Young Chiara Briganti, Kathy Mezei, 2016-12-05 Domestic Modernism the Interwar Novel and E H Young provides a valuable analytical model for reading a large body of modernist works by women who have suffered not only from a lack of critical attention but from the assumption that experimental modernist techniques are the only expression of the modern In the process of documenting the publication and reception history of E H Young's novels the authors suggest a paradigm for analyzing the situation of women writers during the interwar years Their discussion of Young in the context of both canonical and noncanonical writers challenges the generic label and literary status of the domestic novel as well as facile assumptions about popular and middlebrow fiction canon formation aesthetic value and modernity The authors also make a significant contribution to discussions of the everyday and to the burgeoning field of homeculture as they show that the fictional embodiment and inscription of home by writers such as Young Virginia Woolf Elizabeth Bowen Ivy Compton Burnett Lettice Cooper E M Delafield Stella Gibbons Storm Jameson and E Arnot Robertson epitomize the long standing symbiosis between architecture and literature or more specifically between the house and the novel Twentieth-century Literary Movements Dictionary Helene Henderson, Jay P. Veyu, 2012-12-19 The Making of the Modern Artist Stephen Dedalus and Will Brangwen examines two fictional artists by James Joyce and D H Lawrence in A Portrait of the Artist as a Young Man and D H Lawrence's The Rainbow respectively It brings together Joyce and Lawrence in their common concern with the modern artist and modern art Taking the two major artist characters of the two works this study establishes that Joyce and Lawrence irrespective of major background educational artistic and philosophical differences converge on the person character artistic vision and working methods of the modern artist This study makes little effort at looking at these fictional artists as alter egos of Joyce and Lawrence it treats them as modern artists in their own right It attempts to give them somewhat a critical right of existence of their own

Muriel Spark: An Inclusive Study of her Illustrious Novels Dr. Mousumi Paul, 2023-07-13 From the Writer s Desk I am very much grateful to the Almighty and everyone whose blessings and inspirations has motivated me to write this book Muriel Spark was a Unique voice of the 20th Century In this book An attempt has been made to incorporate the feelings emotions disturbances instabilities of the Man that was represented in Muriel Spark works through her Characters The moments desires fears that dwells in the mind of the character for which they are not responsible I have tried to encamped the entire scenario by reflecting their situations in different chapters It is seen that her novels are an experimental foray into the relationship between the author and her character through which she is able to explore her own role as a novelist This book acknowledges the journey of the novelist who becomes more confident in writing her second novel Readers can see her journey who has accepted her life as full of meaning hall marked by design and purpose Muriel Spark a singular voice of 20th century literature a novelist poet and essayist she has style she has charm she has wit she s profound she s serious she s religious she s political and I went on my way rejoicing To have read all of Spark is an achievement in itself but also a spur to share that experience and to try to convey the impact and significance of her extensive portfolio The best way to lead a writers life is time tested and amply documented throughout history The Longman Companion to Victorian Fiction John Sutherland, 2014-10-13 With over 900 biographical entries more than 600 novels synopsized and a wealth of background material on the publishers reviewers and readers of the age the Longman Companion to Victorian Fiction is the fullest account of the period s fiction ever published Now in a second edition the book has been revised and a generous selection of images have been chosen to illustrate various aspects of Victorian publishing writing and reading life Organised alphabetically the information provided will be a boon to students researchers and all lovers of reading The entries though concise meet the high standards demanded by modern scholarship The writing marked by Sutherland s characteristic combination of flair clarity and erudition is of such a high standard that the book is a joy to read as well as a definitive work of reference Psychological Constructs and the Craft of African Fiction of Yesteryears Linus Tongwo Asong, 2012 The novel remains the most popular genre in the African literary landscape In the very large body of criticism that has been devoted to the craft of African fiction this very stimulating study of six African novels will hold its own distinctive place for a long while It brings to African critical thought not only an exceptional acumen of interpretation and analysis but something much more important to most of the previous serious literary study than mere technical dissection a keen sense of the experience and imaginative truth that make Asong's selected African texts living books as well as authentic record of human and moral values. Many of Asong's perceptions are not only critically shrewd but humanly searching, alert to aesthetic quality and invention. No one interested in creative criticism of African fiction will read this book without finding its approach a challenge to his or her own reading of African fiction and a stimulus to understanding the growth and enduring richness of the best of the African novel. The book balances nicely in its choice of three texts in English and three in French, the two dominant colonial languages in Africa South of the Sahara. Even more interesting is the fact that although all the French texts have been translated into English, Asong opts to treat the three in the original language in which they were conceived and executed, a decision which keeps the reader as close as possible to the original idiom.
