

SPANISH - AMERICAN WAR

Cuba wants independence from Spain. As a result, people in Cuba started major riots in their capital, Havana. This got the United States' attention. The United States' President, William McKinley wanted to help. He sent a ship named the USS Maine to provide support for Cuba. The ship exploded and everyone blamed Spain. Americans used the slogan "Remember the Maine" to rally for war. The United States was not happy with Spain controlling Cuba, but recognized its need to modernize its army and navy. It signed the Teller Amendment. The U.S. demanded that Spanish troops leave Cuba, but they refused.

The United States officially declared war on April 22, 1898.

Spain also controlled territory in the Philippines. The Filipino people there wanted their independence also. The United States also wanted to help them, so the first battle of the Spanish-American War was on May 1st, 1898 in Manila Harbor. The United States and the Filipino troops were successful. The Filipino President was able to take back control.

President McKinley sent the Fighting U.S. Marines to Cuba. These volunteers were known as the "Rough Riders." This group consisted of cowboys, scholars, athletes, and much more. On July 1st, 1898 the Rough Riders captured the hills around Santiago, Cuba. They helped the Americans win the Battle of San Juan Hill.

On August 12, 1898 armistice with Spain was declared. An armistice is a temporary end to hostilities by warring parties, a truce. The Spanish empire was over. On December 10, 1898 the Treaty of Paris was signed. Spain gave up control of Cuba, Puerto Rico, Guam, and the Philippines to the United States.
