriors, and gracious hosts. But then, in the early Middle Ages, they vanished. In The Celts, Ian Stewart tells the story of their rediscovery during the Renaissance and their transformation over the next few centuries into one of the most popular European ancestral peoples. The Celts shows how the idea of this ancient people was recovered by scholars, honed by intellectuals, politicians, and other thinkers of various stripes, and adopted by cultural revivalists and activists as they tried to build European nations and nationalisms during the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries. Long forgotten, the Celts improbably came to be seen as the ancestors of most western Europeans and as a pillar of modern national identity in Britain, Ireland, and France. Based on new research conducted across Europe and in the United States, The Celts reveals when and how we came to call much of Europe Celtic, why this idea mattered in the past, and why it still matters today as the tide of nationalism is once again on the rise. Philostratus's Heroikos Jennifer K. Berenson Maclean, Ellen Bradshaw Aitken, 2005-01-01 This multidimensional collection of essays explores the interrelation of religion, cultural identity, politics, literature, myth, and memory during the Roman Empire by focusing on the cultural dynamics embedded in and surrounding Philostratus's Heroikos, an early third-century C.E. dialogue about Homer and the heroes of the Trojan War. The essays focus on ritual and literary dimensions of hero cult cultural and community identity reflected in the Heroikos and in early Christianity and the cultural literary and political turn toward heroes in the negotiation of difference particularly with those outside the Roman Empire Contributors to this volume include classicists archaeologists ancient historians and scholars of early Christianity Ellen Bradshaw Aitken Susan E Alcock Hans Dieter Betz Alain Blomart Walter Burkert Casey Du Simone Follet Sidney H Griffith Jackson P Hershbell Christopher Jones Jennifer K Berenson Maclean Francesca Mestre Gregory Nagy Corinne Ondine Pache Jeffrey Rusten M Rahim Shayegan James C Skedros and Tim Whitmarsh Paperback edition is available from the Society of Biblical Literature www.sbl-site.org Donum Grammaticum Hannah Rosén, 2002 The articles in this volume treat issues in Hannah Rosen's many fields of scholarly interest Most of the articles deal with subjects in Latin linguistics and philology others treat Celtic linguistics and philology while some combine the two A number of the papers take Hannah Rosen's own work as their point of departure especially research on nominalization and periphrasis on tense use and narrative structure on translation technique The authors adopt a variety of perspectives and approaches This volume includes many contributions that are descriptive comparative or historical in nature as well as some reflecting a literary orientation A few authors use the text and its structure as their framework A wide range of approaches to syntactical analysis on various levels of expression is prominently represented in the work of many of the contributors

National library of Ireland, 1881 The Destruction of Da Derga's Hostel Ralph O'Connor, 2013-02-28 Irish saga literature represents the largest collection of vernacular narrative in existence from the early Middle Ages using the tools of Christian literacy to retell myths and legends about the pagan past This unique corpus remains marginal to standard histories of Western literature its tales are widely read but their literary artistry remains a puzzle to many even within Celtic studies This book the first to offer a systematic literary analysis of any single native Irish tale aims to show how one particularly celebrated saga works as a story the Middle Irish tale Togail Bruidne Da Derga The Destruction of Da Derga's Hostel which James Carney called the finest saga of the early period This epic tale tells how the legendary king Conaire was raised by a shadowy Otherworld to the kingship of Tara and after a fatal error of judgement was hounded by spectres to an untimely death at Da Derga's Hostel at the hands of his own foster brothers By turns lyrical and laconic and rich in native mythological imagery the story is told with a dramatic intensity worthy of Greek tragedy and the intricate symmetry of its narrative procedure recalls the visual patterning of illuminated manuscripts such as The Book of Kells This book invites the reader to enjoy and understand this literary masterpiece explaining its narrative artistry within its native classical and biblical literary contexts Against a historical backdrop of shifting ideologies of Christian kingship it interprets the saga's possible significance for contemporary audiences as a questioning exploration of the challenges and paradoxes of kingship

Building Bridges: Ignaz Goldziher and His Correspondents, 2024-03-25 The scholarship of Ignaz Goldziher 1850-1921, one of the founders of Islamic studies in Europe, has not ceased to be in the focus of interest since his death. This volume addresses aspects of Goldziher's intellectual trajectory together with the history of Islamic and Jewish studies as reflected in the letters exchanged between Goldziher and his peers from various countries that are preserved in the Library of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences and elsewhere. The thirteen contributions deal with hitherto unexplored aspects of the correspondence, addressing issues that are crucial to our understanding of the formative period of these disciplines. Contributors: Camilla Adang, Hans Jürgen Becker, Kinga Dvornyi, Sebastian Günther, Máté Hidvégi, Livnat Holtzman, Amit Levy, Miriam Ovadia, Dóra Pataricza, Christoph Rauch, Valentina Sagaria, Rossi Sabine, Schmidtke Jan, Thiele Samuel, Thrope Tamás, Turán Maxim, Yosefi Dóra, Zsom. Coire Sois, The Cauldron of Knowledge Tomás Ó Cathasaigh, 2014-01-30 Coire Sois The Cauldron of Knowledge A Companion to Early Irish Saga offers thirty-one previously published essays by Tomás Cathasaigh which together constitute a magisterial survey of early Irish narrative literature in the vernacular. Cathasaigh has been called the father of early Irish literary criticism with writings among the most influential in the field. He pioneered the analysis of the classic early Irish tales as literary texts, a breakthrough at a time when they were valued mainly as repositories of grammatical forms, historical data and mythological debris. All four of the Mythological, Ulster, King and Finn Cycles are represented here in readings of richness, complexity and sophistication, supported by absolute philological rigor and yet easy for the non-specialist to follow. The book covers key terms, important characters, recurring themes, rhetorical strategies and the narrative logic of this literature. It also surveys the work of the many others whose explorations were launched by Cathasaigh's first encounters with the literature. As the most authoritative single volume on the essential texts and themes of early Irish saga, this collection will be an indispensable resource for established scholars and an ideal introduction for newcomers to one of the richest and most under-studied literatures of medieval Europe.
