Selections from Saint-Simon (Classic Reprint) Louis De Rouvroy De Saint-Simon,2017-01-17 Excerpt from Selections From Saint Simon People who are old enough to write memoirs have usually lost their memory This epigrammatic remark with which a recent writer not old enough to have lost his memory opens his reminiscences has considerable truth in it Historians now recognise that memoirs do not supply the certainty of history for if the writers have dim memories they have also lively imaginations Saint Simon the prince of memoir writers did not it is true begin to transcribe his memoirs till he was well past sixty but from the age of twenty he had collected materials and made systematic notes His memoirs were not merely the pastime of his old age but the serious business of his whole life The result is that he has left us a picture of the Court of Versailles at the close of the seventeenth century and the beginning of the eighteenth which is unsurpassed in interest This interest is above all things human The men and women who fill his canvas are vividly alive With a few powerful and incisive strokes he first sketches their lineaments and then with merciless penetration proceeds to lay bare their souls But his memoirs are also coloured by his own alert and energetic personality They not only portray his age but they reveal himself to judge of the fidelity of the picture we must know something of the man About
