Life Itself A Memoir:

Life Itself Roger Ebert, 2011-09-13 Named one of the 100 greatest film books of all time by The Hollywood Reporter this singular warm hearted inspiring look at life itself is the best thing Mr Ebert has ever written Janet Maslin New York Times To make ourselves unhappy is where all crime starts We must try to contribute joy to the world That is true no matter what our problems our health our circumstances We must try I didn't always know this and am happy I lived long enough to find it out Roger Ebert was the best known film critic of his time He began reviewing films for the Chicago Sun Times in 1967 and was the first film critic ever to win a Pulitzer Prize He appeared on television for four decades In 2006 complications from thyroid cancer treatment resulted in the loss of his ability to eat drink or speak But with the loss of his voice Ebert became a more prolific and influential writer And in Life Itself he told the full dramatic story of his life and career In this candid personal history Ebert chronicled it all his loves losses and obsessions his struggle and recovery from alcoholism his marriage his politics and his spiritual beliefs He wrote about his years at the Sun Times his colorful newspaper friends and his life changing collaboration with Gene Siskel He shared his insights into movie stars and directors like John Wayne and Martin Scorsese This is a story that only Roger Ebert could tell filled with the same deep insight dry wit and sharp observations that his readers have long cherished

Life Itself Roger Ebert, 2011-09-13 The film critic best known for his Chicago Sun Times reviews and his thirty years as co host of Siskel Ebert at the Movies describes his life and career including his recovery from alcoholism and the complications from thyroid cancer treatment

The Rise of the Memoir Alex Zwerdling, 2017 The Rise of the Memoir traces the growth and extraordinarily wide appeal of the memoir Its territory is private rather than public life shame guilt and embarrassment not the achievements celebrated in the public record What accounts for the sharp need writers like Rousseau Woolf Orwell Nabokov Primo Levi and Maxine Hong Kingston felt to write and to publish such works when they might more easily have chosen to remain silent Alex Zwerdling explores why each of these writers felt compelled to write them as that story can be reconstructed from personal materials available in archival collections what internal conflicts they encountered while trying and how each of them resisted the private and public pressures to stop themselves rather than pursuing this confessional route against their own doubts without a reasonable expectation that such works would be welcome in print and eventually find an empathetic audience Reconstructing this process in which a dubious project eventually becomes a compelling product a memoir that will last illuminates both what was at stake and why this serially invented open form has reshaped the expectations of readers who welcomed a vital alternative to the official story

The Russian Memoir Beth Holmgren, 2003 The essays in this volume seek to appreciate the literary construction of the memoir with its dual agendas of individualized expression and reliable reportage and explore its functions as interpretive history social modelling and political expression in Russian culture The memoirs under scrutiny range widely including those of the private person Princess Natalia Dolgorukaia sophisticated high culture writers Nikolai Zabolotskii Vladimir Nabokov Joseph Brodsky cultural critics and facilitators Lidiia Ginzburg Avdot ia Panaeva political dissidents Evgeniia Ginzburg Elena Bonner and popular artists filmmaker Elidar Riazanov It examines each memoir for its aesthetic and rhetorical features as well as its cultural circumstances In mapping the memoir s social and historical significance the essays consider a wide range of influences and issues including the specific impact of the author s class gender ideology and life experience on his her witnessing of Russian culture and society

Memoirs of Archbishop Temple: Memoir of early years, 1821-1848 Ernest Grey Sandford,1906 A Pedagogist's Memoir Grant

Rodwell,2025-10-07 Opportunities to write our memoirs are many and varied To meet emerging demands the memoir genre continually is evolving and it is possible for the memoirist to shape the memoirs with varying themes time and settings to be brought to bear on school education at a senior level and for a range of teacher development programs Thus the developing importance of an accompanying exegesis For better or for worse childhoods shape adult relationships and attachment styles profoundly shaping who we are as teachers teaching styles and generally the things we consider important and not so important The shape of our childhood and adolescence has a profound impact on how relationships are formed in adulthood It can affect our ability to trust be vulnerable and create productive bonds both at school and college and professionally and also our general levels of motivation Through the aforementioned theme and subthemes my memoirs here reveal how childhood struggle has shaped my approach to teaching and my academic career from an unskilled labourer from the country working class in the timber industry deprived of a high school education and recruited into the workforce at 15 years of age to a senior academic in one of Australia s G8 universities holding five PhDs With strong historical backgrounding a special appeal of this book is its drive to place childhood and adolescent events contained in the memoirs in a wider historical context looking to transnational movements such as discussions on anachronisms and eugenics In so doing the exegesis a fresh and exciting innovation is in harmony with the memoirs The memoir is so refashioned as a pedagogical tool

The Autobiography of William Simpson, R.I. (Crimean Simpson) William Simpson,1903 Alzheimer's Disease Memoirs

Pramod K Nayar,2021-12-06 This book examines writings by people living with Alzheimer s Disease and their caregivers Its focus areas include the construction of the self in the face of diminishing linguistic and cognitive abilities the stigmatization of ageing the various narrative strategies that these texts often collaborative employ the health activism and advocacy generated via a biosociality and the ethics of care It examines the disease writing genre about a condition that ravages the ability to use language It serves as a literary examination of the work done in this area through a critical reading of the memoirs of those with AD and caregivers and a healthy dose of literary theory The book is a valuable resource for those interested in literary and critical theory and researchers in the field of ageing dementia studies
