Loose-leaf Version for Invitation to the Life Span

Kathleen Stassen Berger, 2016-01-07 Edition after edition Kathleen Stassen Berger's bestselling textbooks connect all kinds of students to current state of developmental psychology in an engaging, accessible, culturally inclusive way. Berger's Invitation to the Life Span does this in just 15 concise chapters in a presentation that meets the challenges of exploring the breadth of the life span in a single term.

Understanding Language and Literacy Development

Xiao-lei Wang, 2014-08-05 Understanding Language and Literacy Development: Diverse Learners in the Classroom offers effective supporting strategies to address the cultural and linguistic diversity of students in contemporary classrooms. Discusses learners with different linguistic abilities: infancy, early childhood, middle childhood, and adolescence by suggesting effective ways to reach them based on their strengths and needs. Emphasizes language and literacy supporting strategies in a variety of everyday classroom settings. Includes activities and questions to motivate readers to think and develop their own perspectives on language and literacy development. Considers a variety of different language acquisition experiences including monolingual, multilingual, and language impairment. Discusses different types of literacies including digital and hypertext. Connects language and literacy development to identity and motivation to contextualize learning styles for pre-service teachers. Supported by a companion website that includes additional resources such as PowerPoint presentations by chapter and a summary of relevant information from the Common Core K-12 English Language Arts Standards.

Luttenberger, M. Gail Jones, Rebecca Lazarides, Manuela Paechter, 2020-01-31 Research Approaches in Urban Agriculture and Community Contexts Levon T. Esters, Amie Patchen, Isha DeCoito, Neil Knobloch, 2021-07-27 This book will fill a void in the literature around research and program design and the impact of such experiences on learning outcomes within urban agricultural contexts. In particular, this book will cover topics such as STEM integration, science learning, student engagement, learning gardens, and curriculum design.

Raza Studies Julio Cammarota, Augustine Romero, 2014-02-27 The well-known and controversial Mexican American studies MAS program in Arizona's Tucson Unified School District set out to create an equitable and excellent educational experience for Latino students. Raza Studies: The Public Option for Educational Revolution offers the first comprehensive account of this progressive, indeed revolutionary program by those who created it, implemented it, and have struggled to protect it. Inspired by Paulo Freire's vision for critical pedagogy and Chicano activists of the 1960s, the designers of the program believed their program would encourage academic achievement and engagement.

by Mexican American students With chapters by leading scholars this volume explains how the program used critically compassionate intellectualism to help students become transformative intellectuals who successfully worked to improve their level of academic achievement as well as create social change in their schools and communities Despite its popularity and success inverting the achievement gap in 2010 Arizona state legislators introduced and passed legislation with the intent of banning MAS or any similar curriculum in public schools Raza Studies is a passionate defense of the program in the face of heated local and national attention It recounts how one program dared to venture to a world of possibility hope and struggle and offers compelling evidence of success for social justice education programs Contemporary Curriculum John D.

McNeil,2014-11-17 The Eighth Edition of Contemporary Curriculum In Thought and Action prepares readers to participate in the discussion of curriculum control and other matters important to K 12 and university educators The text highlights major philosophies and principles examines conflicting conceptions of curriculum and provides the intellectual and technical tools educators and administrators need for constructing and implementing curriculum The Sudoku Effect: Universities in the Vicious Circle of Bureaucracy Stefan Kühl,2014-03-12 This book shows that the introduction of the European Credit Transfer System ECTS of credit points as a new accounting unit at universities has led to increased bureaucracy and the schoolmaster style regimentation of Bachelor s and Master s courses It explains how due to the pressure of having to plan every single working hour of studying in advance a Sudoku Effect is created by the necessity to combine courses exams and modules in such a way that the points add up An unintentional side effect of the introduction of the ECTS the Sudoku Effect has led to more classroom style teaching an inflation of exams and fewer choices available to students It has resulted in such complex and contradictory guidelines for the planning of the curriculum that the values attributed to the higher education reform can often only be realised if the rules for Bachelor s and Master s programmes are ignored or at least stretched in practice The book describes how the reaction to this situation is the continuous further refinement of the complicated rules rather than their abolishment Youth Ministry in a Multifaith Society Len Kageler,2014-04-24 How do we ground our young people in the faith while encouraging their relationships with friends of other faiths Veteran youth minister and researcher Len Kageler digs into the data surrounding this exciting multifaith era and offers surprising confidence that our kids can be guided into mature Christian faith while simultaneously learning to love their neighbors of other religions

Education and the Politics of Memory in Russia and Eastern Europe Sergey Rumyantsev,2025-01-21 This book examines both formal and extracurricular education and the politics of memory and historical narratives in Armenia Azerbaijan Russia and Ukraine The misalignment between memory politics and history politics forms a central theme of this book Structured in three parts it focuses on school education in the post Soviet states over the 30 years between the collapse of the Soviet Union and the 2022 Russian invasion of Ukraine The chapters inquire as to how post Soviet school education politics of memory and history politics became active participants in the production of state approved ideology patriotism and a state prescribed understanding of the national past Armed conflicts in the territory of the former USSR not only saw numerous victims and refugees but also the emergence of new borders and unrecognized de facto states and the annexation of territories They also contributed to the creation of new sites of memory generated their own traditions of commemoration for the heroes and victims of these confrontations and led to the reconstruction of historical narratives and the construction of new national myths The research in this book foregrounds how the nationalization of the public space and the reconstruction of national historical narratives in the independent states reflect a desire to monopolize the power to interpret the past with low tolerance of alternative accounts In this light the book covers issues such as the nation state Sovietization national history creation memory politics religion mass media nationalism and patriotism and analyzes the relationship of Azerbaijani and Armenian Russian and Ukrainian societies with their histories and pasts A novel study on the topic of memory and history writing this is a timely contribution to the field of Post Soviet history and Russian and Eastern European Studies The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4 0 license

multiple perspectives from media and journalism scholars this collection addresses the implications that today's technological, socio-political and economic conditions have for relations between journalists, sources, audiences and wider publics. Applying an inclusive concept of conflicted societies that goes beyond those affected by violent conflict to include traditionally stable but increasingly polarised democracies such as the UK and the USA, contributors engage with longstanding questions and new challenges surrounding concepts of responsibility, trust, public service and public interest in journalism. The unique span of studies offers international scope including societies often overlooked in media and journalism studies such as Northern Ireland, Turkey, Cyprus, Pakistan, The Democratic Republic of Congo and the Central African Republic. Chapters also feature contemporary case studies such as the COVID-19 pandemic as a route into understanding the pertinent issue of fake news and the local turn in journalism. Responsible Journalism in Conflicted Societies is not only a valuable resource for those studying conflict reporting and international journalism but will also appeal to scholars working at the intersection of media, journalism, communication, peace, conflict and security studies. Human Resource

Education in Vietnam Martin Hayden, Thi Le Tran, 2024-08-02. Offering insights into the current and projected future state of the education system in Vietnam, this edited volume is an authoritative sourcebook for scholars, policy analysts, academic staff and students. Vietnam is well on its way to joining the dress circle of high-achieving education nations in Asia. International surveys of the academic aptitude and ability of the nation's youth consistently place it well above relevant regional and global averages. This accomplishment is remarkable for a country with a gross domestic product per capita of only US$ 2,785 in 2020. The dynamics of Vietnam's national education system are comprehensively documented in the book. Each of the country's education sectors is critically appraised as well as the culture of education in Vietnam. Specific issues concerning funding and equity, quality and accreditation, the teaching of curriculum areas, the internationalisation of the system and the provision of educational opportunities for young people with disabilities are carefully analysed against a background of relevant global trends. With contributions from well-established and highly respected local experts with high aspirations for the future development of the national education system in Vietnam, this book will be a must read for academics and students of Southeast Asian studies and comparative education
