Longing For Running Water:

Longing for Running Water Ivone Gebara, 1999-09-01 Gebara's succinct yet moving statement of her principles of ecofeminism shows how intertwined are the tarnished environment around her and the poverty that afflicts her neighbors. From her experiences with the Brazilian poor women's movement she develops a gritty urban ecofeminism and indeed articulates a whole worldview. She shows how the connections between Western thought, patriarchal Christianity and environmental destruction necessitate personal conversion to a new relationship with the earth and with the entire cosmos.

Searching for the Future in the Past Keun-joo Christine Pae, Kathleen T. Talvacchia, 2024-10-17 Inclusive and progressive theological and religious perspectives have an important and distinctive contribution to make to an analysis of the critical issues facing women identified persons in the 21st century. This incisive collection of essays recovers the missing theological voices grounded in those religious communities and traditions which gender and sexuality studies often overlook. Feminist theologies have from their beginnings aspired to be the communal production of women identified persons who critically reflect on their experiences in the contexts of culture, social standpoint, religious practices and beliefs and imagination of the Feminine Divine. Pae and Talvacchia draw from this heritage to engage the critical issues of today to create new perspectives. They create an intellectual and discursive space where feminist theologians in all of their diversity renew and reclaim the rich legacies of the feminist theological tradition through inter-generational, racially diverse and transnational conversation.

In the Long Run Jim Axelrod, 2025-09-23 It's 2008. Jim Axelrod, once among the most watched correspondents on network news and the first television reporter to broadcast from Saddam International Airport in 2003, is covering the final stages of the race for the Democratic presidential nomination. He's forty-five years old and thirty pounds overweight. He's drinking too much, sleeping too little and scarcely seeing his family. He's just figured out that the industry that pulled him up the corporate ladder is imploding as he's reaching for its final rungs. Then, out of the blue, Jim discovers his late father's decades-old New York Marathon finish times. At forty-six, Bob Axelrod ran a 3:29:58. With everything else going on in his life, Jim sets himself a defining challenge: Can I beat him? So begins a deeply felt, often hilarious, quixotic effort to run the 2009 New York Marathon. Along the way, Jim confronts his listing marriage, a career upset by the seismic changes going on throughout the television news industry, excruciatingly painful shin splints and the worst-timed kidney stone possible. Looming over it all is the shadow of a loving father who repeatedly lost his way in life but still has a lesson to impart. This is a book about a dead father's challenge to a son at a crossroads, but more than that, it is about the personal costs paid when ambition and talent are not enough to ensure success. Most fundamentally, though, it is a book about learning what it takes to be happy in your own skin.

In the Long Run We're All Dead Björn Frank, 2023-08-12 A fascinating and entertaining account of the lives of the most important economists of the past. Until the late nineteenth century, economics couldn't be studied at the university level; the field was the domain of well-educated figures whose radical curiosity drew them to a discipline that was little understood and often ridiculed In the Long Run We re All Dead tells the story of one of those figures in each of its thirteen chapters Each of these extraordinary lives is worthy of fiction and the manner of their deaths oddly often illuminates their work Bj rn Frank shows us how these economists developed the theories for which they became famous and explains those ideas utilitarianism social costs the endowment effect and others with reference to the lives of their creators in an engaging irreverent even comic style Frank also takes daring leaps into speculation considering how the principles of these long gone economists might be applied to problems of today and of the future In It for the Long Run Vanessa Stroud,Scott Ludwig,2012-09-27 Multiple races of marathon distance or greater in a month or perhaps in a weekend Several unsupported runs of 50 and 100 miles through the mountains and forests several times a year Have you ever considered running through a desert across a frozen tundra or over multiple mountain ranges Why not run for three days straight to see how many miles you can accrue Welcome to a place where no locale is too inhospitable and no distance impossible Welcome to the Darkside The Darkside Running Club established in 2002 is a place where runners meet to express their love for distance running and camaraderie by spending countless hours and miles committed to doing what they enjoy most They share a singular focus towards achieving goals far off in the distance both literally and figuratively With their dedication and commitment you may believe the Darksider to be a professional athlete or perhaps an Olympian But you would be wrong they are simply ordinary people doing extraordinary things in the sport they love running Highly competitive while never taking themselves too seriously they strive to shave off minutes or perhaps hours while adding a mile or two or twenty while pushing their limits further and further The impossible becomes possible dreams become reality They wont take no for an answer as they persevere to move beyond physical and emotional discomfort to finish what they started Excuses dont exist Their passion is contagious So reader be warned theyre in it for the long run The Long Running Life of Helena Zigon Jasmina Kozina Praprotnik,2017-10-15 Anthropologist Jasmina Praprotnik met Helena Zigon while running Over the course of an icy Slovenian winter the two marathon runners got together frequently and Zigon told Praprotnik about her life Here Praprotnik tells Zigon s captivating story in Zigon s own voice Each chapter is marked by a kilometer of the half marathon Zigon ran along the Adriatic Sea on her eighty sixth birthday shortly after losing her husband of sixty years Stane Zigon s life spanned most of the twentieth century She witnessed the Second World War the rise and fall of Yugoslavia and the founding of the new state of Slovenia Abandoned by her parents and having grown up poor and mistreated by her stepmother Zigon demonstrates the stoic resilience of a long suffering Slavic woman Though beset with challenges she found a source of strength in the act of running From a young girl running errands to an old woman running in the face of new grief running has been a bright thread braided throughout her life It has served her as a balm and a joy one that she is grateful to still be able to savor This inspirational memoir will appeal to general readers especially those interested in history and running The Nature-study Review ,1911 Forever Ecstasy Janelle Taylor,2011-10-24 SAVAGE ECSTATSY
