Kemet and the African Worldview Association for the Study of Classical African Civilizations. Conference, 1986 Kemet and the African Worldview Research Rescue and Restoration The Oxford Encyclopedia of African Thought Abiola Irele, 2010 From St Augustine and early Ethiopian philosophers to the anti colonialist movements of Pan Africanism and Negritude this encyclopedia offers a comprehensive view of African thought covering the intellectual tradition both on the continent in its entirety and throughout the African Diaspora in the Americas and in Europe The term African thought has been interpreted in the broadest sense to embrace all those forms of discourse philosophy political thought religion literature important social movements that contribute to the formulation of a distinctive vision of the world determined by or derived from the African experience The Encyclopedia is a large scale work of 350 entries covering major topics involved in the development of African Thought including historical figures and important social movements producing a collection that is an essential resource for teaching an invaluable companion to independent research and a solid guide for further study Jacob H. Carruthers and the Restoration of an African Worldview Kamau Rashid, 2024-06-10 Finding Our Way Through the Desert Jacob H Carruthers and the Restoration of an African Worldview offers a critical examination of the ideas and work of Carruthers a key architect of the African centered paradigm and a major contributor to its application to the study of Nile Valley culture and civilization Herein Kamau Rashid explicates some of Carruthers s principal contributions the theoretical and practical implications of his work and how Carruthers s work is situated in the stream of Black intellectual genealogy Essential to this book are Carruthers s concerns about the vital importance of Black intellectuals in the illumination of new visions of future possibility for African people The centrality of African history and culture as resources in the transformation of consciousness and ultimately the revitalization of an African worldview were key elements in Carruthers s conceptualization of two interrelated imperatives the re Africanization of Black consciousness and the transformation of reality Composed of three parts this book discusses various themes including Black education disciplinary knowledge and knowledge construction indigenous African cosmologies African deep thought institutional formation revolutionary struggle history and historiography to explore the implications of Carruthers s thinking to the ongoing malaise of African people globally The SAGE Encyclopedia of African Cultural Heritage in North America Mwalimu J. Shujaa, Kenya J. Shujaa, 2015-07-13 The Encyclopedia of African Cultural Heritage in North America provides an accessible ready reference on the retention and continuity of African culture within the United States Our conceptual framework holds first that culture is a form of self knowledge and knowledge about self in the world as transmitted from one person to another Second that African people continuously create their own cultural history as they move through time and space Third that African descended people living outside of Africa are also contributors to and participants in the creation of African cultural history Entries focus on illuminating Africanisms cultural retentions traceable to an African origin and cultural continuities ongoing practices and processes through which African culture continues to be created and formed Thus the focus is more culturally specific and less concerned with the broader transatlantic demographic political and geographic issues that are the focus of similar recent reference works We also focus less on biographies of individuals and political and economic ties and more on processes and manifestations of African cultural heritage and continuity FEATURES A two volume A to Z work available in a choice of print or electronic formats 350 signed entries each concluding with Cross references and Further Readings 150 figures and photos Front matter consisting of an Introduction and a Reader s Guide organizing entries thematically to more easily guide users to related entries Signed articles concluding with cross references

Achieving Blackness Algernon Austin, 2006-04-10 Achieving Blackness offers an important examination of the complexities of race and ethnicity in the context of black nationalist movements in the United States By examining the rise of the Nation of Islam the Black Power Movement of the 1960s and 1970s and the Afrocentric era of the 1980s through 1990s Austin shows how theories of race have shaped ideas about the meaning of Blackness within different time periods of the twentieth century Achieving Blackness provides both a fascinating history of Blackness and a theoretically challenging understanding of race and ethnicity Austin traces how Blackness was defined by cultural ideas social practices and shared identities as well as shaped in response to the social and historical conditions at different moments in American history Analyzing black public opinion on black nationalism and its relationship with class Austin challenges the commonly held assumption that black nationalism is a lower class phenomenon In a refreshing and final move he makes a compelling argument for rethinking contemporary theories of race away from the current fascination with physical difference which he contends sweeps race back to its misconceived biological underpinnings Achieving Blackness is a wonderful contribution to the sociology of race and African American Studies

On Race and Philosophy Lucius Outlaw,2016-01-08 On Race and Philosophy is a collection of essays written and published across the last twenty years which focus on matters of race philosophy and social and political life in the West in particular in the US These important writings trace the author s continuing efforts not only to confront racism especially within philosophy but more importantly to work out viable conceptions of race and ethnicity that are empirically sound while avoiding chauvinism and invidious ethnocentrism The hope is that such conceptions will assist efforts to fashion a nation state in which racial and ethnic cultures and identities are recognized and nurtured contributions to a more just and stable democracy

Forensic Psychiatry, Race and Culture Dr Suman Fernando,Suman Fernando,David Ndegwa,Melba Wilson,2005-08-08 Forensic psychiatry is the discipline which distinguishes the mad from the bad but are its values inherently racist Why are individuals from non Western backgrounds over represented statistically in those diagnosed with schizophrenia and other serious illnesses The authors argue that the values on which psychiatry is based are firmly rooted in ethnocentric Western culture with profound implications for individual diagnosis and systems of care Through detailed exploration of the history of psychiatry current clinical issues and present public policy this powerful book traces the growth of a system in which non conformity to the prevailing cultural norms risks alienation and diagnosis of mental disorder

Mental Health, Race and Culture Suman Fernando,2010-01-28 This powerful text offers a unique analysis of the impact of race and culture on contemporary issues in mental health Drawing on extensive international experience Fernando challenges the traditional ideas that inform practice in clinical psychology and psychiatry in order to promote new and alternative ways of thinking

Covering both theoretical perspectives and practical implications this insightful text discusses perceptions of ethnicity and identity compares practices around the world and looks at racism in mental health services This fully revised expanded and updated edition of a seminal text offers students and practitioners alike a comprehensive and reliable study of both western and non western psychiatry and mental health practices New to this Edition Covers trauma and psychosocial support Looks at the new discourses in mental health of recovery spirituality and well being Examines the mental health of refugees Refers to specific developments in low income countries including Asia and Africa Mental Health Worldwide S.

Fernando,2014-02-11 Offers a perceptive critique of the universalized model of psychiatry and its apparent exportation from the West to the developing world Rooted in detailed analysis of the problems this causes the book proposes new suggestions for advancing the field of mental health and wellbeing in a way that is ethical sustainable and culturally sensitive

Crisis and Disaster Counseling Priscilla Dass-Brailsford,2009-07-30 Crisis and Disaster Counseling Lessons Learned from Katrina and Other Disasters is a core textbook that addresses crisis mental health by examining three major crises disasters that have occurred in the last decade Hurricane Katrina Virginia Tech and September 11 An overview of the disaster response field is highlighted by focusing on current theoretical perspectives which have provided a framework for culturally and ecologically appropriate interventions Case studies in each chapter discuss evidence based practice approaches that show appropriate interventions This book features a practical skill building approach Essential Readings for Black

Liberation: Book Two Asafo Shaka Sekou, 2015-12-26 Essential Readings for Black Liberation is a collection of sources an extended bibliography and a guide for the reader who wants to develop a better understanding of the intellectual heritage of Black people and to develop a political consciousness The books selected for this work are essential for the black family looking to educate themselves about the political educational economic and psycho spiritual systems we find ourselves in the world over and to change those systems for the betterment of humanity Mapping Yorùbá Networks Kamari Maxine Clarke, 2004-07-12 Ethnographic study of life and ritual in an African American Yor b revivalist community in South Carolina and its complex relation to Nigerian Yor b identity Symbolic Blackness and Ethnic Difference in Early Christian Literature Gay L Byron, 2003-10-04 How were early Christians influenced by contemporary assumptions about ethnic and colour differences Why were early Christian writers so attracted to the subject of Blacks Egyptians and Ethiopians Looking at the neglected issue of race brings valuable new perspectives to the study of the ancient world now Gay Byron s exciting work is the first to survey and theorise Blacks Egyptians and Ethiopians in Christian antiquity By combining innovative theory and methodology with a detailed survey of early Christian writings Byron shows how perceptions about ethnic and color differences influenced the discursive strategies of ancient Christian authors She demonstrates convincingly that in spite of the contention that Christianity was to extend to all peoples certain groups of Christians were marginalized and rendered invisible and silent Original and pioneering this book will inspire discussion at every level encouraging a broader and more sophisticated understanding of early Christianity for scholars and students alike The Afrocentric Praxis of Teaching for Freedom Joyce E. King, Ellen E. Swartz, 2015-08-27 The Afrocentric Praxis of Teaching for Freedom explains and illustrates how an African worldview as a platform for culture based teaching and learning helps educators to retrieve African heritage and cultural knowledge which have been historically discounted and decoupled from teaching and learning The book has three objectives To exemplify how each of the emancipatory pedagogies it delineates and demonstrates is supported by African worldview concepts and parallel knowledge general understandings values and claims that are produced by that worldview To make African Diasporan cultural connections visible in the curriculum through numerous examples of cultural continuities seen in the actions of Diasporan groups and individuals that consistently exhibit an African worldview or cultural framework To provide teachers with content drawn from Africa s legacy to humanity as a model for locating all students and the cultures and groups they represent as subjects in the curriculum and pedagogy of schooling This book expands the Afrocentric praxis presented in the authors Re membering History in Teacher and Student Learning by combining re membered democratized historical content with emancipatory pedagogies that are connected to an African cultural platform A History of African Higher Education from Antiquity to the Present Y. G-M Lulat, 2005-08-30 This book surveys the history of higher education principally universities in Africa Its geographical coverage encompasses the entire continent from Afro Arab Islamic Africa in the north to the former apartheid South Africa in the south and the historical time span ranges from the Egyptian civilization to the present Since little has been written on this topic particularly its historical component the work fills an important gap in the literature The book delineates the broad contours of the history of higher education in Africa in exceptional historical breadth voluminously documenting its subject in the text detailed footnotes and lengthy appendices Its methodological approach is that of critical historiography in which the location of the African continent in world history prior to the advent of European colonization is an important dimension In addition the book incorporates a historical survey of foreign assistance to the development of higher education in Africa in the post independence era with a substantive focus on the role of the World Bank It has been written with the following readership in mind those pursuing courses or doing research in African studies studies of the African Diaspora and comparative international education It should also be of interest to those concerned with developing policies on African higher education inside and outside Africa as well as those interested in African Islamic history the development of higher education in medieval Europe the contributions of African Americans to African higher education and such controversial approaches to the reading of African history as Eurocentrism and Afrocentrism Our African American History Journey ,
