Between the Pagan Past and Christian Present in Byzantine Visual Culture Paroma Chatterjee, 2022-01-06 Up to its pillage by the Crusaders in 1204 Constantinople teemed with magnificent statues of emperors pagan gods and mythical beasts Yet the significance of this wealth of public sculpture has hardly been acknowledged beyond late antiquity In this book Paroma Chatterjee offers a new perspective on the topic arguing that pagan statues were an integral part of Byzantine visual culture Examining the evidence in patriographies chronicles novels and epigrams she demonstrates that the statues were admired for three specific qualities longevity mimesis and prophecy attributes that rendered them outside of imperial control and endowed them with an enduring charisma sometimes rivaling that of holy icons Chatterjee's interpretations refine our conceptions of imperial imagery the Hippodrome the Macedonian Renaissance a corpus of secular objects and Orthodox icons Her book offers novel insights into Iconoclasm and proposes a more truncated trajectory of the holy icon in medieval Orthodoxy than has been previously acknowledged

Translation Classics in Context Paul F. Bandia, James

Hadley, Siobhán McElduff, 2024-07-31 Translation Classics in Context carefully considers the relationship between translation and the classics. It presents readers with revelatory and insightful case studies that investigate translations produced as part of nexuses of colonial resistance and liberation across Africa and in Ireland; translations of novels and folklore collections that influence not just other fictions but stage productions and entire historical disciplines; struggles over Ukrainian and Russian literature and how it is shaped and transferred; and the role of the academy and the curriculum in creating notions of classic translations. Along the way it covers oral poetry, saints, scholars, Walter Scott and Jules Verne, not to mention Leo Tolstoy and the Corpse Bride making her way from folklore to Frankenstein and into the world of Disney animation. Contributors are all leading scholars and the book is accessible and engaging, assuming no specialist knowledge. Chapter 6 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> under a Creative Commons Attribution Non-Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license.

Vipers of New Rome Max Fram, 2018-07-09 This is an unconventional non-fiction story of the somewhat stereotypical evil empresses of Constantinople Eirene Theophano and Zoe presented in the historical context of the successively emerging, flourishing and declining Byzantine Empire. This is a thrilling tale of three ambitious women and at the same time a dark story of three highly controversial individuals who may have loved their husbands and children but intrigued, betrayed, poisoned, maimed and killed for power. This is also the story of the imperial court and the Great Palace of New Rome, Constantinople, medieval Europe's greatest metropolis and its people. This is a study of Byzantine society and its dominant power players: the imperial family, the arrogant military, the fractious clergy and the ever-conspiring eunuch bureaucracy. More than anything, this book is about people who lived and breathed in early medieval times.

Ravenna Judith Herrin, 2022-04-12 A riveting history of the city that led the West out of the ruins of the Roman Empire. At the end of the fourth century, as the power of Rome faded and Constantinople became the seat of empire, a new capital city was rising in the West. Here in Ravenna, on the coast of Italy, Arian Goths and Catholic Romans competed to produce an unrivaled concentration of buildings and astonishing mosaics. For three centuries the city attracted scholars, lawyers, craftsmen and religious luminaries, becoming a true cultural and political capital. Bringing this extraordinary history marvelously to life, Judith Herrin rewrites the history of East and West in the Mediterranean world before the rise of Islam and shows how, thanks to Byzantine influence, Ravenna played a crucial role in the development of medieval Christendom. Drawing on deep original research, Herrin tells the personal stories of Ravenna while setting them in a sweeping synthesis of Mediterranean and Christian history. She narrates the lives of the Empress Galla Placidia and the Gothic king Theoderic and describes the achievements of an amazing cosmographer and a doctor who revived Greek medical knowledge in Italy, demolishing the idea that the West just descended into the medieval Dark Ages. Beautifully illustrated and drawing on the latest archaeological findings, this monumental book provides a bold new interpretation of Ravenna's lasting influence on the culture of Europe and the West.

Cecilia Palombo Maria Alessia Rossi Roman Shliakhtin Sarah C Simmons Andrew M Small Jakub Sypia ski Vincent Tremblay and Philipp Winterhager Unrivalled Influence Judith Herrin, 2013-03-13 Unrivalled Influence explores the exceptional roles that women played in the vibrant cultural and political life of medieval Byzantium. Written by one of the world's foremost historians of the Byzantine millennium, this landmark book evokes the complex and exotic world of Byzantium's women from empresses and saints to uneducated rural widows. Drawing on a diverse range of sources, Judith Herrin sheds light on the importance of marriage in imperial statecraft, the tense coexistence of empresses in the imperial court and the critical relationships of mothers and daughters. She looks at women's interactions with eunuchs, the in-between gender in Byzantine society, and shows how women defended their rights to hold land. Herrin describes how they controlled their inheritances, participated in urban crowds demanding the dismissal of corrupt officials, followed the processions of holy icons and relics, and marked religious feasts with liturgical celebrations, market activity, and holiday pleasures. The vivid portraits that emerge here reveal how women exerted an unrivalled influence on the patriarchal society of Byzantium and remained active participants in the many changes that occurred throughout the empire's millennial history. Unrivalled Influence brings together Herrin's finest essays on women and gender, written throughout the long span of her esteemed career. This volume includes three new essays published here for the very first time and a new general introduction by Herrin. She also provides a concise introduction to each essay that describes how it came to be written and how it fits into her broader views about women and Byzantium.

Cultures of Empire: Rethinking Venetian Rule, 1400-1700, 2020-07-27 This book investigates perceptions, modes, and techniques of Venetian rule in the early modern Eastern Mediterranean, 1400-1700. Against the backdrop of the controversial notion of the Venetian realm as a colonial empire, essays from a range of specialists examine how Venice negotiated control over the territories, resources, and traditions of different empires: Byzantine, Roman, Mamluk, Ottoman, while developing its own claims of authority. Focusing in particular on questions of belonging and status in the Venetian overseas territories, the volume incorporates observations on the daily realities of Venetian rule: how did Venice negotiate claims of authority in light of former and ongoing imperial belongings? What was the status of colonial subjects and ships in the metropolis and in foreign territories? In what ways did Venice accept and continue old forms of imperial belonging? Did subordinate entities join in a shared communal identity? The volume opens new perspectives on Venetian rule at the crossroads of empire and early modern statehood, a polity negotiating and entangling empire. Contributors are Housni Alkhateeb, Shehadeh Georg Christ, Giacomo Corazzol, Nicholas Davidson, Renard Gluzman, Deborah Howard, David Jacoby, z l Marianna Kolyv, Franz Julius Morche, Reinhold C Mueller, Monique O'Connell, Gerassimos D. The Crisis of the 14th Century Martin Bauch, Gerrit Jasper Schenk, 2019-12-16 Pre-modern critical interactions of nature and society can best be studied during the so-called Crisis of the 14th Century. While historiography has long ignored the environmental framing of historical processes and scientists have over emphasized nature's impact on the course of human history this volume tries to describe the at times complex modes of the late medieval relationship of man and nature The idea of teleconnection borrowed from the geosciences describes the influence of atmospheric circulation patterns often over long distances It seems that there were teleconnections in society too So this volume aims to examine man environment interactions mainly in the 14th century from all over Europe and beyond It integrates contributions from different disciplines on impact perception and reaction of environmental change and natural extreme events on late Medieval societies For humanists from all historical disciplines it offers an approach how to integrate written and even scientific evidence on environmental change in established and new fields of historical research For scientists it demonstrates the contributions scholars from the humanities can provide for discussion on past environmental changes

Wisdom's House, Heaven's Gate Teresa Shawcross, 2024-09-14 Taking as its starting point an investigation into the physical topography and symbolism of the two cities of Athens and Jerusalem this book offers a cultural history of the rival superpowers the Byzantine Empire and Fatimid Caliphate that between them dominated the Mediterranean world during the Central Middle Ages It shows that the destruction of the Church of the Holy Sepulchre in Jerusalem on the orders of al Hakim punctuated a century of heightened interaction resulting from changing patterns of warfare trade and pilgrimage Resettlement of both Christians and Muslims from Syria Palestine in Asia Minor and the Balkans introduced these migrants host culture to new forms of religious and artistic expression In Hellas a flurry of building projects reinvented Athens as a New Jerusalem and the Parthenon as a New Temple The Acropolis became famous for its miraculous lamp and elaborate liturgy The clergy who performed the sacred mysteries justified them with reference to concepts of hierarchy illumination and divinisation These concepts were derived from a philosophical tradition over whose ownership the two superpowers competed The resulting political theology was the creation of male intellectuals but female patrons and worshippers also had an impact

Corruption in the Graeco-Roman World Filippo Carlà-Uhink, Eike Faber, 2024-12-16 Defining corruption is an incredibly difficult task Being at the same time a concept identifying illegitimate and illegal behaviors mostly connected to positions of power and a word indicating a process of moral degeneration corruption is hard to tackle and disentangle especially when one considers how it is perceived and discussed in public discourse As deviance from the norm corruption shifts continuously different cultures recognize different kinds of behavior as corrupt Nonetheless earlier studies on corruption in Greek and Roman antiquity have often tried to define which periods were more or less corrupt or how corruption influenced the demise of political orders for example in the late Roman republic or in late antiquity This volume develops a different approach focusing on the ways in which ancient sources literary texts papyri laws etc have understood and defined corruption to gain an emic perspective of corruption in different moments and contexts of Graeco Roman Antiquity The volume thus provides an innovative and comprehensive perspective on corruption and anti corruption in Greek and Roman antiquity thus providing relevant tools also for today's discussions about a topic
