Marines Dodging Death:

Marines Dodging Death Robert A. Simonsen, 2008-12-26 Most Marine and Navy Corpsmen who have seen active combat have at one time or another experienced a close call when they were seconds or perhaps inches from death yet survived because of a quick reaction divine intervention or just plain luck From Pearl Harbor to Baghdad this volume contains the stories of 62 Marines who narrowly escaped death while fighting in America's wars Inspired by the author's own close call in May 1968 it recounts a great variety of harrowing experiences Personal background from before and after the close calls provides a more human facet while additional research adds historical information to these fascinating stories of Marines and Navy Corpsmen The United States Marine Corps John C. Fredriksen, 2011-04-08 This comprehensive survey profiles one of history's greatest fighting forces on land sea and air The United States Marine Corps A Chronology 1775 to the Present touches upon all aspects of the Continental and U S Marine Corps since their inception All major battles in all major wars are covered along with innumerable smaller clashes and deployments abroad The evolution of amphibious doctrine so essential to Marine Corps activity in the 20th and 21st centuries is likewise covered in detail along with the rise of Marine Corps aviation Through a diary of daily occurrences proffered in the context of greater historical events this chronology captures the entire sweep of U S Marine Corps history It follows the Corps from the American Revolution to the halls of Montezuma and the shores of Tripoli through World Wars I and II and up to Operation IRAQI FREEDOM and Operation ENDURING FREEDOM in Afghanistan Entries delineate battlefield events but also significant political and administrative changes that have affected the Marines Notable events in the careers of generals and other individuals are included as well Don't Stop Thinking About the Music Benjamin S. Schoening, Eric T. Kasper, 2011-12-16 In this insightful erudite history of presidential campaign music musicologist Benjamin Schoening and political scientist Eric Kasper explain how politicians use music in American presidential campaigns to convey a range of political messages From Follow Washington to I Like Ike to I Got a Crush on Obama they describe the ways that song use by and for presidential candidates has evolved including the addition of lyrics to familiar songs the current trend of using existing popular music to connect with voters and the rapid change of music's relationship to presidential campaigns due to Internet sites like YouTube JibJab and Facebook Readers are ultimately treated to an entertaining account of American political development through popular music and the complex two way relationship between music and presidential campaigns Pacific Marine Review, 1919 The Log, 1933 Marine Corps Tanks and Ontos in Vietnam LtCol Ray Stewart USMC, 2019-10-03 Book Two the second of a three book series continues from 1966 in Book One to cover the action of Marine Corps Tankers and Ontos crewmen fighting the locally grown Viet Cong the better armed trained organized and equipped Viet Cong Main Forces and the North Vietnamese Army Regulars from 1967 thru 1968 in I Corps South Vietnam As in Book One and to continue in Book Three it features hundreds of personal stories on the spot in real time interviews of Marines just returning from their fight all which is framed within the official unit command chronologies and after action reports including documented lessons learned The maps personal pictures organizational charts and the citing of each Marine who gave his life are also linked to the Vietnam Wall and to the Foundation s web site with volumes of additional information about the Marines who left their sweat and blood in Vietnam battling their communist enemy Annual Report of the Marine Mammal Commission United States. Marine Mammal Commission,1990 Marine Engineering & Shipping Age ,1929 Twenty-Two on Peleliu George Peto,Peter Margaritis,2017-07-19 A memoir of a tough childhood and tough combat by an adventurous lively outspoken opinionated WWII Marine veteran Columbus Dispatch On September 15 1944 the US First Marine Division landed on a small island in the Central Pacific called Peleliu as a prelude to the liberation of the Philippines Among the first wave of Marines that hit the beach that day was twenty two year old George Peto Growing up on an Ohio farm George always preferred being outdoors and exploring This made school a challenge but his hunting fishing and trapping skills helped put food on his family s table As a poor teenager living in a rough area he got into regular brawls and he found holding down a job hard because of his wanderlust After working out west with the CCC he decided that joining the Marines offered him the opportunity for adventure plus three square meals a day so he and his brother joined the Corps in 1941 just a few months before Pearl Harbor Following boot camp and training he was initially assigned to various guard units until he was shipped out to the Pacific and assigned to the 1st Marines His first combat experience was the landing at Finschhaven followed by Cape Gloucester Then as a Forward Observer he went ashore in one of the lead amtracs at Peleliu and saw fierce fighting for a week before the regiment was relieved due to massive casualties Six months later his division became the immediate reserve for the initial landing on Okinawa They encountered no resistance when they came ashore but would go on to fight on Okinawa for over six months This is the wild and remarkable story of an Old Breed Marine his youth in the Great Depression his training and combat in the Pacific and his life after the war told in his own words Continental Marine ,1999 The Weekly Underwriter ,1929 Dryden's Second Hundred Years: a Central New York Town in the 20Th Century Elizabeth Denver Gutches,2020-11-18 Dryden s Second Hundred Years Part II does two exceptional things First its tight focus on local participation in World War II paradoxically chronicles the entire war a conflict which drew its combatants from small rural townships like Dryden NY assigned and scattered them throughout the world and then delivered the survivors back home again creating in every small American community a microcosm of the entire conflict an eye witnessing of the whole story Second that story is told here largely in local participants own words in letters from camps troopships carriers cruisers foxholes and hospitals their voices a quiet backdrop to the horrific war they had been asked to fight The resulting narrative suggests that those who don t know history while not always doomed to repeat it are very likely doomed to live their lives without perspective to mistake inconvenience for hardship and hardship for catastrophe and to be blind to the miracle of everyday normal life The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2009 Railway and Marine News ,1911
