Mapping the Social Landscape Susan J. Ferguson, 2020-08-27 Mapping The Social Landscape is one of the most established and widely used readers for Introductory Sociology Susan J Ferguson selects edits and introduces 58 readings representing a plurality of voices and views within sociology The selections include classic statements from great thinkers like C Wright Mills Karl Marx and Max Weber as well of the works of contemporary scholars who address current social issues The Science of College Patricia Snell Herzog, Casey T. Harris, Shauna A. Morimoto, Shane W. Barker, Jill G. Wheeler, A. Justin Barnum, Terrance L. Boyd, 2020 This book aids entering college students and the people who support college students in navigating college successfully In an environment of information overload where bad advice abounds this book offers readers practical tips and guidance The up to date recommendations in this book are based upon real students sound social science research and the collective experiences of faculty lecturers advisors and student support staff The central thesis of the book is that the transition to adulthood is a complex process and college is pivotal to this experience This book seeks to help young people navigate the college process The student stories in this book highlight how the challenges that college students can encounter vary in important ways based on demographics and social backgrounds Despite these varied backgrounds getting invested in the community is crucial for college success for all students Universities have many resources available but students need to learn when to access which resources and how best to engage with people serving students through different roles and with distinct expertise There is no single template for student success Yet this book highlights common issues that many students face and provides science based advice for how to navigate college Each chapter is geared toward college students with a focus on the life stage that many entering college students are in emerging adulthood In addition to the student focused chapters the book includes an appendix for parents and for academics along with supplemental website materials of instructional activities related to the content of the book Mapping the Social

Landscape: Readings in Sociology Susan J Ferguson, 2007-02-23 Drawing from a wide selection of classic and contemporary works the 60 selections in this best selling reader represent a plurality of voices and views within sociology In addition to classic works by authors such as Karl Marx Max Weber C Wright Mills David Rosenhan Kingsley Davis and Wilbert Moore this anthology presents a wide range of contemporary scholarship some of which provides new treatments of traditional concepts By integrating issues of diversity throughout the book Ferguson helps students see the inter relationships of race social class and gender and the ways in which they have shaped the experiences of all people in society

Trust, Politics and Revolution Francesca Granelli, 2019-12-04 Tracing the relationships and networks of trust in Western European revolutionary situations from the Ancient Greeks to the French Revolution and beyond Francesca Granelli here shows the essential role of trust in both revolution and government arguing that without trust both governments and revolutionary movements are liable to fail The first study to combine the importance of trust and the significance of revolution

this book offers a new lens through which to interpret revolution in an essential work book for all scholars of political science and historians of revolution

Race and Family Roberta L. Coles, 2016-01-07 The second edition of Race and Family maintains the book's distinctive feature introducing students to key concepts through a structural lens while featuring new material throughout Race and Family focuses on structural factors impacting all families such as demographic economic and historic trends which illuminate the similarities and distinctions among and within racial and ethnic groups After introductions to the study of race ethnicity and the family the book explores various issues such as family structure divorce non marital births gender roles racial identity formation intergenerational roles grandparenting care of elders and more The book offers specific chapters on racial ethnic groups including African American Asian American Latino American Middle Eastern American and Native American while also discussing white families multiracial families the acculturation process and more Key updates to the second edition include recent census and survey data a new chapter on Middle Eastern Americans new material on multiracial and multicultural families updated resources and more The second edition of Race and Family is a comprehensive introduction to race and family through a distinctive structural lens The book provides structural factors cross cultural perspectives and historical overviews that students can use to analyze the whys and ways of family across races and ethnicities A complimentary test bank is available to adopters as a Word document or via the free program Respondus Email textbooks rowman.com for further details

Sociology David M. Newman, 2018-07-26 This new Brief Sixth Edition of David Newman's text is the streamlined version of Sociology Exploring the Architecture of Everyday Life with the same goal to be a textbook that in the author's words reads like a real book Newman shows to see the unfamiliar in the familiar to step back and see organization and predictability in their take for granted personal experiences Newman uses the metaphors of architecture and construction to help students understand that society is not something that exists out there independently of themselves it is a human creation that is planned maintained or altered by individuals Instead of surveying every subfield in sociology this text focuses on the structural features of society the social construction of self and identity and social inequality in the context of social institutions The new edition includes examples and analysis of contemporary events and trends including The changes in our national politics brought about by the 2016 presidential election Increasing societal attention paid to fatal encounters between police and unarmed people of color or incidents of sexual harassment and assault School shootings and the debates over gun ownership The continued dramatic growth of communication technology particularly social networking sites

A History of Marriage Elizabeth Abbott, 2011-01-04 What does the tradition of marriage really look like In A History of Marriage Elizabeth Abbott paints an often surprising picture of this most public yet most intimate institution Ritual of romance or social obligation Eternal bliss or cult of domesticity Abbott reveals a complex tradition that includes same sex unions arranged marriages dowries self marriages and child brides Marriage in all its loving unloving decadent and impoverished manifestations is revealed here through Abbott's infectious
