Mapping Norwood An Irish American Memoir:

Mapping Norwood Charles Fanning, 2010 A noted scholar evokes the world of his childhood and investigates certain family mysteries Irish-American Autobiography James Silas Rogers, 2017-01-27 This lively survey of the ever changing Irish American experience contains many perceptive and sometimes surprising observations The Irish Times Irish American Autobiography explores the evolution of Irishness in America through memoirs that describe define and redefine what it means to be Irish From athletes and entertainers to saloon keepers community activists and Catholic priests Irish Americans of all stripes share their thoughts and perceptions on their ever evolving ethnic identity Poet and Irish studies specialist James Silas Rogers begins his evocative analysis with celebrity memoirs by athletes like boxer John L Sullivan and ballplayer Connie Mack written when the Irish were eager to put their raffish origins behind them Later he traces the many tensions registered by lesser known Irish Americans who've told their life stories South Boston step dancers set themselves against the larger culture framing their identity as outsiders looking in Even the classic 1950s sitcom The Honeymooners speaks to the poignant sense of exclusion felt by its creator Jackie Gleason Rogers also examines the changing role of Catholicism as a cultural touchstone for Irish Americans and examines the painful diffidence of priest autobiographers Irish American Autobiography becomes in the end a story of a continued search for connection documenting an ethnic fade that never quite happened A History of Irish Autobiography Liam Harte, 2018-03-01 A History of Irish Autobiography is the first ever critical survey of autobiographical self representation in Ireland from its recoverable beginnings to the twenty first century The book draws on a wealth of original scholarship by leading experts to provide an authoritative examination of autobiographical writing in the English and Irish languages Beginning with a comprehensive overview of autobiography theory and criticism in Ireland the History guides the reader through seventeen centuries of Irish achievement in autobiography a category that incorporates diverse literary forms from religious tracts and travelogues to letters diaries and online journals This ambitious book is rich in insight Chapters are structured around key subgenres themes texts and practitioners each featuring a guide to recommended further reading The volume's extensive coverage is complemented by a detailed chronology of Irish autobiography from the fifth century to the contemporary era the first of its kind to be published

The Music of What Happens Charles Fanning, 2024-04-29 Irish Americans in turbulent times In The Music of What Happens author Charles Fanning relates what it felt like to be a member of an Irish working class community in a dynamic expanding American city in the late nineteenth century Irish immigrants John and Eileen O Malley Farrell live in the Chicago South Side neighborhood of Bridgeport with their three children Jimmy twelve Mary ten and Margaret five Their family experiences turmoil and tragedy and responds with unrelenting endurance This is the coming of age story of young Irish Americans the children of immigrants who grow up in the 1880s in Chicago The novel evokes and re imagines 19th century neighborhood communities from the inside It renders challenges to those communities from tragedies both internal failure to protect the least among them from destitution and external casualties in the undeclared war against British rule in Ireland and murder of a factory girl The saving grace of art Irish traditional music in this case helps to heal community members affected by the tragedies

Chicago by the Book The Caxton Club, 2018-11-20 Despite its rough and tumble image Chicago has long been identified as a city where books take center stage In fact a volume by A J Liebling gave the Second City its nickname Upton Sinclair's The Jungle arose from the midwestern capital's most infamous industry The great Chicago Fire led to the founding of the Chicago Public Library The city has fostered writers such as Nelson Algren Saul Bellow and Gwendolyn Brooks Chicago's literary magazines The Little Review and Poetry introduced the world to Eliot Hemingway Joyce and Pound The city's robust commercial printing industry supported a flourishing culture of the book With this beautifully produced collection Chicago's rich literary tradition finally gets its due Chicago by the Book profiles 101 landmark publications about Chicago from the past 170 years that have helped define the city and its image Each title carefully selected by the Caxton Club a venerable Chicago bibliophilic organization is the focus of an illustrated essay by a leading scholar writer or bibliophile Arranged chronologically to show the history of both the city and its books the essays can be read in order from Mrs John H Kinzie's 1844 Narrative of the Massacre of Chicago to Sara Paretsky's 2015 crime novel Brush Back Or one can dip in and out savoring reflections on the arts sports crime race relations urban planning politics and even Mrs O Leary's legendary cow The selections do not shy from the underside of the city recognizing that its grit and graft have as much a place in the written imagination as soaring odes and boosterism As Neil Harris observes in his introduction Even when Chicagoans celebrate their hearth and home they do so while acknowledging deep seated flaws At the same time this collection heartily reminds us all of what makes Chicago as Norman Mailer called it the great American city With essays from among others Ira Berkow Thomas Dyja Ann Durkin Keating Alex Kotlowitz Toni Preckwinkle Frank Rich Don Share Carl Smith Regina Taylor Garry Wills and William Julius Wilson and featuring works by Saul Bellow Gwendolyn Brooks Sandra Cisneros Clarence Darrow Erik Larson David Mamet Studs Terkel Ida B Wells Barnett Frank Lloyd Wright and many more
