Introduction (10 minutes)

- Explain to the students that they will be listening to the story The Very Hungry Caterpillar by Eric Carle.
- Show the students the cover of the book.
- Ask the students what they think the book will be about by looking at the illustration on the cover and reading the title.
- Call on a few students to offer their ideas.
- Explain to the students that while you are reading, they should listen for the following words: butterfly, chrysalis, eggs, and caterpillar. Have them consider how these words relate to the story and the very hungry caterpillar.
- Explain that a butterfly is a winged insect. The butterfly starts as an egg and then hatches to be a caterpillar, which looks like a worm that will eventually grow into a butterfly. The caterpillar turns into a chrysalis, which is like a small protective house.
- Write the vocabulary words on the board (butterfly, chrysalis, and caterpillar).
- Explain to the students that you also want them to think about what happens in the beginning of the story, the middle of the story, and the end of the story.
