Life Writing Zachary Leader:

On Life-writing Zachary Leader, 2015 On Life Writing offers a sampling of approaches to the study of life writing. The collection brings together eminent scholars and writers to reflect on specific examples of life writing to reflect broader themes within the genre.

The Life of Saul Bellow Zachary Leader, 2015 Professor Leader marks the centenary of Bellow's birth with an account of the novelist's life. The biography will be published in two volumes.

Experimental Life Writing Today Vanessa Guignery, Wojciech Drag, 2025-10-02 This comprehensive volume offers compelling critical essays surveying the myriad forms of innovation in contemporary Anglophone life writing. Experimental Life Writing Today provides a historical and critical context for examining avant garde tendencies in biography and autobiography and outlines the poetics of experimental life writing. The volume is divided into two parts. The first is devoted to a selection of experimental genres of life writing: autofiction, biofiction, paramemoir, autotheory, graphic memoir, photo memoir, eco memoir, and the lyric essay. Part Two includes chapters concerned with the following themes: concepts and devices set in the context of experimental life writing, illness, disability, mourning, relationality, place, catalogue, narration, and fragmentation. To ensure clarity and consistency, each chapter follows the same structure: a theoretical discussion of a given notion comprising a brief discussion of its various aspects and examples, followed by a close reading of a chosen text. Case studies are devoted to significant contemporary works by authors such as Hazel V. Carby, J. M. Coetzee, Anne Garréta, Karen Green, Vona Groarke, Han Kang, Mary Karr, Deborah Levy, Hilary Mantel, Maggie Nelson, Ruth Ozeki, Mark Tredinnick, Una D. J. Waldie, and Wim Wenders. The volume is dedicated to exploring innovative forms of and in contemporary Anglophone life writing and it makes an important contribution to a rich and burgeoning field of interdisciplinary practice and research.

The Life of Saul Bellow Zachary Leader, 2018-11-06 When this second volume of The Life of Saul Bellow opens, Bellow at forty-nine is at the pinnacle of American letters, rich, famous, critically acclaimed. The expected trajectory is one of decline: volume 1, rise; volume 2, fall. Bellow never fell, producing some of his greatest fiction: Mr. Sammler's Planet, Humboldt's Gift, all his best stories, winning two more National Book Awards, a Pulitzer Prize, and the Nobel Prize. At eighty, he wrote his last story; at eighty-five, he wrote Ravelstein. In this volume, his life away from the desk, including his love life, is, if anything, more dramatic than in volume 1. In the public sphere, he is embroiled in controversy over foreign affairs, race, religion, education, social policy, the state of culture, the fate of the novel. Bellow's relations with women were often fraught. In the 1960s, he was compulsively promiscuous, even as he inveighed against sexual liberation. The women he pursued, the ones he married, and those with whom he had affairs were intelligent, attractive, and strong-willed. At eighty-five, he fathered his fourth child, a daughter, with his fifth wife. His three sons, whom he loved, could be as volatile as he was, and their relations with their father were often troubled. Although an early and engaged supporter of civil rights, in the second half of his life, Bellow was angered by the excesses of Black Power. An opponent of cultural relativism, he exercised great influence in literary and intellectual circles, advising a host of institutes.

and foundations helping those he approved of hindering those of whom he disapproved In making his case he could be cutting and rude he could also be charming loyal and funny Bellow s heroic energy and will are clear to the very end of his life His immense achievement and its cost to himself and others are also clear Biography in Theory Wilhelm Hemecker,Edward Saunders,2017-08-07 This textbook is an anthology of significant theoretical discussions of biography as a genre and as a literary historical practice Covering the 18th to the 21st centuries the reader includes programmatic texts by authors such as Herder Carlyle Dilthey Proust Freud Kracauer Woolf and Bourdieu Each text is accompanied by a commentary placing its contribution in critical context Ideal for use in undergraduate seminars this reader may also be of interest for academic researchers in the areas of literary studies and history aiming to get an overview of historical questions in biographical theory This revised and updated English language edition also includes new translations of texts by J G Herder and Stefan Zweig as well as an introductory discussion on the possibility of a theory of biography Note Due to copyright reasons the chapter Sade Fourier Loyola Extract 1971 pp 175 177 by Roland Barthes could not be included in the ebook Life Narratives, Creativity, and the Social in the Americas Wilfried Raussert,Susana Rocha Teixeira,2024-12-02 Resorting to life narratives as a comprehensive umbrella term and embracing hemispheric American studies paradigms this edited volume explores the interrelations between life narratives the social world creativity and different forms of media to narrate and re present the self to see in which way these expressions offer new means of self representation within cultural productions from the Americas Creativity in the context of life narratives nourishes the act of narrating and propels among others the desire to link individual life stories with larger stories of social embeddedness conditioning and transformation thus pushing new forms of historiography and other forms of nonfictional writing Accordingly the creative impulse fuses individual and collective experience with a larger understanding of the social including the latter s local and global embeddedness The contributions in this volume analyze the ways in which the dynamics tensions and reciprocities between narrative creativity and the social world unfold in life narratives from the Americas In particular this volume addresses scholars and students of life writing cultural and literary studies gender disability and postcolonial studies with new insights into life narratives from the Americas A Modern Poetics of Biography Zhengrun Yang,2025-09-02 This book provides a comprehensive study of biography to summarize the standard forms as well as a range of peripheral and expanded forms of auto biography Discussion and analyses to be done at three levels namely ontology typology and writing It is drawn from local and international theories in biography in addition to related disciplines in particular for those of the twentieth century and summarizing the experiences of the writing of classics in both Chinese and Western biographical history the study establishes a theoretical system of biography This book can serve as a useful reference for postgraduate students and professional readers who are interested in biographical research Autobiography Laura Marcus,2018-07-19 Autobiography is one of the most popular of written forms From Casanova to Benjamin Franklin to the Kardashians individuals throughout history have recorded their own lives and experiences These personal writings are central to the work of literary critics philosophers historians and psychologists who have found in autobiographies from across the centuries not only an understanding of the ways in which lives have been lived but the most fundamental accounts of what it means to be a self in the world In this Very Short Introduction Laura Marcus defines what we mean by autobiography and considers its relationship with similar literary forms such as memoirs journals letters diaries and essays Analysing the core themes in autobiographical writing such as confession conversion and testimony romanticism and the journeying self Marcus discusses the autobiographical consciousness and the roles played by time memory and identity and considers the relationship between psychoanalysis and autobiography Exploring the themes of self portraiture and performance Marcus also discusses the ways in which fiction and autobiography have shaped each other

South African Autobiography as Subjective History Lena

Englund, 2021-09-14 This book examines 21st century South African autobiographical writing that addresses the nation's socio-political realities both past and present. The texts in focus represent and depict a South Africa caught in the midst of contradictory and competing images of the Rainbow Nation. Arguing that recent memoirs question and criticize the illusion of a united nation, the study shows how these texts reveal the flaws and shortcomings not only of the apartheid past but of contemporary South Africa. It encompasses a broad range of autobiographical works largely published since 2009 that engage with South Africa's past, present, and future. At its centre is the quest for space and belonging, and this book investigates who can comfortably belong in South Africa in its post-apartheid, post-Truth and Reconciliation, post-Mbeki, and post-Zuma state.

Literary Bioethics Maren Tova Linett, 2020-07-14 Uses literature to understand and remake our ethics regarding nonhuman animals, old human beings, disabled human beings, and cloned posthumans. Literary Bioethics argues for literature as an untapped and essential site for the exploration of bioethics. Novels: Maren Tova Linett argues present vividly imagined worlds in which certain values hold sway, casting new light onto those values, and the more plausible and well-rendered readers find these imagined worlds, the more thoroughly we can evaluate the justice of those values. In an innovative set of readings, Linett thinks through the ethics of animal experimentation in H.G. Wells's The Island of Doctor Moreau, explores the elimination of aging in Aldous Huxley's Brave New World, considers the valuation of disabled lives in Flannery O'Connor's The Violent Bear It Away, and questions the principles of humane farming through reading Kazuo Ishiguro's Never Let Me Go. By analyzing novels published at widely spaced intervals over the span of a century, Linett offers snapshots of how we confront questions of value. In some cases, the fictions are swayed by dominant devaluations of nonnormative or nonhuman lives, while in other cases, they confirm the value of such lives by resisting instrumental views of their worth. Views that influence explicitly or implicitly many contemporary bioethical discussions, especially about the value of disabled and nonhuman lives. Literary Bioethics grapples with the most fundamental questions of how we value different kinds of lives and questions what those in power ought to be permitted to do with those lives as we gain unprecedented levels of technological prowess.

Unity and the Holy Spirit John E. Hare, 2023 John E. Hare investigates the work of the Holy Spirit in the world. He proposes that the Spirit aims at unity of four different kinds: unity between us and the material world, unity within us, unity between us and others, and unity between us and God. The book ends by asking why the Spirit aims at unity, and the answer is that the Spirit loves.

Beyond Price J. David Velleman, 2015-10-08 In nine lively essays, bioethicist J. David Velleman challenges the prevailing consensus about assisted suicide and reproductive technology, articulating an original approach to the ethics of creating and ending human lives. He argues that assistance in dying is appropriate only at the point where talk of suicide is not, and he raises moral objections to anonymous donor conception. In their place, Velleman champions a morality of valuing personhood over happiness in making end-of-life decisions and respecting the personhood of future children in making decisions about procreation. These controversial views are defended with philosophical rigor while remaining accessible to the general reader Written over Velleman s 30 years of undergraduate teaching in bioethics the essays have never before been collected and made available to a non academic audience They will open new lines of debate on issues of intense public interest

Things That Bother Me Galen Strawson,2018-03-13 An original collection of lauded philosopher Galen Strawson s writings on the self and consciousness naturalism and pan psychism Galen Strawson might be described as the Montaigne of modern philosophers endlessly curious enormously erudite unafraid of strange difficult and provocative propositions and able to describe them clearly in other words he is a true essayist Strawson also shares with Montaigne a particular fascination with the elastic and elusive nature of the self and of consciousness Of the essays collected here A Fallacy of Our Age an inspiration for Vendela Vida s novel Let the Northern Lights Erase Your Name takes issue with the commencement address cliché that life is a story Strawson questions whether it is desirable or even meaningful to think about life that way The Sense of the Self offers an alternative account in part personal of how a distinct sense of self is not at all incompatible with a sense of the self as discontinuous leading Strawson to a position that he sees as in some ways Buddhist Real Naturalism argues that a fully naturalist account of consciousness supports a belief in the immanence of consciousness in nature as a whole also known as panpsychism while in the final essay Strawson offers a vivid account of coming of age in the 1960s Drawing on literature and life as much as on philosophy this is a book that prompts both argument and wonder
