close friends leading contemporary artists political activists and art professionals. The result is a comprehensive yet lively and accessible biography that reveals the man and his art to a new generation of readers Storytelling around the World Jelena Cvorovic, Kathryn Coe, 2022-03-29 Explore storytelling as an art form that has existed for centuries from the first spoken and sung stories to those that are drawn and performed today This book serves as an indispensable resource for students and scholars interested in storytelling and in multicultural approaches to the arts By taking an evolutionary approach it begins with a discussion of origin stories and continues through history to stories of the 21st century The text not only engages the stories themselves it also explains how individuals from all disciplines from doctors and lawyers to priests and journalists use stories to focus their readers and listeners attention and influence them Geography and National Identity David Hooson, 1994-10-20 This volume of especially commissioned essays explores the geography of and the role of geography in national and proto national identity Place and national identity are bound together Attachment to the one is almost always inseparable from the sense of the other Yet as this volume shows the articulated self conscious linking of place and identity is by and large a modern phenomenon that took root in nineteenth century Europe The formation of supranational states and the much vaunted globalization of culture led many to believe there would be a progressive dilution of national identities and a growing agglomeration of places and nations into larger state units Precisely the reverse has taken place This book explores the connections between identity and homeland showing how a place may be perceived as archetypal endowed with love and celebrated in music and poetry yet be a pretext for violence and war It examines the evolution of ideas about identity and their manifestations in a wide variety of settings from the former Soviet Union to the island states of the South Pacific Maori Legends (seven Stories) Ronald Leonard Bacon, 1985
