Making Babies Sandra Sabatini, 2006-01-01 Although the infant has been a consistent figure in literature and for many people a significant figure in personal life there's been little attention focused on infants or on their place in Canadian fiction until now In this book Sandra Sabatini examines Canadian fiction to trace the ideological charge behind the represented infant Examining writers from L M Montgomery and Frederick Philip Grove to Thomas King and Terry Griggs Sabatini compares women's writing about babies with the way infants appear in texts by men over the course of a century She discovers a range of changing attitudes toward babies After being seen as a source of financial burden social shame or sentimental fantasy infants have increasingly become a source of value and meaning The book challenges the perception of babies as passive objects of care and argues for a reading of the infant as a subject in itself It also reflects upon how the representations of infancy in Canadian literature offer an intriguing portrait of how we imagine ourselves

Literary Celebrity in Canada Lorraine York, 2017-05-08 In recent years Canadian authors have enjoyed tremendous international success writing novels that become Oscar nominated films or achieve coveted success as selections for the Oprah Winfrey bookclub Literary Celebrity in Canada is the first extended study of the dynamics of celebrity in the field of Canadian literature Building on the argument that celebrity is a phenomenon firmly embraced by mainstream culture Lorraine York examines it in relation to various tensions and conflicts within the literary community and beyond Using as examples three contemporary literary celebrities Margaret Atwood Michael Ondaatje and Carol Shields and four earlier popular writers Pauline Johnson Stephen Leacock Mazo de la Roche and L M Montgomery York demonstrates that individual authors respond differently to fame in ways that can be contradictory and complex She casts doubt on the notion of a specifically Canadian response to fame Depending on the public interpretation of a particular writer s life and work different tensions arise in negotiating literary celebrity Privacy versus publicity swift success versus laborious apprenticeship national versus international association or ownership of the celebrity no single version of celebrity applies to all Citizenship however is a remarkably consistent site of tension for stars literary or otherwise Like citizenship celebrity marks an uneasy space wherein the single special individual and the group demographic both meet and separate Literary Celebrity in Canada explores that space drawing on current theories of celebrity and questioning their tendency to view fame as an empty phenomenon This study is an innovative attempt to understand the psychology of literary stardom and will influence future research on contemporary literature and popular culture

Textual Transformations in Children's Literature Benjamin Lefebvre, 2013-01-04 This book offers new critical approaches for the study of adaptations abridgments translations parodies and mash ups that occur internationally in contemporary children s culture It follows recent shifts in adaptation studies that call for a move beyond fidelity criticism a paradigm that measures the success of an adaptation by the level of fidelity to the original text toward a methodology that considers the adaptation to be always already in conversation with the adapted text This book visits children s literature and culture in order to consider the generic pedagogical and ideological underpinnings that drive both the process and the product Focusing on novels as well as folktales films graphic novels and anime the authors consider the challenges inherent in transforming the work of authors such as William Shakespeare Charles Perrault L M Montgomery Laura Ingalls Wilder and A A Milne into new forms that are palatable for later audiences particularly when for perceived ideological or political reasons the textual transformation is not only unavoidable but entirely necessary Contributors consider the challenges inherent in transforming stories and characters from one type of text to another across genres languages and time offering a range of new models that will inform future scholarship
