Tales from the Expat Harem Anastasia M. Ashman, 2010-03

As the Western world struggles to comprehend the paradoxes of modern Turkey a country both European and Asian forward looking yet rooted in ancient empire Tales from the Expat Harem reveals its most personal nuances This illuminating anthology provides a window into the country from the perspective of thirty two expatriates from seven different nations artists entrepreneurs Peace Corps volunteers archaeologists missionaries and others who established lives in Turkey for work love or adventure Through narrative essays covering the last four decades these diverse women unveil the mystique of the Orient describe religious conflict embrace cultural discovery and maneuver familial traditions customs and responsibilities Poignant humorous and transcendent the essays take readers to weddings and workplaces down cobbled Byzantine streets into boisterous bazaars along the Silk Road and deep into the feminine stronghold of steamy Ottoman bathhouses The outcome is a stunning collection of voices from women suspended between two homes as they redefine their identities and reshape their worldviews Coining the expat harem as a distinct community the editors also boldly reclaim the concept of an Eastern harem long the subject of erroneous Western stereotype Much like the imported brides of fifteenth century sultans our expat harem is conjured by the shared circumstance of being foreign born and female in a land laced with a harem tradition Ashman and Gokmen declare Our writers are inextricably wedded to Turkish culture embedded in it yet alien nonetheless

Tourism and the Spectre of Unlimited Change Hazel Tucker, 2024-02-05 This insightful volume forms a sequel to Living with Tourism Negotiating Identities in a Turkish Village tracking the tourism development and associated social change in the small town of Greme in Turkey's Cappadocia region within the last two decades Carefully crafted chapters explore the significant changes in the tourism forms place identity and social relations in the town On one level tourism business and Greme's living with tourism has matured and thrived the place has due largely to its booming hot air ballooning sector become an Instagram sensation some Greme families have become very wealthy and tourism has enabled many local women as well as men to craft new selves On another level new inequalities and tensions constantly emerge some families remain poor gentrification and hotel developments in the older cave house neighbourhoods have led to the disintegration of community and many people including those who are now wealthy talk often with a sense of nostalgia and regret about what Greme has become This book is a groundbreaking longitudinal account recounting the story of the place
