Life Believer Hand God:

The Incorporation of the Triune God in Himself and with His Believers Kerry S. Robichaux, 2023-07-04

Incorporation refers to the joint concept of the mutual indwelling of the Father the Son and the Spirit and Their mutual working together as one These two concepts are not new in Christian thought but they are overlooked by many Christian teachers and writers today and consequently by many Christians in general The effect of this omission is that many common believers if not their teachers fall easily into the mistaken view that the three of the Divine Trinity exist separably act separably and therefore are separably three Gods even though most know better than to say so This book is at one level a reaction to that mistaken view because the writers of the New Testament were very far from it in their concept and utterance But at stake is not just the Trinity as the capital teaching of the Christian faith if that were not enough to be concerned about The essence of true Christian experience is also greatly affected by our understanding of how the Triune God is in Himself and how He acts in Himself for according to the New Testament the essence of the believers life and living is the extension of the Triune God s mutual indwelling and mutual working together as one within them Thus at another level this book is a reaction to a merely moral and ethical view of the Christian life because again the writers of the New Testament present the Christian life more profoundly as the believers incorporation of the Triune God who lives and operates within them The content of this book is a careful consideration of the incorporation of the Triune God in Himself and with His believers as evidenced textually in the New Testament particularly the Gospel of John through the Epistle of Jude Whom Shall I Send? Watchman Nee, 2009-09-26 Does God work alone or does He work with man Let us see that aside from the work of creation which He performs alone God always works with man and works in man If He does not obtain the man He looks for He will not do the work He plans but will wait until He does obtain His man and then His work shall be done Such knowledge reveals the unspeakable love of God towards man but it also places upon man a tremendous responsibility Throughout the various chapters of this present volume Watchman Nee and his close associate Dr C H Yu in Chapter 2 present God s need of man conclusively Although it is God himself who indeed does the work nevertheless He will not work without the cooperation of man He will first work in man and then work through man So that what the author discusses in the book at the very outset is the kind of man whom God can use in His service one who is redeemed and fully yielded one who knows his absolute incompetency and who has only one desire of pleasing the Lord Then is explained the nature of service how the man of God must serve the Lord in the spirit how his service needs to be towards the increase of spiritual value and how his service today is but a preparation for the service in eternity Finally two illustrations from the Old Testament are presented for the purpose on the one hand of exhorting the man of God to keep always the freshness of the spirit through constant communion with the Lord and on the other hand of instructing the servants of God as to the way of corporate guidance in the church The cry of the triune God is Whom shall I send and who will go for us May our response be Here am I send me Is 6 8 Stand Firm

Rev Daniel W Blair,2012-11-13 In the coming days a solid theological belief system may be our only hope for standing firm in our faith As we fast approach the end of days we have seen an increase in demonic activity psychological problems and increasing pressure from the religious establishment to accept other belief systems in the name of tolerance This ready resource will help the end time saint remain faithful to Jesus even in the face of intense persecution Reverend Blair is convinced that God has given the Christian everything needed for life and godliness and he supports this by offering practical application So as you go along your way return to this book again and again to drink from the fountain of knowledge concerning your salvation in Jesus Christ and godly counsel on how to Stand Firm in the last days Ministry Digest, Vol. 04, No. 07
