Excerpt from London River It begins on the north side of the City at Poverty Corner It begins imperceptibly and very likely is no more than what a native knows is there It does not look like a foreshore It looks like another of the byways of the capital There is nothing to distinguish it from the rest of Fenchurch Street You will not find it in the Directory for its name is only a familiar bearing used by seamen among themselves If a wayfarer came upon it from the west he might stop to light a pipe as well there as anywhere and pass on guessing nothing of what it is and of its memories And why should he London is built of such old shadows and while we are here casting our own there is not much time to turn and question what they fall upon Yet if some unreasonable doubt a suspicion that he was being watched made a stranger hesitate at that corner he might begin to feel that London there was as different from Bays water and Clapham as though deep water intervened About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

London River H. M.
