Post-Disaster and Post-Conflict Tourism Maximiliano E. Korstanje, Hugues Séraphin, Vanessa G. B.

Gowreesunkar, 2020-01-06 Post disaster and post conflict tourism has recently emerged as a prominent topic of research and considers new risks that jeopardize tourism travel to destinations that have recently experienced climate related disasters civil conflicts and other challenges This volume presents a host of innovative strategies that could be adopted by post colonial post conflict and post disaster destinations to encourage travel and tourism in these areas Policymakers are focusing their efforts on identifying and eradicating external and or internal risks in order to protect the tourism industry in their regions in line with a new spirit that is clearly orientated toward mitigating risks This capacity of adaptation suggests two important things that are at the heart of this book On the one hand tourism serves as a resilient mechanism that is helping destinations in their recovery strategy On another hand this raises ethical issues related to tourism consumption Lonely Planet

This book presents the re-theorisation of travel and transformation. It explores the factors that influence the behaviours of a traveller, how these become entwined in experiences, and how travel experiences continue on a traveller's return. It uses the notion of transformation to redevelop the temporal and spatial boundaries of physical travel, develop a model for unpacking transformation, and to look at new methods in the exploration of travel research.
