bring them nothing but dead ends until the night it doesn't. Includes Glossary and Readers Guide Where the Earth Ends Alice Gibbons, 2009 WHERE THE EARTH ENDS Stone Age People Tell Their Story This book is a collection of six first person true stories. They take you into the world of individuals emerging from the Stone Age who live on the island of New Guinea. A boy, the only son of a war chief, refuses his heritage. He meets a strange being who bursts into his world, a missionary, and begins to follow Jesus. In midlife, our hero becomes the church leader of thousands of people, a chief far greater than his father. A six-year-old girl is the only child of her parents when they become missionaries to a distant tribe. Rebels capture them, forcing them to walk three days into the jungle where there is no food. God delivers them in an amazing fashion. The book is ideal for adults and for use in home and Christian school curricula. Heroes emerge from a foreign culture. Anthropology, history, and geography unfold with the telling of these captivating stories. Each chapter concludes with a Bible lesson and devotional thought. Families with children may choose to read the book together at the story hour. Adults may enjoy reading one chapter each day. Ever wondered if your involvement in world missions is worth the effort? This book provides an answer to this question you will never forget. Dr. Peter N. Nanfelt, former President of The Christian and Missionary Alliance. Families, adult Bible classes, Christian schools, and home schoolers will find these stories life-changing. I know they changed mine. Mary Dallenbach, Teacher, Worship Leader at Vacaville Christian School, California. ALICE GIBBONS with her husband Don worked with The Christian and Missionary Alliance among the tribal people of Papua, Indonesia, for over 40 years. Her first book, The People Time Forgot, published by Moody Press, tells the full and almost unbelievable true story of the Damal people. Messages From the Light Christopher Coppes, 2010-09-20 Messages from The Light makes clear that we are heading for a more wonderful future, but first we must realize that we have grossly neglected the spiritual part of ourselves and have focused too much on our own short-term self-interests. We have created a materialistic society that doesn't care about you. When our physical body dies, our spirit will discover that it does not only belong to our material, four-dimensional world but also to something that is so much greater, more wonderful, and more thrilling. In this unity universe, there are no lesser souls; we are all interconnected and connected to the Light, the ultimate unconditional love.
