Looking and Seeing John McQuade, Miriam Hall, 2015-04-30 Looking and Seeing is an introduction to Nalanda Miksang. A combination of a philosophical treatise and a playful photography manual, this first volume of three starts the journey. Through studying looking and seeing, flash of perception and synchronization, we explore structured assignments to free the eyes and mind through contemplative photography. Presence in the Online World Leslie Jeffrey, Agnieszka (Aga) Palalas, Karen Robert, Yuk-Lin Renita Wong, 2023-12-06 Presence in the Online World: A Contemplative Perspective and Practice Guide for Educators is an edited collection that addresses the question of how we can bring the insights of contemplative pedagogy into the space of online learning. While the digital space can be one of distraction and disconnection, contemplative pedagogy offers time-honored practices that focus on cultivating mindful presence, awareness, transformative growth, and deep connection. These practices can help learners and educators tune into both their inner and outer worlds at a variety of levels: emotional, physical, intellectual, and spiritual. The volume's contributors, who come from diverse disciplines, offer their reflections on their experiences bringing the contemplative and the online together during the tumultuous pandemic years of emergency remote, blended, and online teaching. They provide both practical guidance in introducing contemplative practices in the online or blended classroom and insights into the meaning of presence and the possibilities for deep connection in an online world. Together, their contributions demonstrate how students and teachers can cultivate a holistic presence with each other and to their shared human conditions as they navigate the virtual classroom.

Contemplative and Artful Openings Susan Casey Walsh, 2017-07-06 Highlighting an arts-based inquiry process that involves contemplation, mindful awareness, and artful writing, this book explores women's difficult experiences in teaching. It weaves a strong autobiographical thread with artifacts from several research projects with female teachers. By linking innovative approaches to research that involve visual images and poetic writing with feminist poststructuralist theories and Buddhist-inspired practices, Walsh offers new understandings about what it means to be critical in research and teaching and also what transformation, both social and personal, might entail. Looking and Seeing Michael Wood, John McQuade, 1986

Opening the Good Eye Michael Wood, 2015-09-15 ABOUT THE BOOK Opening the Good Eye teaches how to align ourselves so that we can see our world unconditionally. This means that we see without the conditions of what we want or think. We hope that it will become a companion and a support for those of you who hunger for the joy of direct connection with your visual world for new experiences of seeing. DISCOVERING A NEW WAY OF SEEING, ART THROUGH PHOTOGRAPHY, 1987 Eyes of the Heart Christine Valters Paintner, 2013 Adapting the monastic practice of lectio divina, sacred reading, into a form of visio divina, sacred seeing, spiritual director and Benedictine oblate Paintner invites readers to a new way of viewing the world through the lens of a camera. Helen Levitt: A Way of
