CHAPTER 1 (pages 1–20)

Questions about the Model (page 4)

Answers will vary. Possible answers include:

1. The writer places the reader in the context of beginning to write a paper and provides examples of questions that someone writing a paper might ask.
2. The final sentence in Paragraph 1 is the thesis statement.
3. Planners and discoverers
4. Four: freewriting, brainstorming, clustering, and outlining
5. The first sentence of each paragraph after Paragraph 1
6. To demonstrate that even professional writers must experiment with and revise their work.
7. To remind the reader of idea expressed in the first sentence of the introduction. This question gives the essay a sense of completion (or symmetry) as it returns to the beginning at the end.

Complete the Personal Essay (page 20)

The following essay is an example of a reflective introduction for a student's portfolio. It may also serve as a model of a personal essay on a student's writing practices, the topic of the expansion in Chapter 1.

What I've Learned in This Class Heloba Costa Ramos

I have faced many challenges in writing this semester, but I believe that I have also made great progress in meeting these challenges.

For example, the most difficult part of writing for me has always been getting started. I usually find myself staring at a blank piece of paper for long periods of time, searching for ideas, before being able to write anything at all. In the beginning, I have no idea what I want to say, but as I go over the ideas in my head, new thoughts will come into focus.

Something I learned this semester has helped me to overcome the delay in getting started. I now realize that no first draft is ever a good draft and that it's sometimes better to not think too hard or worry about it. The most important thing at this point in the process is to develop the structure of the essay and write out all my ideas and opinions. Probably the first draft will have many ideas that will prove to be irrelevant in the final draft. That's because I have learned the importance of cutting out the excess details. In my first essay, for example, I detailed the
