Looking Glasses and Neverlands Karen Coats, 2004-04 A Choice Outstanding Academic Title This groundbreaking study introduces and explores Lacan's complex theories of subjectivity and desire through close readings of canonical children's books such as Charlotte's Web, Stellaluna, Holes, Tangerine and The Chocolate War providing an introduction to an increasingly influential body of difficult work while making the claim that children's textual encounters are as significant as their existential ones in constituting their subjectivities and giving shape to their desires Looking Glasses and Neverlands: Lacan, Desire and Subjectivity in Children's Literature Karen Coats, 2004 The Hidden Adult Perry Nodelman, 2008-09-30 What exactly is a children's book? How is children's literature defined as a genre? A leading scholar presents close readings of six classic stories to answer these questions and offer a clear definition of children's writing as a distinct literary form. Perry Nodelman begins by considering the plots, themes and structures of six works: The Purple Jar, Alice in Wonderland, Dr. Doolittle, Henry Huggins, The Snowy Day and Plain City, all written for young people of varying ages in different times and places to identify shared characteristics. He points out markers in each work that allow the adult reader to understand it as a children's story, shedding light on ingrained adult assumptions and revealing the ways in which adult knowledge and experience remain hidden in apparently simple and innocent texts. Nodelman then engages a wide range of views of children's literature from authors, literary critics, cultural theorists and specialists in education and information sciences. Through this informed dialogue, Nodelman develops a comprehensive theory of children's literature, exploring its commonalities and shared themes. The Hidden Adult is a focused and sophisticated analysis of children's literature and a major contribution to the theory and criticism of the genre. History of New Netherlands Edmund Bailey O'Callaghan, 1846 The Grand Tour, Or, A Journey Through the Netherlands, Germany, Italy and France ... Thomas Nugent, 1778 Netherlands Indies Review, 1925 A tour through Holland, Dutch Brabant, the Austrian Netherlands, and part of France ...
