Kevin Butcher,2021-04-06 Are you weary Trying to follow Jesus and be a good Christian only to hear the voice of shame whisper try harder Good Christians are supposedly known for diligently practicing spiritual disciplines like Bible study prayer evangelism and serving God Disciplines that are expected through inspired effort to conquer sin in us and in the world The tragedy is so few Christians understand that we aren't just sinful but wounded We don't need a list of disciplines We need a Healer a Deliverer to come and set us free Here is the truth We have a Healer His name is Jesus Christ He loves us His calls us first to own how desperate we are for him and then to accept his invitation to abide in his great love Kevin Butcher points us toward this healing Jesus who offers us his all encompassing love You will find nothing here about lists and shoulds Instead you will discover how to fall in love with Jesus and then how to walk with him not in drudgery but freedom abiding in his love A love that rescues us from drudgery and shame surrounding us with joy even in our darkest hour A love so powerful that it births our worship obedience and willingness to surrender all to him Even when hell is at your doorstep the love of Jesus will surround you protect you empower you and set you free Because God's love isn't just important to your journey God's love is everything

Ordained Ministry in Free Church Perspective Jan Martijn Abrahamse, 2020-10-12 In Ordained Ministry in Free Church Perspective Jan Martijn Abrahamse presents a constructive theology of ordained ministry by returning to the life and thought of the English Separatist Robert Browne c 1550-1633 This study makes a substantial contribution not only by solving one of the most thorny problems in congregational ecclesiology but also by recovering the legacy of this ecclesial pioneer Through an in depth analysis of Browne's literature the author provides a covenantal theology of ordained ministry in conversation with present day authors Stanley Hauerwas and Kevin Vanhoozer Inspired by the emerging trend of theology of retrieval Abrahamse offers a methodologically innovative way of doing systematic theology in a manner in which voices from the past can be made fruitful for today

Breaking Free Nichica F. Melton, 2021-03-29 Have you ever wondered why when you take one step forward you always seem to go two or three steps backward How many times have you found yourself at a crossroad and too scared to make a decision because you are fearful that you will make the wrong one Do you really know the voice of God Is your relationship with God where it should be Have you felt that something was holding you back but you can't identify or put your finger on what it is I decree and declare that your someday is right now and this moment is your moment to take the steps to truly break free Don't walk away from your right now moment and carry those burdens with you another day Break free Your purpose is waiting on you 38

Momany,2023-07-14 What motivates people to work for justice Recent studies have moved away from an emphasis on specific principles and toward an understanding of social and cultural forces But what about times in history when distinct ideas were critical for positive change The pre Civil War abolitionist movement represents one such time During an era when race based slavery was buttressed by the machinery of civil law many people developed arguments for freedom and equity that were grounded in divine law There were Methodist witnesses for justice who lived by this distinction between civil and godly authority While Methodism as an institution betrayed its founding opposition to slavery many within the movement expressed a prophetic vision A vibrant counterculture borrowed from Scripture and modern philosophy to argue for a higher law of justice The world changing ideas that overcame slavery in America were not disembodied and ethereal They were mediated through the lives of multidimensional individuals Sojourner Truth Luther Lee Laura Haviland Henry Bibb and Gilbert Haven were very different from one another Yet they were animated by similar ideas grounded in faith and shaped by a common commitment to human rights
