Letters of William Gaddis, William Gaddis, 2013-03-14

Now recognized as one of the giants of postwar American fiction, William Gaddis (1922-1998) shunned the spotlight during his life, which makes this collection of his letters a revelation. Beginning in 1930 when Gaddis was at boarding school and ending in September 1998, a few months before his death, these letters function as a kind of autobiography and are all the more valuable because Gaddis was not an autobiographical writer. Here we see him forging his first novel, The Recognitions (1955), while living in Mexico, fighting in a revolution in Costa Rica, and working in Spain, France, and North Africa. Over the next twenty years, he struggles to find
