Library,Oliver Alden Taylor,1838 Chronic Vigour Gregory P. Elder,1996 Chronic Vigour is a study of the development of Christian thought and the doctrine of Providential Evolution The author argues that the renovation of Anglican theology as a response to Darwin s evolutionary theory actually began at the moment of Darwin s first publication of The Origin of Species Chronic Vigour is unique because it examines a school of clergymen who knew Darwin and corresponded with him The book demonstrates how these clergymen came to endorse Darwinian biology as early as 1884 in Britain It places the history of the principle of providential evolution squarely in its English context The book consists of five chapters The first chapter is devoted to Edward Bouverie Pusey 1800 1882 the Professor of Hebrew at Oxford and the leader of the Tractarian movement The second chapter evaluates the religious proposals which were offered within the Church itself as a direct reaction to biological evolution In the third chapter the author investigates St George Jackson Mivart 1827 1900 the key person to generate the doctrine of Providential evolution The subject of the fourth chapter is the Reverend Charles Kingsley 1819 1875 who was the model of the progressive Victorian parson and the first Anglican priest to be an evolutionist Finally chapter five brings together many of the book s themes by examining Bishop Frederick Temple s 1821 1902 contributions to the providential evolution cause

A Reader on Preaching David Day, 2017-09-08 Every Sunday all over the world people rise up and claim to speak in the name of God It is an astonishing thing to do and an astonishing claim to make It is small wonder that the sermon has been the focus of debate discussion and investigation It has been dismissed as irrelevant in today s culture and has become the butt of numerous jokes and caricatures Yet the claim persists that these human words in some way can become God s message to these hearers This collection of twenty nine articles by international experts in the area of homiletics coincides with the revival of interest in preaching over the last twenty five years It is practical without being merely tips for preachers and it offers the necessary theoretical discussion for anyone who wants to take the art of preaching seriously No important issue has been omitted and taken as a whole the book constitutes a first class introduction to the principles processes context and theology of preaching Contributors include Walter Brueggemann David Buttrick Fred Craddock Edward Farley John Killinger Richard Lischer Thomas Long Elaine Lawless Jolyon Mitchell Cheryl Sanders and Thomas Troeger
