Life List A Woman's Quest For The World's Most Amazing Birds:

Life List Olivia Gentile, 2009-07-01 After her four kids were nearly grown and she was about to turn 50 Phoebe Snetsinger was told she had less than a year to live. Snetsinger, a St. Louis housewife and avid backyard birder, decided to spend that year traveling the world in search of birds. As it turned out, her doctors were wrong, but Phoebe's passion had been ignited, and she spent the next eighteen years crisscrossing the globe recklessly staking out her quarry. En route, she contracted malaria in Zambia, nearly fell to her death in Zaire, and was kidnapped and gang-raped on the outskirts of Port Moresby. Yet none of this curbed her enthusiasm. By the time she died in a bus accident while birding in Madagascar in 1999, Phoebe was world renowned and had seen more species (8,500) than anyone in history. A fascinating portrait of a hobbyist whose obsession contributed to both her success and her demise. Life List brings Phoebe Snetsinger and the wild world of amateur ornithology to vivid life. Birdmania Bernd Brunner, 2017-10-21 An exquisitely beautiful book. These stories about birds are ultimately reflections on the curious nature of humanity itself. Helen Macdonald, author of H Is for Hawk. There is no denying that many people are crazy for birds. Packed with intriguing facts and exquisite and rare artwork, Birdmania showcases an eclectic and fascinating selection of bird devotees who would do anything for their feathered friends. In addition to well-known enthusiasts such as Aristotle, Charles Darwin, and Helen Macdonald, Brunner introduces readers to Karl Russ, the pioneer of bird rooms who had difficulty renting lodgings when landlords realized who he was; George Lupton, a wealthy Yorkshire lawyer who commissioned the theft of uniquely patterned eggs every year for twenty years from the same unfortunate female guillemot who never had a chance to raise a chick; George Archibald, who performed mating dances for an endangered whooping crane called Tex to encourage her to lay; and Mervyn Shorthouse, who posed as a wheelchair-bound invalid to steal an estimated ten thousand eggs from the Natural History Museum in Tring. As this book illustrates, people who love birds, whether they are amateurs or professionals, are as captivating and varied as the birds that give flight to their dreams. Read On...Biography Rick Roche, 2012-03-07 Categorizing hundreds of popular biographies according to their primary appeal, character, story, setting, language, and mood, and organizing them into thematic lists, this guide will help readers and advisors more effectively recommend titles. Read On Biography Reading Lists for Every Taste is that essential go-to readers advisory guide, filling a gap in the growing readers advisory literature with information about 450 biography titles most published within the last decade but also including some classic titles as well. The book focuses on life stories written in the third person with subjects ranging from individuals who lived in ancient times to the present day, hailed from myriad nations, and gained fame in diverse fields. The contents are organized in order to facilitate identification of read-alikes and easy selection of titles according to appeal features such as character, story, language, setting, and mood. Written specifically with librarians and their patrons in mind, this readers advisory title will be invaluable in public, high school, and college libraries. Birders of Africa Nancy J.
