Mapping Subaltern Studies And The Postcolonial Mappings Series By Verso 2012 11 13:

Mapping Subaltern Studies and the Postcolonial Vinayak Chaturvedi,2000 This volume in the Mapping series offers a balance sheet of the Subaltern Studies Project an intervention in South Asian history and politics which has generated an impact in Latin American Irish and African Studies Subaltern Geographies Tariq Jazeel,Stephen Legg,2024-08-20

Subaltern Geographies stands as the inaugural comprehensive exploration into the intersection of subaltern studies historical breakthroughs and the critical methodologies of cultural urban historical and political geography Editors Tariq Jazeel and Stephen Legg embark on an intellectual journey to scrutinize the relationship between space and spatial categorizations posing pivotal questions about the methodological philosophical potential that a geographically grounded engagement with the concept of subalternity offers in both historical and contemporary contexts This edited volume seeks to unravel the implications and impact of subaltern studies scholarship on geographical thought while navigating beyond methodological nationalism and Eurocentrism The book's contributors comprising historians geographers urban theorists and a social activist present diverse studies spanning colonial India post colonial Tanzania Andean Ecuador Delhi's recycling centres Bolivian protest sites the Indian Ocean and urban fragments The volume contends that politicointellectual skills are vital for conceiving and representing subaltern geographies This craft involves grappling with the complexities of translation mistranslation and the untranslatability inherent in radically different geographical descriptions The book further explores the challenges of retrieving notionally subaltern space from archives or through ethnographic and textual research Lastly it addresses the representational hurdles posed by ordinariness and everyday spatiality in contrast to conventional geographical descriptions Subalternity and Difference Gyanendra Pandey,2013-03-01 Focusing on concepts that have been central to investigation of the history and politics of marginalized and disenfranchised populations this book asks how discourses of subalternity and difference simultaneously constitute and interrupt each other The authors explore the historical production of conditions of marginality and minority and challenge simplistic notions of difference as emanating from culture rather than politics They return thereby to a question that feminist and other oppositional movements have raised of how modern societies and states take account of and manage social economic and cultural difference The different contributions investigate this question in a variety of historical and political contexts from India and Ecuador to Britain and the USA The resulting study is of invaluable interest to students and scholars in a wide range of disciplines including History Anthropology Gender and Queer and Colonial and Postcolonial Studies Postcolonial Studies Pramod K. Nayar,2015-09-28

This new anthology brings together the most diverse and recent voices in postcolonial theory to emerge since 9 11 alongside classic texts in established areas of postcolonial studies Brings fresh insight and renewed political energy to established domains such as nation history literature and gender Engages with contemporary concerns such as globalization digital cultures neo colonialism and language debates Includes wide geographical coverage from Ireland and India to Israel and

Palestine Provides uniquely broad coverage offering a full sense of the tradition including significant essays on science technology and development education and literacy digital cultures and transnationalism Edited by a distinguished postcolonial scholar this insightful volume serves scholars and students across multiple disciplines from literary and cultural studies to anthropology and digital studies Habitations of Modernity Dipesh Chakrabarty,2002-07-15 In Habitations of Modernity Dipesh Chakrabarty explores the complexities of modernism in India and seeks principles of humaneness grounded in everyday life that may elude grand political theories The questions that motivate Chakrabarty are shared by all postcolonial historians and anthropologists How do we think about the legacy of the European Enlightenment in lands far from Europe in geography or history How can we envision ways of being modern that speak to what is shared around the world as well as to cultural diversity How do we resist the tendency to justify the violence accompanying triumphalist moments of modernity Chakrabarty pursues these issues in a series of closely linked essays ranging from a history of the influential Indian series Subaltern Studies to examinations of specific cultural practices in modern India such as the use of khadi Gandhian style of dress by male politicians and the politics of civic consciousness in public spaces He concludes with considerations of the ethical dilemmas that arise when one writes on behalf of social justice projects Postcolonial Theory and the Specter of Capital Vivek Chibber,2013-03-12 Postcolonial theory has become enormously influential as a framework for understanding the Global South It is also a school of thought popular because of its rejection of the supposedly universalizing categories of the Enlightenment In this devastating critique mounted on behalf of the radical Enlightenment tradition Vivek Chibber offers the most comprehensive response yet to postcolonial theory Focusing on the hugely popular Subaltern Studies project Chibber shows that its foundational arguments are based on a series of analytical and historical misapprehensions He demonstrates that it is possible to affirm a universalizing theory without succumbing to Eurocentrism or reductionism Postcolonial Theory and the Specter of Capital promises to be a historical milestone in contemporary social theory Postcolonial Subaltern Issues Krishna Singh (Professor of English),2015 With a special reference to India
