 Kremer,2025-10-01 Development aid has become the subject of much discussion Why do we give aid and does it help What do we know about the development paths being taken by various countries or the possibilities of helping them to achieve their goals from outside How relevant is development aid now that remittances and foreign direct investments have increased as a result of globalization When does aid have more negative than positive effects What is the significance of shifting power relations in the world And do policies focusing on issues like climate migration financial stability knowledge trade and security not have a greater impact than aid on the development opportunities of poor countries These questions inspired the Dutch Scientific Council for Government Policy WRR to examine what form development aid should take in the era of globalization At the start of 2010 on the basis of over 500 interviews with experts and an extensive literature survey the WRR presented its far reaching recommendations In October 2010 the new Dutch government decided to use the report as the basis of a thorough modernization of its development policy This book is based on the WRR report It builds on the many responses to the report resulting in more elaboration on specific lines of reasoning coverage of new themes and more comprehensive analyses without changing the core of the original report Educational Aid and National Development
