Localising Salafism Localising Salafism:

Localising Salafism Terje Østebø, 2011-09-30 With a particular focus on the role of situated actors this book sheds light on the emergence and expansion of Salafism in Bale Ethiopia from the late 1960s through the Marxist period 1974 1991 before discussing the rapid expansion and fragmentation of the movement in the 1990s until 2006 Salafism in Nigeria

Alexander Thurston, 2016-09-22 The spectre of Boko Haram and its activities in Nigeria dominates both media and academic analysis of Islam in the region But as Alexander Thurston argues here beyond the sensational headlines this group generates the dynamics of Muslim life in northern Nigeria remain poorly understood Drawing on interviews with leading Salafis in Nigeria as well as on a rereading of the history of the global Salafi movement this volume explores how a canon of classical and contemporary texts defines Salafism Examining how these texts are interpreted and crucially who it is that has the authority to do so Thurston offers a systematic analysis of curricula taught in Saudi Arabia and how they shape religious scholars approach to religion and education once they return to Africa Essential for scholars of religion and politics this unique text explores how the canon of Salafism has been used and refined from Nigeria's return to democracy to the jihadist movement Boko Haram Understanding Salafism Yasir Qadhi, 2025-06-12 The Salafi movement invokes fear and dread in outsiders who treat Salafism as synonymous with religious extremism For Salafis themselves it's a jealously guarded title always in danger of dilution Salafism has changed the face of Islam its ideas reach far outside its own ranks Yet popular portrayals never go beyond hackneyed stereotypes In Understanding Salafism Dr Yasir Qadhi delves into the origins of the movement from the earliest debates in Islam to Salafism today in both the Western and Islamic worlds In an analysis covering Salafism in the Middle East Europe the United States and Africa he illuminates Salafism's theological ideas the debates within Salafism about political participation and its relationship to other schools in Sunni Islam Table of Contents List of Figures Preface Conventions 1 Introduction A Bird's Eye View of Salafism 2 A Comprehensive History of Salafi Thought From its Origins to Modernity 3 Wahhabism and Salafism 4 Salafism and Islamism A Case Study of the Muslim Brotherhood 5 The Phenomenon of Jihadi Salafism 6 Global Salafism in the Contemporary World Epilogue Notes Bibliography Index Salafism in Lebanon Zoltan Pall, 2018-04-05 Examines the entrenchment of Salafism in Lebanese society while also highlighting the movement's transnational links to the Persian Gulf Routledge Handbook of Non-Violent Extremism Elisa Orofino, William Allchorn, 2023-03-09 This Handbook provides the first in depth analysis of non violent extremism across different ideologies and geographic centres a topic overshadowed until now by the political and academic focus on violent and jihadi extremism in the Global North Whilst acknowledging the potentiality of non violent extremism as a precursor to terrorism this Handbook argues that non violent extremism ought to be considered a stand alone area of study Focusing on Islamist Buddhist Hindu far right far left environmentalist and feminist manifestations the Handbook discusses the ideological foundation of their war on ideas against the prevailing socio political and cultural systems in which they operate and provides an empirical examination of their main claims and perspectives This is supplemented by a truly global overview of non violent extremist groups not only in Europe and the United States but also in Africa Asia Oceania and the Middle East The Handbook thus answers a call to decolonise knowledge that is especially prescient given both the complicity of non violent extremists with authoritarian states and the dynamic of oppression towards more progressive groups in the Global South The Handbook will appeal to those studying extremism radicalisation and terrorism It intersects several relevant disciplines including social movement studies political science criminology Islamic studies and anthropology

Wahhabism and the World Peter G. Mandaville, 2022 For more than half a century Saudi Arabia through both official and non governmental channels has poured billions of dollars into funding and sponsoring religious activities and Islamic causes around the world The effect has been to propagate Wahhabism the distinctively rigid and austere form of Islam associated with the Kingdom's religious establishment within Muslim communities on almost every continent This volume features essays by leading scholars who explore the origins and evolution of Saudi religious transnationalism assess ongoing debates about the impact of these influences in various regions and localities around the world and discuss possible future trends in light of new Saudi leadership In addition to chapters devoted to the major actors and institutions involved in Saudi global religious propagation the volume contains a wide range of country case studies that offer in depth analysis of the nature and impact of Saudi religious influence in nations across multiple world regions Shaping Global Islamic Discourses Masooda Bano, 2015-03-20 Explores the influence of centres of Islamic learning using 3 case studies Al Azhar University in Egypt International Islamic University of Medina in Saudi Arabia and Al Mustafa University in Iran

Routledge Handbook of Islamic Ritual and Practice Oliver Leaman, 2022-06-08 Ritual and practice are one of the most distinctive features of religion and they are linked with its central beliefs Islam is no exception here and this Handbook covers many aspects of those beliefs and practices It describes the variety of what takes place but mainly why and what the implications of both the theory and practice have for our understanding of Islam The book includes accounts of prayer food pilgrimage mosques and the various legal and doctrinal schools that exist within Islam with the focus on how they influence practice The volume is organized in terms of texts groups practices places and others An attempt has been made to discuss the wide range of Muslim ritual and practice and provide a sound guide to this significant aspect of the religious life of one of the largest groups of believers in the world today Circuits of Faith Michael Farquhar, 2016-11-16 The Islamic University of Medina was established by the Saudi state in 1961 to provide religious instruction primarily to foreign students Students would come to Medina for religious education and were then expected to act as missionaries promoting an understanding of Islam in line with the core tenets of Wahhabism By the early 2000s more than 11 000 young men from across the globe had graduated from the Islamic University Circuits of Faith offers the first examination of the Islamic University and considers the efforts undertaken by Saudi actors and institutions to exert religious influence far beyond the kingdom's borders Michael

Farquhar draws on Arabic sources including biographical materials memoirs syllabi and back issues of the Islamic University journal as well as interviews with former staff and students to explore the institution's history and faculty the content and style of instruction and the trajectories and experiences of its students Countering typical assumptions Farquhar argues that the project undertaken through the Islamic University amounts to something more complex than just the one way export of Wahhabism Through transnational networks of students and faculty this Saudi state funded religious mission also relies upon and has in turn been influenced by far reaching circulations of persons and ideas

Reclaiming Islamic Tradition

Elisabeth Kendall, 2018-08-23 This book profiles some of the fundamental debates that have defined the conversation between the past and the present in the Islamic world including Qur'anic exegesis Islamic law gender violence and eschatology

Boko Haram Alexander Thurston, 2017-10-31 A comprehensive history of one of the world's deadliest jihadist groups Boko Haram is one of the world's deadliest jihadist groups It has killed more than twenty thousand people and displaced more than two million in a campaign of terror that began in Nigeria but has since spread to Chad Niger and Cameroon as well This is the first book to tell the full story of this West African affiliate of the Islamic State from its beginnings in the early 2000s to its most infamous violence including the 2014 kidnapping of 276 Nigerian schoolgirls Drawing on sources in Arabic and Hausa rare documents propaganda videos press reports and interviews with experts in Nigeria Cameroon and Niger Alexander Thurston sheds new light on Boko Haram's development He shows that the group far from being a simple or static terrorist organization has evolved in its worldview and ideology in reaction to events Chief among these has been Boko Haram's escalating war with the Nigerian state and civilian vigilantes The book closely examines both the behavior and beliefs that are the keys to understanding Boko Haram Putting the group's violence in the context of the complex religious and political environment of Nigeria and the Lake Chad region the book examines how Boko Haram relates to states politicians Salafis Sufis Muslim civilians and Christians It also probes Boko Haram's international connections including its loose former ties to al Qaida and its 2015 pledge of allegiance to ISIS An in depth account of a group that is menacing Africa's most populous and richest country the book also illuminates the dynamics of civil war in Africa and jihadist movements in other parts of the world

Salafism in Jordan Joas Wagemakers, 2016-09-15 Salafism in

Jordan debunks stereotypes and presents the diversity of Salafism on a range of political and ideological issues

Reconfiguring Ethiopia: The Politics of Authoritarian Reform Jon Abbink, Tobias Hagmann, 2016-04-22 This book takes stock of political reform in Ethiopia and the transformation of Ethiopian society since the adoption of multi party politics and ethnic federalism in 1991 Decentralization attempted democratization via ethno national representation and partial economic liberalization have reconfigured Ethiopian society and state in the past two decades Yet as the contributors to this volume demonstrate democracy in Ethiopia has not changed the authority structures and the culture of centralist decision making of the past The political system is tightly engineered and controlled from top to bottom by the ruling Ethiopian Peoples

Revolutionary Democratic Front EPRDF Navigating between its 1991 announcements to democratise the country and its aversion to power sharing the EPRDF has established a de facto one party state that enjoys considerable international support This ruling party has embarked upon a technocratic developmental state trajectory ostensibly aimed at depoliticizing national policy and delegitimizing alternative courses The contributors analyze the dynamics of authoritarian state building political ethnicity electoral politics and state society relations that have marked the Ethiopian polity since the downfall of the socialist Derg regime Chapters on ethnic federalism revolutionary democracy opposition parties the press the judiciary state religion and state foreign donor relations provide the most comprehensive and thought provoking review of contemporary Ethiopian national politics to date This book is based on a special issue of the Journal of Eastern African Studies

Routledge Handbook of the Horn of Africa Jean-Nicolas Bach,2022-03-30 The Routledge Handbook of the Horn of Africa provides a comprehensive interdisciplinary survey of contemporary research related to the Horn of Africa Situated at the junction of the Sahel Saharan strip and the Arabian Peninsula the Horn of Africa is growing in global importance due to demographic growth and the strategic importance of the Suez Canal Divided into sections on authoritarianism and resistance religion and politics migration economic integration the military and regimes and liberation the contributors provide up to date authoritative knowledge on the region in light of contemporary strategic concerns The handbook investigates how political economic and security innovations have been implemented sometimes with violence by use of force or by negotiation including ethnic federalism in Ethiopia independence in Eritrea and South Sudan integration of the traditional authorities in the neo patrimonial administrations Somalian Islamic Courts the Sudanese Islamist regime people s movements multilateral operations and the construction of an architecture for regional peace and security Accessibly written this handbook is an essential read for scholars students and policy professionals interested in the contemporary politics in the Horn of Africa

Making Citizens in Africa Lahra Smith,2013-05-20 Smith argues that citizenship creation and expansion is a pivotal part of political contestation in Africa today Citizenship is a powerful analytical tool to approach political life in contemporary Africa because the institutional and structural reforms of the past two decades have been inextricably linked with the battle over the right to have rights Professor Lahra Smith s work advances the notion of meaningful citizenship referring to the ways in which rights are exercised or the effective practice of citizenship Using data from Ethiopia and developing a historically informed study of language policy ethnicity and gender identities Smith analyzes the contestation over citizenship that engages the state social movements and individuals in substantive ways By combining original data on language policy in contemporary Ethiopia with detailed historical study and a focus on ethnicity citizenship and gender this work brings a fresh approach to Ethiopian political development and contemporary citizenship concerns across Africa Negotiating Memory from the Romans to the Twenty-First Century Øivind Fuglerud,Kjersti Larsen,Marina Prusac-Lindhagen,2020-09-14 Manipulation of the past and forced erasure of memories have been global phenomena throughout history spanning a varied repertoire from the destruction or alteration of architecture sites and images to the banning or imposing of old and new practices The present volume addresses these questions comparatively across time and geography and combines a material approach to the study of memory with cross disciplinary empirical explorations of historical and contemporary cases This approach positions the volume as a reference point within several fields of humanities and social sciences The collection brings together scholars from different fields within humanities and social science to engage with memorialization and damnatio memoriae across disciplines using examples from their own research The broad chronological and comparative scope makes the volume relevant for researchers and students of several historical periods and geographic regions

Zanzibari Muslim Moderns Anne K. Bang, 2024-09-01 Zanzibari Muslim Moderns is a historical study of Zanzibar during the interwar years This was a period marked by rapid intellectual and social change in the Muslim world when ideas of Islamic progress and development were hotly debated How did this process play out in Zanzibar Based on a wide range of sources Islamic and colonial private and public Anne K Bang examines how these concepts were received and promoted on the island arguing that a new ideal emerged in its intellectual arena the Muslim modern Tracing the influences that shaped the outlook of this new figure Bang draws lines to Islamic modernists in the Middle East to local Sufi teachings and to the recently founded state of Saudi Arabia She presents the activities of the Muslim modern in the colonial employment system as a contributor to international debates as an activist in the community and more She also explores the formation of numerous faith based associations during this period as well as the views of the Muslim modern on everything from funerary practices and Mawlid celebrations to reading habits A recurring theme throughout is the question with which many Muslim moderns were confronted who should implement development And for whom

In a Pure Muslim Land Simon Wolfgang Fuchs, 2019-03-05 Centering Pakistan in a story of transnational Islam stretching from South Asia to the Middle East Simon Wolfgang Fuchs offers the first in depth ethnographic history of the intellectual production of Shi is and their religious competitors in this Land of the Pure The notion of Pakistan as the pinnacle of modern global Muslim aspiration forms a crucial component of this story It has empowered Shi is who form about twenty percent of the country s population to advance alternative conceptions of their religious hierarchy while claiming the support of towering grand ayatollahs in Iran and Iraq Fuchs shows how popular Pakistani preachers and scholars have boldly tapped into the esoteric potential of Shi ism occupying a creative and at times disruptive role as brokers translators and self confident pioneers of contemporary Islamic thought They have indigenized the Iranian Revolution and formulated their own ideas for fulfilling the original promise of Pakistan Challenging typical views of Pakistan as a mere Shi i backwater Fuchs argues that its complex religious landscape represents how a local South Asian Islam may open up space for new intellectual contributions to global Islam Yet religious ideology has also turned Pakistan into a deadly battlefield sectarian groups since the 1980s have been bent on excluding Shi is as harmful to their own vision of an exemplary Islamic state

The Universal Enemy Darryl Li, 2023-05-25 Winner of the 2021 William A Douglass Prize A new perspective on the concept of international jihad and its connection to the 1990s Balkans crisis No contemporary figure is more demonized than the Islamist foreign fighter who wages jihad around the world Spreading violence disregarding national borders and rejecting secular norms so called jihadists seem opposed to universalism itself In a radical departure from conventional wisdom on the topic The Universal Enemy argues that transnational jihadists are engaged in their own form of universalism These fighters struggle to realize an Islamist vision directed at all of humanity transcending racial and cultural difference Anthropologist and attorney Darryl Li reconceptualizes jihad as armed transnational solidarity under conditions of American empire revisiting a pivotal moment after the Cold War when ethnic cleansing in the Balkans dominated global headlines Muslim volunteers came from distant lands to fight in Bosnia Herzegovina alongside their co religionists offering themselves as an alternative to the US led international community Li highlights the parallels and overlaps between transnational jihads and other universalisms such as the War on Terror United Nations peacekeeping and socialist Non Alignment Developed from more than a decade of research with former fighters in a half dozen countries The Universal Enemy explores the relationship between jihad and American empire to shed critical light on both Li effectively confronts the demonization of jihadists in the aftermath of 9 11 particularly in the US The author s linguistic skills and the depth of the interviews are impressive and the case selection is intriguing Recommended Choice This important book offers many insights for scholars and students of political thought anthropology and law Li s breadth and acumen in navigating these different fields of study is impressive Political Theory

An Azanian Trio James McL. Ritchie, Sigvard von Sicard, 2019-11-26 This work consists of the translation and annotation of three East African Arabic Swahili manuscripts together with the original texts They cover aspects of the history of the coast from the early Himyaritic period up to the beginning of the 20th century By the use of earlier in some cases hitherto unused Arabic sources the authors of the texts have contributed to a fuller picture of the East African coastal history The texts relate directly to works on East African coastal history that have appeared since the latter part of the 19th century They are presented against the background of general Arabic and Islamic history The annotations indicate and some case stress significant hints and references to matters that need to be borne in mind along with archeological and other evidences
