Life In The World To Come:

The Life of the World to Come Kage Baker, 2005-11 In this newest novel of the Company series a time traveling botanist is stranded 150 000 years in the past Grieving for the lover she lost twice Mendoza meets a reincarnation of her love again

The Life of the World to Come Rocco E. Porreco, 2002-04-25 Like the great Italian poet Dante Philosophy professor Fiorino Fannella is on a guided tour through the Afterlife He discovers that he is still free and has the body and emotions which make it possible for him to grow in virtue or die in vice His progress through Purgatory is monitored by a pedantic professor and a saintly cardinal He learns much from Greyface a cat who can speak his language He is observed by Marcus an angel who is constantly astounded by the Professor's irrationality The World to Come ... To which is Prefixed the Life of the Author by Dr. Samuel Johnson Isaac Watts, 1851 Isaac of Nineveh's Ascetical Eschatology Jason

Scully, 2017-11-03 Isaac of Nineveh's Ascetical Eschatology demonstrates that Isaac's eschatology is an original synthesis based on ideas garnered from a distinctively Syriac cultural milieu Jason Scully investigates six sources relevant to the study of Isaac's Syriac source material and cultural heritage These include ideas adapted from Syriac authors like Ephrem John the Solitary and Narsai but also adapted from the Syriac versions of texts originally written in Greek like Evagrius's Gnostic Chapters Pseudo Dionysius's Mystical Theology and the Pseudo Macarian homilies Isaac's eschatological synthesis of this material is a sophisticated discourse on the psychological transformation that occurs when the mind has an experience of God It begins with the premise that asceticism was part of God's original plan for creation Isaac says that God created human beings with infantile knowledge and that God intended from the beginning for Adam and Eve to leave the Garden of Eden Once outside the garden human beings would have to pursue mature knowledge through bodily asceticism Although perfect knowledge is promised in the future world Isaac also believes that human beings can experience a proleptic taste of this future perfection Isaac employs the concepts of wonder and astonishment in order to explain how an ecstatic experience of the future world is possible within the material structures of this world According to Isaac astonishment describes the moment when a person arrives at the threshold of eschatological perfection but is still unable to comprehend the heavenly mysteries while wonder describes spiritual comprehension of heavenly knowledge through the intervention of divine grace

Samson Raphael Hirsch, 1978 Hebrew text of the Siddur prayerbook with Hirsch's translation and unique commentary in English New revised edition The Documentary History of Judaism and Its Recent Interpreters Jacob Neusner, 2012-07-10 The result for the history of Judaism of a documentary reading of the Rabbinic canonical sources illustrates the working of that hypothesis It is the first major outcome of that hypothesis but there are other implications and a variety of new problems emerge from time to time as the work proceeds In the recent past Neusner has continued to explore special problems of the documentary hypothesis of the Rabbinic canon At the same time Neusner notes others join in the discussion that have produced important and ambitious analyses of the thesis and its implications Here Neuser has collected some of the more ambitious ventures into the hypothesis and its current recapitulations Neusner begins with the article written by Professor William Scott Green for the Encyclopaedia Judaica second edition as Green places the documentary hypothesis into the context of Neusner's entire oeuvre Neuser then reproduces what he regards as the single most successful venture of the documentary hypothesis contrasting between the Mishnah's and the Talmuds programs for the social order of Israel the doctrines of economics politics and philosophy set forth in those documents respectively Then come the two foci of discourse Halakhah or normative law and Aggadah or normative theology Professors Bernard Jackson of the University of Manchester England and Mayer Gruber of Ben Gurion University of the Negev treat the Halakhic program that Neusner has devised and Kevin Edgecomb of the University of California Berkeley has produced a remarkable summary of the theological system Neusner discerns in the Aggadic documents Neusner concludes with a review of a book by a critic of the documentary hypothesis
