Committee on Education and Labor, 1967 Blue Routes for a New Era Bernard Aritua, Lu Cheng, Richard van Liere, Harrie de Leijer, 2021-06-11 Most policy makers readily acknowledge the economic environmental and social benefits of moving freight and passengers by waterways However why do many countries struggle to develop and revive their inland waterways transportation IWT One reason is because of the dearth of successful examples of IWT revival Aside from the United States and Europe which have been relatively successful the experience of many emerging countries has been a tale of intensive use followed by total collapse of the IWT sector However the combination of societal economic and environmental imperatives is motivating reassessment as countries look to develop sustainable transport systems and to curb greenhouse gas emissions from the transport sector China's experience has similarities to the experience of many countries and offers valuable lessons This report is the result of an in depth retrospective study of IWT in China and fills a gap in global knowledge From an IWT system that carried less than 150 million tons in 1978 IWT in China carried 3.74 billion tons of cargo in 2018 six times more than either the European Union or the United States China now has the busiest IWT system in the world China's leadership in IWT development started with years of investment in infrastructure that transformed lowgrade waterways allowing larger vessels to use the waterways which resulted in higher transport efficiency and lower cost China also invested in development of skills and technical know how To date there are 127 000 km of inland waterways in China that have high quality navigability and a good safety record During the period of rapid economic development China also adopted or developed internationally recognized technical innovations for river classification vessel replacement navigation technology and environmental protection What China achieved is informative In particular how and why China improved IWT provides valuable lessons for other countries Economic Opportunity Act Amendments of 1967 United States. Congress. House Education and Labor, 1967 The Imperfect Union Peter E. Quint, 2012-09-17 In the mid summer of 1989 the German Democratic Republic known as the GDR or East Germany was an autocratic state led by an entrenched Communist Party A loyal member of the Warsaw Pact it was a counterpart of the Federal Republic of Germany West Germany which it confronted with a mixture of hostility and grudging accommodation across the divide created by the Cold War Over the following year and a half dramatic changes occurred in the political system of East Germany and culminated in the GDR's accession to the Federal Republic itself Yet the end of Germany's division evoked its own new and very bitter constitutional problems The Imperfect Union discusses these issues and shows that they are at the core of a great event of political economic and social history Part I analyzes the constitutional history of eastern Germany from 1945 through the constitutional changes of 1989 1990 and beyond to the constitutions of the re created east German states Part II analyzes the Unification Treaty and the numerous problems arising from it the fate of expropriated property on unification the unification of the disparate eastern and western abortion regimes the transformation of East German institutions such as the civil service the universities and the judiciary prosecution of former GDR leaders and officials the rehabilitation and compensation of GDR victims and the issues raised by the fateful legacy of the files of the East German secret police Part III examines the external aspects of unification

Glocalized Solutions for Sustainability in Manufacturing Jürgen Hesselbach, Christoph Herrmann, 2011-03-19 The 18th CIRP International Conference on Life Cycle Engineering LCE 2011 continues a long tradition of scientific meetings focusing on the exchange of industrial and academic knowledge and experiences in life cycle assessment product development sustainable manufacturing and end of life management The theme Glocalized Solutions for Sustainability in Manufacturing addresses the need for engineers to develop solutions which have the potential to address global challenges by providing products services and processes taking into account local capabilities and constraints to achieve an economically socially and environmentally sustainable society in a global perspective Glocalized Solutions for Sustainability in Manufacturing do not only involve products or services that are changed for a local market by simple substitution or the omitting of functions Products and services need to be addressed that ensure a high standard of living everywhere Resources required for manufacturing and use of such products are limited and not evenly distributed in the world Locally available resources local capabilities as well as local constraints have to be drivers for product and process innovations with respect to the entire life cycle The 18th CIRP International Conference on Life Cycle Engineering LCE 2011 serves as a platform for the discussion of the resulting challenges and the collaborative development of new scientific ideas
