reading of her major book length sequences from the 1990s Ararat Meadowlands and The Wild Iris An additional chapter devoted to The House on Marshland 1975 shows how its revision of Romanticism and nature poetry anticipated these later works Seeing Gl ck s poems as complex analyses of the authorial self via sustained central metaphors Morris reads her poetry against a narrative pattern that shifts from the tones of anger despair and resentment found in her early Firstborn to the resignation of Ararat and proceeds in her latest volumes including Vita Nova and Averno toward an ambivalent embrace of embodied life By showing how Gl ck s poems may be read as a form of commentary on the meanings of great literature and myth Morris emphasizes her irreverent attitude toward the canons through which she both expresses herself and deflects her autobiographical impulse By discussing her sense of self of Judaism and of the poetic tradition he explores her position as a mystic poet with an ambivalent relationship to religious discourse verging on Gnosticism with tendencies toward the ancient rabbinic midrash tradition of reading scripture He particularly shows how her creative reading of past poets expresses her vision of Judaism as a way of thinking about canonical texts The Poetry of Louise Gl ck is a quintessential study of how poems may be read as a form of commentary on the meanings of great literature and myth It clearly demonstrates that through this lens of commentary one can grasp more firmly the very idea of poetry itself that Gl ck has spent her career both defining and extending

The Institution of English Literature Barbara Schaff, Johannes Schlegel, Carola Surkamp, 2016-11-07 The contributions investigate the ways in which numerous institutions of English literature shape the literary field While they cover an extensive historical field ranging from the Early Modern period to the 18th century to the contemporary they focus not only on literary texts but also on extra literary ones including literary prizes literary histories and anthologies and highlight the various ways in which these negotiate the processes that constitute the literary field All contributions assert that there is no such thing as literature outside of institutions Great emphasis is therefore put on different acts of mediation Righteous Violence Larry J. Reynolds, 2011-12-01 Righteous Violence examines the struggles with the violence of slavery and revolution that engaged the imaginations of seven nineteenth century American writers Margaret Fuller Ralph Waldo Emerson Frederick Douglass Henry David Thoreau Louisa May Alcott Nathaniel Hawthorne and Herman Melville These authors responded not only to the state terror of slavery and the Civil War but also to more problematic violent acts including unlawful revolts insurrections riots and strikes that resulted in bloodshed and death Rather than position these writers for or against the struggle for liberty Larry J Reynolds examines the profoundly contingent and morally complex perspectives of each author Tracing the shifting and troubled moral arguments in their work Reynolds shows that these writers though committed to peace and civil order at times succumbed to bloodlust even while they expressed ambivalence about the very violence they approved For many of these authors the figure of John Brown loomed large as an influence and a challenge

Reynolds examines key works such as Fuller's European dispatches Emerson's political lectures Douglass's novella The Heroic Slave Thoreau's Walden Alcott's Moods Hawthorne's late unfinished romances and Melville's Billy Budd In addition to demonstrating the centrality of righteous violence to the American Renaissance this study deepens and complicates our understanding of political violence beyond the dichotomies of revolution and murder liberty and oppression good and evil

Introduction to the Attribution of Literature Anna Faktorovich, 2025-11-19 Introduction to the Attribution of Literature describes the first unbiased and accessible authorship attribution method and uses it to present the first accurate reattribution of 311 canonical texts from the 18th century to only 10 ghostwriters and 323 texts from the 19th century to 11 ghostwriters For example the little known Sir Francis Cowley Burnand is chronologically stylometrically and with handwriting analysis proven to be the ghostwriter behind 55 canonical tested texts including Emily Brontë's Wuthering Heights Collins Woman in White Doyle's Sherlock Holmes Kipling's Captain Courageous Stoker's Dracula Anthony Trollope's American Senator Wells Island of Doctor Moreau Wilde's Picture of Dorian Gray and Dickens Great Expectations This method applies a combination of 23 to 28 different types of punctuation parts of speech and lexical linguistic tests Parts of this book offer extensive statistical evidence in support of why this method's findings are quantitatively reliable If preceding attribution methods had been equally reliable then they would have also concluded canonical British texts have been overwhelmingly ghostwritten A section in this book explains the methodological flaws of these preceding attribution approaches because of which they have incorrectly reaffirmed their canonically accepted bylines It includes definitions of central stylometric terminology and explains how readers can apply the described strategies to their own attribution research at any academic level
