Yalla Feminists Lina AbiRafah, Rebecca O'Keeffe, 2023-11-07 The Arab region continues to be among the most challenging in the world for the progress of women's rights Equality remains elusive for women and vulnerable groups in the region due to traditional patriarchal cultures protracted crises lack of religious freedom discriminatory legal frameworks and chronic insecurity The strongest indicator of peace in any country is in its treatment of women but the story of women's rights in the region is one of patchy progress and major regress Today women are experiencing a massive backlash against their rights and fundamental freedoms And yet there is hope Feminists particularly young feminists from the Arab region fight tirelessly for their rights and are leading movements around the region pushing for change This book looks at the last 50 years of Arab feminism with a view to understanding what the next 50 years will hold Built from hundreds of firsthand accounts with women in the region this book brings together voices across the 22 Arab states to present new pathways to women's rights and gender equality Routledge Handbook on Women in the Middle East Suad Joseph, Zeina

Zaatari,2022-12-30 The Routledge Handbook on Women in the Middle East provides an overview of the key historical social economic political religious and cultural issues which have shaped the conditions and status of women in the region The book is divided into eleven thematic sections providing a comprehensive guide to understanding the current and historical contexts of women in the Middle East each giving ground breaking insights into various aspects of women s movements The importance of historical context including pre Islamic through post colonial histories The importance of politics and the state in understanding women in the ME Women s roles in political and social movements The impacts of the formal and informal economies and education on women of the region Women s spaces and the creation of publics and counterpublics The effects of war displacement and other forms of gendered violence Women family and the state Discourses and practices of religion Women and health practices Bodies and sexualities Women and sites of cultural production A unique overview of cutting edge research in the key arenas of pre Islamic to post colonial histories this Handbook will affect the way future generations of scholars engage with and add to the vast repository of socio political studies of the Middle East It will thus be of interest to researchers in gender studies women s studies pre Islamic and post colonial studies feminist studies and socio political and socio economic studies

Women's Activism in Africa Balghis Badri,Aili Mari Tripp,2017-02-15 Throughout Africa growing numbers of women are coming together and making their voices heard mobilising around causes ranging from democracy and land rights to campaigns against domestic violence In Tanzania and Tunisia women have made major gains in their struggle for equal political rights and in Sierra Leone and Liberia women have been at the forefront of efforts to promote peace and reconciliation While some of these movements have been influenced by international feminism and external donors increasingly it is African women who are shaping the global struggle for women s rights Bringing together African authors who themselves are part of the activist groups this collection represents the only comprehensive and up to date overview of women s movements in contemporary Africa Drawing on case studies and fresh empirical material from across the continent the authors challenge the prevailing assumption that notions of women s rights have trickled down from the global north to the south showing instead that these movements have been shaped by above all the unique experiences and concerns of the local women involved

Women's Activism and New Media in the Arab World Ahmed Al-Rawi,2020-06-01 Following the Arab Spring events in 2011 a number of important women s social movements as well as female figures and online communities emerged to create positive change and demand equality with men In Women s Activism and New Media in the Arab World Ahmed Al Rawi discusses and maps out new feminist movements organizations and trends assessing the influence of new media technologies on them and the impact of both on the values and culture of the Middle East Due to the participation of many women in the events of the Arab Spring he argues a new image of Middle Eastern women has emerged in the West As a result of social media women have generally become more effective in expressing their views and better connected with each other yet at the same time some women have been inhibited since many conservative circles use these new technologies to maintain their power Overall however Al Rawi argues that social media and new mobile technologies are assisting in creating changes that are predominately positive Often assisted by these new technologies the real change makers are women who have clear agencies and high hopes and aspirations to create a better future for themselves History, Women and Gender in the Modern Middle East Lisa Pollard, Mona L. Russell, 2023-12-20 This introductory text explores the gendered history of the modern Middle East from the eighteenth century to the present studying the various ways in which gender has defined the region and shaped relations in the modern era The book captures three aspects of change simultaneously the events that mark the modern Middle East women s encounters with the transition to modernity and gendered responses to modernity It contains both new fieldwork and a synthesis of secondary scholarship that highlight the role of gender in the modernization of Egypt Turkey Iran the Levant and the Persian Gulf states Chapters are organized chronologically to chart the rapid developments of the modern era but each chapter also stands on its own with coverage of masculinity and femininity sexuality marriage and the family labor and women s contributions to Arab Spring uprisings Through this comprehensive account the book pushes back on stereotypes that the Middle East is an ahistorical region and that women have not been vital actors in the process of change Richly illustrated and accessible for a variety of readers History Women and Gender in the Modern Middle East is an ideal resource for undergraduate and postgraduate students in gender studies and Middle Eastern history Islamists and the Politics of the Arab Uprisings Hendrik Kraetzschmar, 2018-06-30 Demonstrates how the textual output of settler emigration shapes the nineteenth century literary and artistic imagination Edinburgh Companion to the Postcolonial Middle East Ball Anna Ball, 2018-11-14 This Edinburgh Companion seeks to develop a postcolonial framework for addressing the Middle East The first collection of essays on this subject it assembles some of the world s foremost postcolonialists to explore the critical theoretical and disciplinary possibilities that inquiry into this region opens for postcolonial studies Throughout its twenty four chapters its focus is on literary and cultural critique It draws on texts and contexts from the late nineteenth to the early twenty first centuries as case studies and deploys the concept of post colonial modernity to reveal the enduring impact of colonial and imperial power on the shaping of the region And it covers a wide and significant range of political social and cultural issues in the Middle East during that period including the heritage of Orientalism in the region the roots and contemporary branches of the Israel Palestine conflict colonial history state formation and cultures of resistance in Egypt Turkey the Maghreb and the wider Arab world the clash of tradition and modernity in regional and transnational expressions of Islam the politics of gender and sexuality in the Arab world the ongoing crises in Libya Iraq Iran and Syria the Arab Spring and the Middle Eastern refugee crisis in Europe Companion to Feminist Studies Nancy A. Lebanese Women at the Crossroads Nelia Hyndman-Rizk, 2020-01-22 Thirty years after the end of the civil war Lebanese women are still struggling for gender equality This study builds on recent scholarship on women s activism in the Arab world in the context of the Arab Spring It examines how discourses of secularism and equal civil rights have informed the contemporary Lebanese women s movement in their campaigns for a domestic violence law women s nationality rights a women s quota in parliament the reform of personal status law and the recognition of civil marriage This book argues that women are caught between sect and nation due to Lebanon s plural legal system which makes a division between religious and civil law While both jurisdictions allocate women relational rights guided by the logic of patrilineal descent women s inequality is central to the reproduction of sectarian difference and patriarchal control within the confessional political system as a whole

Working Women in Jordan Fida J. Adely, 2024-06-05 A surprising look at the meaningful social changes in Jordan as lived and navigated by educated women Jordan has witnessed tremendous societal transformation in its relatively short history Today it has one of the most highly educated populations in the region and women have outnumbered and outperformed their male counterparts for more than a decade Yet despite their education and professional status many women still struggle to build a secure future and a life befitting of their aspirations In Working Women in Jordan anthropologist Fida J Adely turns to college educated women in Jordan who migrate from rural provinces to Amman for employment opportunities Building on twelve years of ethnographic research and extensive interviews with dozens of women as well as some of their family members Adely analyzes the effects of developments such as expanded educational opportunities urbanization privatization and the restructuring of the labor market on women s life trajectories gender roles the institution of marriage and kinship relations Through these rich narrative accounts and the analysis of broader socio economic shifts Adely explains how educational structures can act as both facilitators and obstacles to workforce entry along with cascading consequences for family and social life Deeply thorough and compelling Working Women in Jordan asks readers to think more critically about what counts as development and for whom

Embodying Geopolitics

Nicola Pratt, 2020-10-27 When women took to the streets during the mass protests of the Arab Spring the subject of feminism in the Middle East and North Africa returned to the international spotlight In the subsequent years countless commentators treated the region's gender inequality as a consequence of fundamentally cultural or religious problems. In so doing they overlooked the specifically political nature of these women's activism. Moving beyond such culturalist accounts, this book turns to the relations of power in regional and international politics to understand women's struggles for their rights. Based on over a hundred extensive personal narratives from women of different generations in Egypt, Jordan, and Lebanon, Nicola Pratt traces women's activism from national independence through to the Arab uprisings, arguing that activist women are critical geopolitical actors. Weaving together these personal accounts with the ongoing legacies of colonialism, Embodying Geopolitics demonstrates how the production and regulation of gender is integrally bound up with the exercise and organization of geopolitical power with consequences for women's activism and its effects. A

Journey into Women's Studies R. Pande, 2014-07-22 The present book is a journey of many women across the world who have struggled to give women's studies visibility. Drawing upon the contributors' diverse experiences and concerns, it explores the metamorphosis of women's studies from the early days to date. The Oxford Handbook of Islam and Women Asma

Afsaruddin, 2023 The Oxford Handbook of Islam and Women offers authoritative contributions from well-known scholars whose sophisticated and cutting-edge research explores the diversity of Muslim women's lives and their accomplishments, challenging common stereotypes that are particularly prevalent in the West. Women, Money, and Political Participation in the Middle East Bozena C. Welborne, 2022-08-10 This book examines women's money and political participation in the Middle East and North Africa, focusing on women's capacity to engage local political systems. In particular, it considers whether and how this engagement is facilitated through specific types of financial flows from abroad. Arab countries are well-known rentier states and so a prime destination for foreign aid, worker remittances, and oil-related investment. Alongside other factors, these external monies have elicited dramatic shifts in gender-related social norms and expectations, both from the state and the domestic population, affording certain women the opportunity to enter the political arena while leaving others behind. The research presented here expands the discussion of women in rentier political economy and highlights their roles as participants and agents within regional templates for economic development. Historical

Dictionary of Yemen Charles Schmitz, Robert D. Burrowes, 2017-10-25 Yemen has experienced wrenching changes that have transformed the country in yet unknown ways. The country exploded in a popular revolution against the long-time rule of Ali Abdallah Saleh. While the country appeared to slip toward civil war, Yemeni political elite rallied with international backers to put together a transitional government with a plan to revise the country's constitution. The transitional government began with a cautious sense of optimism and the prospect of substantial change for the better but ended in collapse because of a failure to govern. The politics of the street overran an ineffective transitional government that could not address the urgent concerns of Yemeni citizens for security and jobs. Instead, populist leaders exploited people's dissatisfactions and threw the country into civil war. The Houthi organization covertly allied with its former enemy Ali Abdallah Saleh to overthrow the transitional government and declare war on the rest of the country Saleh seems unable to conceive of life outside of the Presidential Palace and his Houthi allies appear to believe they are destined to rule Unfortunately those opposed to Saleh and the Houthi also seem unable to provide effective rule in spite of massive backing from the Gulf States The incompetence infighting and incoherence of the Hadi government bode equally ill for the future of the country The one hope may be that a new generation of Yemeni leaders emerges to displace the dismal failures of this one This third edition of Historical Dictionary of Yemen contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 1000 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Yemen

Islamophobia and Lebanon Ali Kassem, 2023-01-26 Thinking through anti post and decolonial theories this book examines analyses and conceptualises visibly Muslim Lebanese women's lived experiences of discrimination assault wounding and erasure Based on in depth research alongside over 100 Sunni and Shia participant between 2017 and 2019 it situates these experiences at the intersection of the local and the global and argues for their conceptualisation as a form of structural and lived anti Muslim racism In doing this it discusses the convergences and divergences of anti Muslim racism in Lebanon with anti Muslim racism in other parts of both the global north and the global south It examines the production of this racialisation as well as its workings across spheres of public private work and state including an analysis of internalised self hate It further explores various forms of resistance and negotiation and the contemporary possibilities and impossibilities of working beyond the epistemic framework of Eurocentric modernity As the first in depth and extensive study of anti Muslim racism within Muslim majority and Arab majority spaces it offers an urgent and timely redress to multiple gaps and biases in the study of the Muslim majority and Arab majority worlds as well as racialisation broadly and Islamophobia specifically
