The sixties was a decade of safari suits shift dresses capri pants and droopy moustaches Of multi purpose French onion soup junket tripe and Bloody Marys Of success on the world s sporting stage and social and political stirrings at home as Baby Boomers and their parents began to see the world differently Award winning and much loved actor Noeline Brown cut a groovy figure in the sixties She confesses to us early on in Living the 1960s that she was a bit of a snob I preferred to listen to jazz and performance poetry to appreciate the lyrics of Bob Dylan and to watch foreign films I wore a lot of black and dramatic eye makeup and frequented windowless coffee lounges where people smoked heavily and played chess When she caught sight of The Rolling Stones in Sydney s Hilton cocktail bar one night during their 1965 tour to Australia she coolly noted their drink of choice bartender Eddie Tirado s newly introduced Bourbon and Coke before returning to sip her classic Martini hoping to look cosmopolitan and sophisticated Noeline also found time to be a committed weekend hippy to entertain us on the ground breaking satirical The Mavis Bramston Show and to frequent Vadim s restaurant till dawn discussing the state of the world with artists journalists and dissenters under the watchful gaze of ASIO operatives With her trademark dry sense of humour and story teller s gift Noeline is our knowledgeable guide into the smoke filled bars and cafes the pastel lounge rooms and boardrooms of 1960s Australia She explains the different social tribes a hippy could live off the smell of an oily rag and appeared to be wearing it as well a beatnik according to DJ John Burls was someone who had a little beard drank wine from a goatskin and called everybody man Young people identified as Sharpies Mods Rockers and Surfies depending on the fashions they wore and the music they listened to She takes us along the supermarket shopping aisles to the family dinner table I found a recipe in a magazine for Greek moussaka which featured minced lamb and potatoes not an eggplant in sight The list of ingredients included garlic the use of which was optional The white sauce topping was made from yoghurt flour and egg yolks Many dishes called for stock cubes and even monosodium glutamate A recipe for Neapolitan pizza dough in The Australian Women s Weekly in 1968 included copha and Deb Instant Potato Flakes But the nation was changing as young Australians woke up and switched on and our cities became more diverse New smells of garlic and rosemary and other herbs wafted through suburban back lanes and people took to the streets to protest conscription and to let the government know that they were not all the way with LBJ Containing more than 160 images and combining entertaining social history fact boxes and lively anecdotes Living the 1960s paints a picture of a decade that didn t just swing it twisted stomped and screamed For Noeline as for a generation of Australians it was the most important decade of her life      Overthrowing Geography Mark LeVine, 2005-05-02 This landmark book offers a truly integrated perspective for understanding the formation of Jewish and Palestinian Arab identities and relations in Palestine before 1948 Beginning with the late Ottoman period Mark LeVine explores the evolving history and geography of two cities Jaffa one of the oldest ports in the world and Tel Aviv which was born alongside Jaffa and by 1948 had annexed it as well as its surrounding Arab villages Drawing from a wealth of untapped primary sources including Ottoman records Jaffa Shari a court documents town planning records oral histories and numerous Zionist and European archival sources LeVine challenges nationalist historiographies of Jaffa and Tel Aviv revealing the manifold interactions of the Jewish and Palestinian Arab communities that lived there At the center of the book is a discussion of how Tel Aviv s self definition as the epitome of modernity affected its and Jaffa s development and Jaffa s own modern pretenses as well As he unravels this dynamic LeVine provides new insights into how popular cultures and public spheres evolved in this intersection of colonial modern and urban space He concludes with a provocative discussion of how these discourses affected the development of today s unified city of Tel Aviv Yafo and through it Israeli and Palestinian identities within in and outside historical Palestine Flight complex and confusing world of contemporary global development Informative diagrams cartoons and case studies are used throughout While exploring global geographies of economic and political change Rethinking Development Geographies is also grounded in a concern with people and places the view from below the views of women and the view from the South
