Grey As Told By Christian Chapter 1:

Society and God William Charlton, 2020-01-30 Where should God be in thinking about society or society in thinking about God This book shows how philosophy can help non philosophers with these questions It shows that intelligence is the product not the source of society and language and the rationality of individuals is inevitably conditioned by the distinctive customs and beliefs of their societies Addressing the idea that religion can impede the smooth running of society it argues that the Western concept of religion is taken from Christianity and cannot usefully be extended to non European cultures But any society will be threatened by a sub society with customs conflicting with those of the whole in which it exists and Jews Christians and Muslims have sometimes formed such sub societies Charlton proceeds to consider how our dependence upon society fits with traditional beliefs about creation salvation and life after death and offers a synthesis that is new without being unorthodox He indicates where Christian customs concerning birth death sex and education conflict with those of secular liberalism and considers which culture Christian or secular liberal has the better chance of prevailing in a globalised world

Faith and Beauty Edward Farley, 2020-04-14 Aesthetics and theological aesthetics usually imply a focus on questions about the arts and how faith or religion relates to the arts only the final pages of this work take up that problem The central theme of this book is that of beauty Farley employs a new typology of western texts on beauty and a theological analysis of the image of God and redemption to counter the centuries long tendency to ignore or marginalize beauty and the aesthetic as part of the life of faith Studying the interpretation of beauty in ancient Greece eighteenth century England the work of Jonathan Edwards and nineteenth and twentieth century philosophies of human self transcendence the author explores whether Christian existence the life of faith and the ethical exclude or require an aesthetic dimension in the sense of beauty The work will be of particular interest to those interested in Christian theology ethics and religion and the arts
