Looking At Lithuania Looking At Europe:

Searching for Justice After the Holocaust Michael J. Bazyler, Kathryn Lee Boyd, Kristen Nelson (Lawyer), Rajika Shah, 2019 The Nazis and their state sponsored cohorts stole mercilessly from the Jews of Europe In the aftermath of the Holocaust returning survivors had to navigate a frequently unclear path to recover their property from governments and neighbors who had failed to protect them and who often had been complicit in their persecution This book is about the less publicized area of post Holocaust restitution involving immovable real property confiscated from European Jews and others during World War II

A Song for Europe Robert Deam Tobin, 2017-07-05 The world's largest and longest running song competition the Eurovision Song Contest is a significant and extremely popular media event throughout the continent and abroad The Contest is broadcast live in over 30 countries with over 100 million viewers annually Established in 1956 as a televised spectacle to unify postwar Western Europe through music the Contest features singers who represent a participating nation with a new popular song Viewers vote by phone for their favourite performance though they cannot vote for their own country's entry This process alone reveals much about national identities and identifications as voting patterns expose deep seated alliances and animosities among participating countries Here an international group of scholars from a variety of disciplines including musicology communications history sociology English and German studies explore how the contest sheds light on issues of European politics national and European identity race gender and sexuality and the aesthetics of camp For some countries participation in Eurovision has been simultaneously an assertion of modernity and a claim to membership in Europe and the West Eurovision is sometimes regarded as a low brow camp spectacle of little aesthetic or intellectual value The essays in this collection often contradict this assumption demonstrating that the contest has actually been a significant force and forecaster for social cultural and political transformations in postwar Europe

The Road to the European Union Jacques Rupnik, Jan Zielonka, 2003 This book is a timely and solid portrait of modern China from the First Opium War to the Xi Jinping era Unlike the handful of existing textbooks that only provide narratives this textbook fashions a new and practical way to study modern China Written exclusively for university students A level or high school teachers and students it uses primary sources to tell the story of China and introduces them to existing scholarship and academic debate so they can conduct independent research for their essays and dissertations This book will be required reading for students who embark on the study of Chinese history politics economics diaspora sociology literature cultural urban and women's studies It would be essential reading to journalists NGO workers diplomats government officials businessmen and travellers

Re-Turns, Entanglements and Collaborations Jelena Tošić, Sabine Strasser, Annika Lems, 2025-08-01 This collection marks the EASA Book Series 50th volume and celebrates collaborative forms of knowledge production in anthropology It is organized around eight key themes and concepts that have marked anthropological debates in Europe over the past 20 years Featuring engaging contributions anthropologists from different generations and backgrounds come together to collaboratively reflect on questions that keep recurring throughout the book series As a tribute to anthropology in and of Europe the book is an experiment in collaboration as much as a testament to anthropology's vitality and relevance in a world which sees itself confronted by challenges of planetary dimension Nutritional and

The Central and East European Population since 1850 F. Rothenbacher,2016-04-30 This is the third volume of three on demographics All major fields of demographic change are covered Population figures are given for each population census by sex civil status and age Major demographic developments within the family are described providing a commentary on the main population structures and trends Literary Digest ,1919 Congressional Record United States. Congress,2001

The Congressional Record is the official record of the proceedings and debates of the United States Congress It is published daily when Congress is in session The Congressional Record began publication in 1873 Debates for sessions prior to 1873 are recorded in The Debates and Proceedings in the Congress of the United States 1789 1824 the Register of Debates in Congress 1824 1837 and the Congressional Globe 1833 1873 Digest; Review of Reviews Incorporating Literary

Digest ,1919 The Baltic States as Members of the European Union - An Analysis of the Public Opinion to EU Membership in the Baltic Region Urban Kaiser,2007-11 Seminar paper from the year 2005 in the subject Politics International Politics Region Eastern Europe grade 1 0 University of Latvia Department of Political Science course Politics and Policy in Baltic States 16 entries in the bibliography language English abstract The paper will be divided in two main parts The first part is about the structures and the functions of the EU institutions This presentation will be focused on three institutions of the EU The European Commission The Council of the European Union and The European Parliament due to the fact that this institutional triangle produces the policies and laws that apply throughout the EU Any of these institutions will be introduced in an own subchapter by explaining their composition procedures and functions Important to mention is that the Council of the European Union should not to be confused with the Council of Europe an organisation separate from the EU with a wider membership or with the European Council the meeting of the heads of state and government of the EU

together with members of the Commission Archer 2000 44 In the following the terms Council and Council of Ministers are only used as synonyms for The Council of the European Union The presentation of the institutions of the EU will be followed by an overview about the EU accession procedures of the three Baltic States This chapter will be introduced by a short description of the official regulations to become a member of the EU more precisely a description of the eight stages to EU These mentioned backgrounds are essential for the following second part of the paper the empirical analyse of the attitudes of the Baltic population to the European Union It is mainly based on aggregate data of several editions of the Eurobarometer which will be introduced in an own section Other also on aggregate data based surveys are used if they show significant different results or if they contain some Literary Digest: a Repository of Contemporaneous Thought and Research as Presented in the Periodical Literature of the World Edward Jewitt Wheeler, Isaac Kaufman Funk, William Seaver Woods, 1919

Hybridisation of Political Order and Contemporary Revisionism Nik Hynek, Vít Strátecký, 2022-08-01 This volume argues that contemporary political and security revisionism should not be considered a homogenous attack against the international order but rather a bag of tailor made strategies to exploit opportunities found in various highly localised contexts Scholars with backgrounds in Security Studies Area Studies International Relations and Political Theory are brought to examine revisionist tendencies in Central Eastern Europe Post Soviet Space China and the Transatlantic Space In doing so they try to remedy the existing disciplinary separatism or policing which has obfuscated any theorisation of the connections between international and domestic politics for many decades Part of the analytical focus is on novel phenomena especially the utilization of cyberspace and new social media and technological innovation One of the conclusions of this volume is that the rise in contemporary revisionism shows the oft forgotten importance of the first image of international politics political leaders in other words do indeed matter The fact that they matter is only reinforced when they represent regional or even great powers and especially revisionist regimes and states with the propensity to produce complex effects The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Europe Asia Studies Migration, Diasporas and

Legal Systems in Europe Prakash Shah, Werner Menski, 2020-09-10 At a time when issues concerning migration and the formation of diasporic communities have come to be critical for all European legal systems this volume reflects discusses and analyzes the questions raised by diasporas who have established themselves in Europe over more than fifty years of immigration and the challenges faced by legal systems in the light of continued migration Contributors from a broad range of backgrounds address prominent issues ranging from legal pluralism among minorities pressures on EU accession states irregular migration state control of family reunification and formation in light of human rights laws challenges for citizenship and nationality laws and the implementation of visa rules and juxtaposed control zones Besides the EU as a supranational legal order the book contains discussion of conditions in the United Kingdom Ireland France Spain Gibraltar Morocco Greece Turkey and Lithuania This volume accompanies The Challenge of Asylum to Legal Systems and is the second book to emerge from the W G Hart Legal Workshop held in 2004 at London s Institute for Advanced Legal Studies Likewar Peter Warren Singer,Emerson T. Brooking,2018 Social media has been weaponized as state hackers and rogue terrorists have seized upon Twitter and Facebook to create chaos and destruction This urgent report is required reading from defense experts P W Singer and Emerson T Brooking Changing Economies and Changing Identities in Postsocialist Eastern Europe Ingo Schröder,2008 This book addresses class formation and changes in personhood in contemporary Eastern Europe in the context of the spread of a market economy The authors investigate processes of social closure marginalization and elite formation paying particular attention to their cultural expressions and to the legitimizing discourses of nationalist and neoliberal agendas While individual and collective identities are inextricably linked with the consolidation of global capitalism external blueprints are everywhere mediated through historically grounded experiences and local social relations Comprising studies from Bulgaria Latvia Lithuania Poland and Russia the volume explores practices stories and performances in everyday life worlds The ethnographies show both individual and collective identities to be emergent projects constrained by economic processes and state policies but ultimately created by people themselves as they pursue their interests and search for meaning Perceptions of the European Union in New Member States Gabriella Ilonszki,2013-10-31 The book explores the views of elites alongside those of the wider population in the European Union The chapters place the new member states and the potential candidate Serbia on the map of Europe in this context for the first time The volume s comparative method goes beyond the standard old member states versus new member states divide It assesses regional differences within Central Europe and evaluates the problem of European and national identity formation perception of external threats to the EU including Russia differences between economic and political elite views about the integration process and the connection between national performance and public opinion about Europe Even though in each country positive views are dominant about the integration process heterogeneous views prevail behind the image of a unifying Europe The book s major contribution is that it makes the new member states more visible and provides hard evidence while remaining theoretically driven Furthermore it covers the most important topics that emerge in studies concerning European integration The book is intended for those interested in European integration in general but Central and Eastern European comparativists will find it particularly useful This book was published as a special issue of Europe Asia Studies Reforming the European Convention on Human Rights Council of Europe. Steering Committee for Human Rights,Council of Europe,2009-01-01 The European ministerial conference on human rights meeting in Rome on the 50th anniversary of the Convention for the Protection of Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms emphasised two crucial elements the responsibility of member states Parties to the Convention to ensure constantly that their law and practice conform to the Convention and to execute the judgments of the European Court of Human Rights that urgent measures be taken to assist the Court in carrying out its functions given the ever increasing number of applications An in depth reflection should be started as soon as possible on the various possibilities and options with a view to ensuring the effectiveness of the Court in the light of this new situation The Rome conference has sparked intensive work Ever since January 2001 the intergovernmental co operation activities of the Steering Committee for Human Rights CDDH of the Council of Europe have concentrated on developing normative instruments of which the most important has been Protocol No 14 to the Convention This work has benefited greatly from high level debates during a series of round table discussions within working groups and at seminars organised mainly by the successive presidencies of the Committee of Ministers The present volume contains a record of this work

Deterring Russia in Europe Nora Vanaga,Toms Rostoks,2018-09-21 This edited volume examines deterrence and the defense efforts of European states neighboring Russia following the Crimean intervention Deterrence after being largely absent from debates among academics and policy makers for almost a quarter of a century has made a comeback in Europe Since Russia s annexation of Crimea and the start of the military conflict in Ukraine s Donbass region eastern and northern European states have revised their assessments of Russia s policies and intentions The approach used by Russia in Ukraine has rendered lessons learned from the Cold War deterrence only partially applicable due to the changing security situation in Europe The emergence of the cyber realm a smaller emphasis on nuclear deterrence and the ideological conflict between Russia and the West are among the key differences between the Cold War and the current security environment Structured into two parts the first part discusses conceptual aspects of deterrence while the second discusses ten country case studies which include both NATO and non NATO countries This allows for an in depth analysis of the changing character of deterrence and its practical application by Russia s European neighbours This volume will be of much interest to students of strategic studies European politics Russian foreign policy security studies and international relations in general
