MARCH 2014

WEEK STARTING MARCH 10

Song 1 and Prayer

☐ Congregation Bible Study:

cf chap. 4 ¶1-9 (30 min.)

☐ Theocratic Ministry School:

Bible reading: Genesis 40-42 (10 min.)

No. 1: Genesis 41:1-16 (4 min. or less)

No. 2: How Do the Rest of the Dead Come to Life on Earth?—rs p. 338 ¶2—p. 339 ¶2 (5 min.)

No. 3: Abihu—Prominence Does Not Excuse Disobedience—if-1 p. 22 (5 min.)

☐ Service Meeting:

Song 88

15 min: Family Worship That Refreshes. Interview a family regarding their family worship. Of what does their program consist? How do they determine what to discuss? What tools available on jw.org have they used? How has their program helped them in the ministry? How do they prevent other activities from disrupting their schedule? How have they benefited from their program of family worship?

15 min: “Improving Our Skills in the Ministry—Responding to Potential Conversation Stoppers.” Discussion. Consider two or three potential conversation stoppers that publishers may encounter, and invite comments on how we might respond. Remind publishers that they will have an opportunity to relate experiences during the week of April 7.

Song 97 and Prayer

Improving Our Skills in the Ministry—Responding to Potential Conversation Stoppers

Why Important: Imagine that you know that a natural disaster is imminent. People will die unless they flee to safety. You go to a neighbor’s home to warn him, but he interrupts you, saying that he is busy. Surely, you would not quickly abandon your efforts to help him! Many in our territory turn us away, not realizing the life-saving value of our message. At the time of our visit, perhaps they are preoccupied. (Matt. 24:37-39) Or maybe they have been prejudiced by untrue rumors. (Matt. 11:18, 19) They might assume that we are no different from the religions that have produced bad fruitage. (2 Pet. 2:1, 2) If the householder initially is not interested, we should not be quick to give up.

How to Do It:

- Before preaching from house to house, take a few moments to think about potential conversation stoppers that you may encounter and consider how to respond.
- If the householder presents an objection, gently try to continue the conversation. Perhaps you can do that by commending him. For example, if he says that he has his own religion, you might reply, “I was hoping to find someone like you who has an interest in spiritual things.” Sometimes acknowledging the householder’s feelings or circumstances will enable you to continue giving a witness. For instance, if he says that he is busy, you might say: “I understand. But before I leave, I would like to give you this.” Another option is to ask a question if the householder says that he is not interested. You could say, “Do you mean that you are not interested in the Bible, or is it religion in general that does not interest you?”
- Use good judgment. Remember that Jehovah does not force people to listen. (Deut. 30:19) Everyone must carry his own load of spiritual responsibility. (Gal. 6:5) If the householder is adamant, it is best to take our leave. By demonstrating respect for his feelings, we may open the door for another publisher to give a witness in the future. —1 Pet. 3:15.

Try This During the Month:

- When you encounter a potential conversation stopper, after leaving the householder, discuss with your partner how you might have responded in a better way.

Forgotten Diplomacy Vincent K.L. Chang, 2019-11-26 In this meticulously researched volume Vincent Chang resurrects a near forgotten yet pivotal chapter of Dutch Chinese ties to narrate how World War II the civil war in China and Indonesia's decolonization redefined and remade this age old bilateral relationship Drawing on a unique range of hitherto unexplored archives the book explains how China's nascent rise on the global scene and the Netherlands simultaneous decline as a colonial power shaped events in Dutch controlled Indonesia and vice versa and prompted a recalibration of their mutual ties culminating in the Netherlands recognition of the People's Republic and laying the foundations for Dutch and Chinese policies through to the present. Offering insightful analyses of power dynamics and international law at the close of empire this book is a critical resource for historians and China specialists as well as scholars of international relations. Freedom of Information

Matthew Burgess, 2015-06-19 Freedom of Information A Practical Guide for UK Journalists is written to inform, instruct and inspire journalists on the investigative possibilities offered by the Freedom of Information Act. Covering exactly what the Act is, how to make FOI requests and how to use the Act to hold officials to account, Matt Burgess utilises expert opinions, relevant examples and best practice from journalists and investigators working with the Freedom of Information Act at all levels. The book is brimming with illuminating and relevant examples of the Freedom of Information Act being used by journalists alongside a range of helpful features including end of chapter lists of tips and learning points, sections addressing the different areas of FOI requests, text boxes on key thoughts and cases, interviews with leading contemporary journalists and figures working with FOI requests. Supported by the online FOI Directory www.foidirectory.co.uk. Freedom of Information A Practical Guide for UK Journalists is a must read for all those training or working as journalists on this essential tool for investigating, researching and reporting. Maritime Interception and the Law of Naval Operations Martin Fink, 2018-08-29

This book considers the international law applicable to maritime interception operations (MIO) conducted on the high seas and within the context of international peace and security. MIO being a much used naval operational activity employed within the entire spectrum of today's conflicts. The book deals with the legal aspects flowing from the boarding and searching of foreign flagged vessels and the possible arrest of persons and confiscation of goods and analyses the applicable law with regard to maritime interception operations through the legal bases and legal regimes. Considered are MIO undertaken based on for instance the UN Collective Security System, maritime embargo operations, self defence and ad hoc consent and within the context of legal regimes various views are provided on the right of visit, the use of force and the use of detention. This volume which has contemporary naval operations as its central focus and structures the analysis as a sub discipline of the international law of military operations will be of great interest both to academics, practitioners and policy advisors working or involved in the field of military and naval operations and to those professionals wanting to learn more about the international law of military operations, naval operations and the law of the sea and maritime security. Martin Fink is a naval and legal officer in the Royal Netherlands Navy. States of Subsistence José Ciro Martínez, 2022-04-12 On any given day in Jordan more than nine million residents eat approximately ten million loaves of khubz arabi, the slightly leavened flatbread known to many as pita. Some rely on this bread to avoid starvation; for others it is a customary pleasure. Yet despite its ubiquity in accounts of Middle East politics and society, rarely do we consider how bread is prepared, consumed, discussed and circulated and what this all represents With this book Jos Ciro Mart nez examines khubz arabi to unpack the effects of the welfare program that ensures its widespread availability Drawing on more than a year working as a baker in Amman Mart nez probes the practices that underpin subsidized bread Following bakers and bureaucrats he offers an immersive examination of social welfare provision Mart nez argues that the state is best understood as the product of routine practices and actions through which it becomes a stable truth in the lives of citizens States of Subsistence not only describes logics of rule in contemporary Jordan and the place of bread within them but also unpacks how the state endures through forms sensations and practices amid the seemingly unglamorous and unspectacular day to day

Climate Risk and Resilience in China Rebecca Nadin, Sarah Opitz-Stapleton, Xu Yinlong, 2015-10-14 China has been subject to floods droughts and heat waves for millennia these hazards are not new What is new is how rapidly climate risks are changing for different groups of people and sectors This is due to the unprecedented rates of socio economic development migration land use change pollution and urbanisation all occurring alongside increasingly more intense and frequent weather hazards and shifting seasons China s leadership is facing a significant challenge from conducting and integrating biophysical and social vulnerability and risk assessments and connecting the information from these to policy priorities and time frames to developing and implementing policies and actions at a variety of scales It is within this challenging context that China s policy makers businesses and citizens must manage climate risk and build resilience This book provides a detailed study of how China has been working to understand and respond to climatic risk such as droughts and desertification in the grasslands of Inner Mongolia to deadly typhoons in the mega cities of the Pearl River Delta Using research and data from a wide range of Chinese sources and the Adapting to Climate Change in China ACCC project a research to policy project this book provides a fascinating glimpse into how China is developing policies and approaches to manage the risks and opportunities presented by climate change This book will be of interest to those studying global and Chinese climate change policy regional food water and climate risk and to policy advisors

The New Relationship between the United Kingdom and the European Union Emmanuel Guinchard, Carlo Panara, 2025-03-29 Brexit has reshuffled the cards of the relationship between the United Kingdom and the European Union It is a one in a lifetime event which ended nearly 50 years of EU Membership EU law as such no longer applies in the United Kingdom and British citizens and companies no longer benefit from its advantages Part of the previous regime has however been maintained at times with amendments through the series of treaties negotiated between the UK and the EU in 2019 and 2020 in particular the Trade and Cooperation Agreement of 2020 to which the 2023 Windsor Agreement can be added The end result is a legal regime which is perhaps even more complex than EU law itself This book aims to provide the reader with a clarification of this legal regime as well as provide context to it and suggestions to improve it All key topics are covered such as citizens of the EU in the UK and British citizens in the EU trade in goods and in services criminal justice public procurement Northern Ireland the UK overseas territories the dispute settlement security and defence international trade agreements of the UK post Brexit environmental protection European civil justice financial services education and research and the European offices of the UK local authorities and devolved administrations after Brexit All the chapters follow wherever possible the same triadic structure The first part looks at the regime prior to Brexit the second part analyses the current regime and the third part discusses ongoing and predictable trends The concluding chapter attempts to identify some themes likely to impact on the forthcoming preparation of the 2026 review
