The Poetics of Violence in Afroeurasian Bioarchaeology Roselyn A. Campbell, Anna J. Osterholtz, 2024-06-22 This volume explores violence in bioarchaeological case studies from various cultures geographic regions and time periods throughout the Eastern Hemisphere through the lens of Neil Whitehead s concept of poetics It emphasizes the role and power of performance and ritual in violent acts and how different types of violence are used within societies Whitehead s poetics of violence model has primarily been applied to Western Hemisphere assemblages and indigenous groups and this is the first volume dedicated to the application of this theoretical model to Europe Asia and Africa Developed from a symposium organized at the American Association of Physical Anthropologists annual meeting in 2018 this volume keeps a tight focus on the direct link between physical evidence for violence in human remains and the contextualized interpretations of how that violence may have functioned within an individual s society This type of theoretical interpretation which treats violence as a meaningful act firmly embedded within its cultural context rather than as an aberration is rarely applied to archaeological assemblages and human remains from the Eastern Hemisphere This is the first volume to offer direct physical evidence for how violence was enacted and understood within different societies in the past This volume aims to make these rigorous theoretical studies available to students and professionals in archaeology anthropology and bioarchaeology and to provide a model for other researchers to interpret evidence of violence in human remains from archaeological contexts
