Grief And Loss Support Group Facilitators Manual:

Grief and Loss Support Group Facilitator's Manual Susan Hansen, Susan Hansen M S, 2015-05-31 Susan Hansen's Grief and Loss Support Group Facilitator's Manual contains everything a group leader needs to facilitate a 10 week grief and loss support group for students or clients ages 12 to adult. The manual includes step by step activities, detailed lesson plans, handouts, support group guidelines, tips for effective group facilitation, a sample group flyer, and parent permission slip and ASCA standards for those who are facilitating a school based support group. The group sessions include a discussion of different types of losses, a loss checklist, the five stages of grief, five steps to take in addressing a loss, unsent letter templates, grab bag questions, and suggestions for creating a collage or other artwork to facilitate the healing process. For those who already own Susan's earlier resource book Tools For Your Emotional Health Toolbox, this manual includes updated lesson plans, objectives, standards, handouts, and an easier to read font for all materials. Grief support group facilitator manual for church leadership and congregants. Grief Support Group Curriculum Linda Lehmann, Shane R. Jimerson, Ann Gaasch, 2012-12-06. The Grief Support Group Curriculum provides a basis for assisting children and teenagers as they learn about mourning through facing death of a close or special friend. The aim of this curriculum is to facilitate healthy variations of mourning and positive adaptations following the death of a friend or family member. The work illustrates mourning in four stages of development and is accordingly divided into four separate texts. The texts focus on preschool aged children, children in kindergarten through grade two, children in grades three through six, and teenagers. Grief After Suicide John R. Jordan, John L. McIntosh, 2011-01-19 A suicide leaves behind more victims than just the individual And yet there are very few professional resources that provide the necessary background research and tools to effectively work with the survivors This edited volume addresses the need for an up to date professionally oriented summary of the clinical and research literature on the impact of suicide bereavement on survivors The Art of Grief J. Earl Rogers, 2011-02-10 Art and other expressive therapies are increasingly used in grief counseling not only among children and adolescents but throughout the developmental spectrum Creative activities are commonly used in group and individual psychotherapy programs but it is only relatively recently that these expressive modalities have been employed within the context of clinical grief work in structured settings These forms of nonverbal communication are often more natural ways to express thoughts and feelings that are difficult to discuss particularly when it comes to issues surrounding grief and loss Packed with pictures and instructional detail this book includes an eight session curriculum for use with grief support groups as well as alternative modalities of grief art therapy Living with Dying Joan Berzoff, Phyllis R. Silverman, 2004 The first resource on end of life care for healthcare practitioners who work with the terminally ill and their families Living with Dying begins with the narratives of five healthcare professionals who when faced with overwhelming personal losses altered their clinical practices and philosophies The book provides ways to ensure a respectful death for individuals families groups and communities and is organized around theoretical issues in loss grief and bereavement and around clinical practice with individuals families and groups Living with Dying addresses practice with people who have specific illnesses such as AIDS bone marrow disease and cancer and pays special attention to patients who have been stigmatized by culture ability sexual orientation age race or homelessness The book includes content on trauma and developmental issues for children adults and the aging who are dying and it addresses legal ethical spiritual cultural and social class issues as core factors in the assessment of and work with the dying It explores interdisciplinary teamwork supervision and the organizational and financing contexts in which dying occurs Current research in end of life care ways to provide leadership in the field and a call for compassion insight and respect for the dying makes this an indispensable resource for social workers healthcare educators administrators consultants advocates and practitioners who work with the dying and their families Hospice Care for Children Ann Armstrong-Dailey, Sarah F.
