Grounded In The Gospel Building Believers The Old Fashioned Way:

Grounded in the Gospel J. I. Packer, Gary A. Parrett, 2010-04-01 Historically the church's ministry of grounding new believers in the essentials of the faith has been known as catechesis systematic instruction in faith foundations including what we believe how we pray and worship and how we conduct our lives For most evangelicals today however this very idea is an alien concept Packer and Parrett concerned for the state of the church seek to inspire a much needed evangelical course correction This new book makes the case for a recovery of significant catechesis as a nonnegotiable practice of churches showing the practice to be complementary to and of no less value than Bible study expository preaching and other formational ministries and urging evangelical churches to find room for this biblical ministry for the sake of their spiritual health and vitality

Themelios, Volume 36, Issue 3 D. A. Carson, 2015-01-27 Themelios is an international evangelical peer reviewed theological journal that expounds and defends the historic Christian faith Themelios is published three times a year online at The Gospel Coalition <http://thegospelcoalition.org/themelios> and in print by Wipf and Stock Its primary audience is theological students and pastors though scholars read it as well Themelios began in 1975 and was operated by RTSF UCCF in the UK and it became a digital journal operated by The Gospel Coalition in 2008 The editorial team draws participants from across the globe as editors essayists and reviewers General Editor D A Carson Trinity Evangelical Divinity School Managing Editor Brian Tabb Bethlehem College and Seminary Consulting Editor Michael J Ovey Oak Hill Theological College Administrator Andrew David Naselli Bethlehem College and Seminary Book Review Editors Jerry Hwang Singapore Bible College Alan Thompson Sydney Missionary Nathan A Finn Southeastern Baptist Theological Seminary Hans Madueme Covenant College Dane Ortlund Crossway Jason Sexton Golden Gate Baptist Seminary Editorial Board Gerald Bray Beeson Divinity School Lee Gatiss Wales Evangelical School of Theology Paul Helseth University of Northwestern St Paul Paul House Beeson Divinity School Ken Magnuson The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary Jonathan Pennington The Southern Baptist Theological Seminary James Robson Wycliffe Hall Mark D Thompson Moore Theological College Paul Williamson Moore Theological College Stephen Witmer Pepperell Christian Fellowship Robert Yarbrough Covenant Seminary

Center Church Timothy Keller, 2012-09-04 Practical and Gospel centered thoughts on how to have a fruitful ministry by one of America's leading and most beloved pastor Many church leaders are struggling to adapt to a culture that values individuality above loyalty to a group or institution There have been so many church growth and effective ministry books in the past few decades that it's hard to know where to start or which ones will provide useful and honest insight Based on over twenty years of ministry in New York City Timothy Keller takes a unique approach that measures a ministry's success neither by numbers nor purely by the faithfulness of its leaders but on the biblical grounds of fruitfulness Center Church outlines a balanced theological vision for ministry organized around three core commitments Gospel centered The gospel of grace in Jesus Christ changes everything from our hearts to our community to the world It completely reshapes the content tone and strategy of all that we do City centered With a positive approach toward our culture we learn to affirm that cities are wonderful strategic and under served places for gospel ministry Movement centered Instead of building our own tribe we seek the prosperity and peace of our community as we are led by the Holy Spirit Between a pastor s doctrinal beliefs and ministry practices should be a well conceived vision for how to bring the gospel to bear on the particular cultural setting and historical moment This is something more practical than just doctrine but much more theological than how to steps for carrying out a ministry Once this vision is in place it leads church leaders to make good decisions on how to worship disciple evangelize serve and engage culture in their field of ministry whether in a city suburb or small town Tim Keller Core Church Integrative Ministry

Timothy Keller,2013-09-03 Our goal as Christians and Christian ministers is never simply to build our own tribe Instead we seek the peace and prosperity of the city or community in which we are placed through a gospel movement led by the Holy Spirit Movements like these do not follow a bounded set approach in which you only work with others who can sign off on nearly all your distinctive beliefs and practices Rather it follows a centered set orientation in which you work most closely with those who face with you toward the same center That center is a classic orthodox understanding of the gospel of Jesus Christ a common mission to reach and serve your city and a commitment to have a generous Christ focused posture toward people who disagree with you It s a type of movement that is missional integrative and dynamic This eBook contains the seventh part of Center Church Integrative Ministry In it Keller examines what is required to apply a Center Church theological vision to four ministry fronts Churches must first seek to connect people to God through evangelism and worship Second an integrated church will work to connect people to one another through community and discipleship The church should also seek ways of connecting people to the needs of the city through mercy and justice ministries Finally churches must help connect people to the culture through the integration of faith and work Packer on the Christian Life Sam Storms,2015-06-30 Widely recognized as a pillar of 20th century evangelicalism J I Packer has had a profound impact on millions of Christians living today Now in his late eighties Packer still exerts an enormous influence on pastors and laypeople around the world through his many books articles and recorded lectures works that overflow with spiritual wisdom related to the Christian life In the latest addition to Crossway s growing Theologians on the Christian Life series well known pastor Sam Storms examines Packer s legacy when it comes to the Christian and sanctification Whether exploring Packer s insights into prayer Bible study the sovereignty of God or the Christian s fight against sin this accessible book offers readers the chance to learn from the best of Packer s thinking on what true godliness really entails Part of the Theologians on the Christian Life series Teaching the Faith, Forming the Faithful Gary A. Parrett,S. Steve Kang,2013-03-05 With the decline of traditional Sunday school and education programs in recent years many Christians have not learned the fundamental doctrinal content of the faith In this text Gary Parrett and Steve Kang set forth a thoroughly biblical vision for intentional teaching of the Christian faith that attends to both the content and process of educational and formational ministries

Marking the Church Greg Peters, Matt Jenson, 2016-12-09 More than one person has joked over the years that Evangelical believers do not have an ecclesiology In one sense that is absurd Evangelical churches especially if you include Pentecostals in that group are some of the fastest growing most vibrant churches in the world Evangelicals are proclaiming the gospel praising the Lord reading the Bible and loving the poor But there is a case to be made that the Evangelical devotion to the mission of the church has left Evangelicals with little time to reflect on the church itself In this collection of essays first given at annual meetings of the Evangelical Theological Society the authors take time to reflect on the nature of the church in an Evangelical context asking after the way in which it is one holy catholic and apostolic J. I. Packer Alister

McGrath, 2020-11-10 J I Packer was one of the most influential evangelical theological and spiritual writers of the twentieth century In this beautiful recollection of Packer s life and faith Alister McGrath explores his many contributions to theology and spirituality engagingly setting out the central themes of his work for a new generation of readers Networks for Faith Formation Steve Emery-Wright, Ed Mackenzie, 2017-05-19 The spiritual formation of young people can often focus on encouraging their personal spiritual practices and perhaps linking them to a local youth group While both are important Networks for Faith Formation argues that a far wider set of relationships are needed to help faith grow The aim of Networks for Faith Formation is to describe and commend eight key networks relational bonds that nurture and nourish faith The eight networks are bedroom practices personal faith church family friends mentors small groups events and gatherings and mission and service The description of each network draws on biblical studies practical theology and the social sciences and practical ideas for helping young people engage with such networks are included throughout the book In a context where some overlook the complexity of spiritual formation Networks for Faith Formation is an important resource for church leaders youth ministers and parents seeking to help young people grow in faith Since relational bonds are key for people of any age it can also help all within the church understand the need for relationships in spiritual growth Adoptive Youth

Ministry (Youth, Family, and Culture) Chap Clark, 2016-01-26 Kids desperately need healthy committed adults who can help them thrive in their faith and become active participants in the life of the church This requires the efforts of the whole faith community Chap Clark one of the leading voices in youth ministry today brings together twenty four experts from a variety of denominations and traditions to offer a comprehensive introduction to adoptive youth ministry a theologically driven academically grounded and practical youth ministry model The book shows readers how to integrate emerging generations into the family of faith helping young adults become active participants in God s redemptive community

Setting Your Course Dr. Greg Bourgond, 2014-03 God is very clear about His purposes for you If you want to live a meaningful life it must be aligned with His purposes You have a unique purpose to fulfill a committed passion to embrace a role to perform unique methodologies a personal toolkit to employ and an ultimate contribution to make In Setting Your Course author Dr Greg Bourgond seeks to help you set your course find focus for your life engage in God s journey for you and finish your journey well He employs a three part process to influence you to live all out for Christ the compass map and guide The compass explains the importance of orienting your life in accordance with established biblical compass points The map defines the trajectory you are to follow based on how God has wired you The guide stresses the importance of being mentored and mentoring others Setting Your Course helps you formulate a deliberate strategy for determining your purpose assists you in aligning your life according to God s plan encourages you to become a proactive partner in fulfilling God s purposes and redemptive activity and exhorts you to leave a worthwhile legacy in the lives of others Priests of History Sarah Irving-Stonebraker,2024-09-24 How can Christians engage meaningfully with history In an age underpinned by the idea that life is about self invention and fulfilment contemporary Western culture holds that the past has little to teach us We live in what this book terms the Ahistoric Age in which we are profoundly disconnected from history In the attempt to appear relevant the church often embraces this ahistoric worldview by jettisoning the historic ideas and practices of Christian formation But this has unintended consequences leaving Christians unmoored from history and losing the ability to grapple with its ethical complexities In Priests of History Sarah Irving Stonebraker draws upon her expertise and her experience as an atheist who has become a Christian to examine what history is and why it matters If Christians can learn how to be priests of history tending and keeping our past history can help us strengthen and revive our spiritual and intellectual formation and equip us to communicate the gospel in a confused and rootless world The Generative Church Cory Seibel,2019-10-10 Virtually all churches aim to invest meaningfully in the faith development of the younger generations who have been entrusted into their care Some churches have a longstanding track record of faithfulness in living out this commitment Some lose sight of this priority over time and allow their intentionality to fade This book makes a distinctive contribution to our understanding of children s youth and young adult ministries by appropriating Erik Erikson s concept of generativity the interest in establishing and guiding the next generation as a way of exploring congregational life Eleven accomplished authors representing five different countries provide diverse theological and cultural perspectives on key aspects of what it means for churches to invest intentionally in the faith development of the members of emerging generations Their chapters challenge us to think about the intergenerational dynamics of our churches the crucial partnership between church and parents and what it means to involve young people meaningfully in the life of the church The intriguing topics explored by this group of authors and the diverse contexts from which they write promise to broaden and enrich our thinking about caring for children youth and young adults as a vital responsibility shared by the entire congregation Re-Envisioning Transformation David C. Scott,2018-09-14 In today s church use of the term transformation has become commonplace Various perspectives are offered on what a Christian view of transformation is and on how it may be achieved These often conflicting views suggest an ecclesial landscape characterized by pluralism division fragmentation confusion relativism individualism pragmatism and subjectivism Despite the current interest in transformational theology the absence of a common coherent and integrated vision and the lack of transformation is often accepted and affirmed Re Envisioning Transformation looks at the possibility of moving toward a vision of transformational theology that is cohesive unified broad effectual and distinctly Christian In this book the contributions of two radically different theologians of the Christian life are examined This provides the basis from which to develop a comprehensive and integrated framework of transformational theology pointing God's people toward the need to express and live out a distinctly Christian vision

Treasures of the Anglican Witness Chimela Meehoma Samuel, 2020-04-28 In Treasures of the Anglican Witness A Collection of Essays Dr Chimela Samuel has given us a wonderful gift dedicated to helping the faithful understand the rich legacy of prayer book spirituality by highlighting the contributions of such Anglican greats as Cranmer Hooker and Herbert What is unique about Chimela's approach is that in doing so he offers a compelling argument for the importance of pastoral ministry in the Anglican tradition Interwoven with his scholarly overview he concludes each chapter with recommendations and implications for the contemporary Anglican church This is particularly timely given the discipleship crisis that is endangering younger generations and the future of the church He issues a persuasive call for a return to our Anglican roots by way of a proper understanding of catechesis and how to enhance the teaching ministry of the church through appropriate processes of discipleship In doing so he gives some very practical answers to why we do some of the things we do as Anglicans It's rare to have a piece of writing that is scholarly in nature but also an instructive devotional tool for Anglicans throughout the worldwide communion His collection of essays are an inspiring witness to the treasures we have in Anglicanism Dr Leslie F Thyberg

Practicing Ministry in the Presence of God John Jefferson Davis, 2015-07-13 Practicing Ministry in the Presence of God presents a new paradigm for church ministry one that is based on fundamental truths of the Christian faith such as the Trinity union with Christ and the already presence of the Holy Spirit in the church This new paradigm can help busy pastors avoid burnout in the ministry and model Trinitarian New Testament patterns of ministry to their people Practicing Ministry in the Presence of God reflects the best of recent New Testament scholarship sensitivity to the contexts of globalized postmodern cultures dominated by digital media and practical applications for Christian life discipleship worship and mission

Christian Parenting David P. Setran, 2022-06-21 What can the past teach us about what it means to be a good Christian parent today Today's parenting guidance can sometimes feel timeless and inviolable especially when it comes to the spiritual formation of children in Christian households But even in the recent past parenting philosophies have differed widely among Christians in ways that reflect the contexts from which they emerged In this illuminating historical study David Setran catalogs the varying ways American Protestants envisioned the task of childrearing in the seventeenth eighteenth and nineteenth centuries Comparing two main historical time periods the colonial era and the Victorian era Setran uncovers common threads opposing viewpoints and the cultural and religious influences behind the dominant parenting postures of each era The implications of his findings matter for today's big questions about parenting Should children be viewed as basically good in need of protection from corruption or as fundamentally sinful in need of moral correction How should parents address misbehavior Should a parent's primary role be that of teacher disciplinarian or nurturer What importance should be attributed to devotions and prayer church involvement Sabbath keeping home decorating and fun family activities What consideration should be given to gender Should boys and girls be raised differently Do mothers and fathers have essentially different responsibilities As he surveys these historical perspectives Setran reflects on the legacy and future of Christian parenting concluding that the Protestant heritage encourages the importance of intentional devotional practices the development of close parent child bonds and the creation of godly household environments In the end he argues that all of these historical values are critical to the full expression of Christian parental love This is a love that teaches because it wants to help children understand true goodness that admonishes and restrains because it wants to protect children from whatever keeps them from true pleasure and joy that fosters strong relationships so children might experience the lavishness of God's love that models Christlike sacrifice and guides children into the arms of their Creator

Hope and Holiness John Fonville, 2022-11-01 No amount of rules software filters or accountability talks can bring the healing we need The war against sexual immorality which begins in our minds and hearts cannot be won by trying harder to modify our behavior This will always leave us feeling defeated and discouraged But we can win victory by knowing our identity in Christ We gain clarity and power through the Holy Spirit to overcome sexual temptation as we truly grasp the gospel what God has done for us and in us And it's necessary to have the gospel regularly preached to us and to regularly preach the gospel to ourselves in order to experience consistent victory In Hope and Holiness author John Fonville shows that the gospel not practical steps or more self discipline is God's provision for the power to live a life of sexual purity And it is available to every Christian With a shepherding heart and theological acumen Fonville answers essential questions for all who desire to honor God with their minds hearts and bodies Who are we What is the body and Who is God Fonville sets us on a desperately needed joyful path of renewed strength and faith filled purity

The New City Catechism Devotional Crossway, Collin Hansen, 2017-04-13 In centuries past the church has used catechisms to teach foundational Christian doctrines Today this communal practice of learning basic beliefs via questions and answers has largely been lost Seeking to restore this ancient method of teaching to the regular life of the church The New City Catechism Devotional is a gospel centered modern day resource that not only summarizes important Christian beliefs through 52 questions and answers but also helps readers meditate on and be transformed by those doctrines Each question features devotional commentary written by leading contemporary and historical figures such as John Piper Timothy Keller Kevin DeYoung D A Carson Alistair Begg Mark Dever Augustine John Calvin Jonathan Edwards John Owen Martin Luther and many others Each question also includes a relevant Scripture reading and short prayer Designed for use in a variety of contexts including with families churches and small groups The New City Catechism Devotional stands as a valuable resources for helping adults and children alike learn the key doctrines that stand at the heart of the Christian faith
