Managing Business Family Dynasties Tom A. Rüsen, Heiko Kleve, Arist von Schlippe, 2021-10-15 This book deals with dynastic business families Such families are characterized by a circle of owners comprising more than 50 family members which typically face specific issues and challenges for which there has been little research knowledge and practical approaches until now The book presents results and findings from a special research project on big family management where 7 representatives of dynastic families from Germany were studied over a 3 year period The result was the identification of six topic areas that management in these business families has to deal with At the same time the study observes that dynastic business families hardly follow the logic of classic families anymore but can rather be understood as networks with common family backgrounds The study also reveals that a large number of business families are heading for large shareholder groups due to changed inheritance practices The contents outlined here provide an orientation framework for the growing business family

Philosophy and the Spiritual Life Victoria S. Harrison, Tyler Dalton McNabb, 2023-07-01 This book breaks new ground for the philosophy of religion by showcasing work that engages with the lived reality of the spiritual life It demonstrates that philosophy's relationship with spirituality is more than a historical curiosity and that in the twenty first century it is still meaningful to think about philosophy in connection with spirituality The chapters are organised around the following themes spiritual practice and philosophical understanding philosophical reflections on living a spiritual life philosophical problems concerning the spiritual life The first part discusses whether or not the topic of spirituality should be given a more fundamental role within the philosophy of religion and if so how that might be accomplished The second part addresses fundamental issues concerning human beings their lives and their self understanding in relation to the spiritual life The final part considers philosophical problems that emerge when discussing the spiritual life By bringing together discussions of these topics this volume constitutes a valuable resource for scholars in disciplines in which the spiritual life is a focus of interest particularly philosophy theology and religious studies That All May Flourish Laura M. Hartman, 2018 Can humans flourish without destroying the earth In this book experts on many of the world's major and minor religious traditions address the question of human and earth flourishing Each chapter considers specific religious ideas and specific environmental harms Chapters are paired and the authors work in dialogue with one another Taken together the chapters reveal that the question of flourishing is deceptively simple Most would agree that humans should flourish without destroying the earth But not all humans have equal opportunities to flourish Additionally on a basic physical level any human flourishing must of necessity cause some harm These considerations of the price and distribution of flourishing raise unique questions about the status of humans and nature This book represents a step toward reconciliation that people and their ecosystems may live in peace that people from different religious worldviews may engage in productive dialogue in short that all may flourish A World Scientific Encyclopedia Of Business Storytelling, Set 1: Corporate And Business Strategies Of Business Storytelling (A 5-volume Set), 2023-08-17 This set of multi reference works is meant to be read together as the five volumes interlace one another like the laces of a shoe in the famous painting by Vincent van Gogh Who will wear the shoes is a question long debated in art history and philosophy If we take these five volumes from different points of view on the theory and practice of business storytelling then we have a crisscrossing a new and impressive dialogue for the reader This set is presented as a new way to lace up the laces of business storytelling Volume 1 aims to recount narratives in a variety of ways so that the precepts of entrepreneurial storytelling can be made accessible to a variety of audiences academic practitioner student and community member Entrepreneurship has a long history and tradition but there are disputed ways of doing business storytelling in entrepreneurship that the next four volumes articulate Volume 2 provides insights into stories fostering the idea of business and not necessarily business itself It focuses specifically on history contributing to the current debates within management and organizational history around the idea of the historic turn It reflects on the idea of business and beyond could there be more to history and business storytelling than what has previously been accepted in the field This book sets out to explore a diverse array of alternative modes and multiple ways of storying organizations The editors intentionally sought to involve an international network of authors with diverse storytelling accounts of history as a way of helping build out this new storytelling paradigm in a diverse and inclusive ethic As a result this volume showcases a broad spectrum of critical storytelling from geographically diverse authors working in universities small businesses and public service throughout Brazil Canada Finland the United Kingdom and the United States To reflect these dynamics and for the stories in this volume to fit together chapters were organized into three themes stories of processing history tales of history as method and narratives of history through a business opportunity Volume 3 features stories that reflect the exacerbated inequalities of race gender and income across the world These inequalities and power relations remain continuously contested particularly in these trying times despite being captive to a particular economic ideology built on the premise of exploitation and subjugation The stories told in this volume tell against the orthodoxy the colonizer and the seemingly powerful They are organized as stories of resistance emancipation and transformation They invite us to rethink the multiple ways to re structure power relations between the colonizer and the colonized and open up spaces for the marginalized underprivileged voices Volume 4 is designed to create a new business storytelling paradigm that critically approaches business narratives that have historically privileged a corporate agenda It explores the various ways that images of the other in business are developed presented and accounted for through powerful and dominant narratives The stories in this volume collectively help readers to understand resist and provide strategies for change through various analyses of how business narratives come to develop get written are legitimized are challenged and get changed over time Volume 5 brings together the practices specific to the socioeconomic approach to management SEAM SEAM is a method of change management developed through research interventions carried out in more than 2 000 companies and organizations since 1975 This method is systemic it considers the whole company and tends to simultaneously increase social and economic performance by focusing mainly on the development of human skills and behaviors making it possible to reduce dysfunctions and recycle hidden costs into added value

Interventions in Career Design and Education Valérie Cohen-Scali, Jacques

Pouyaud, Marek Podgórný, Violetta Drabik-Podgórna, Gabriela Aisenson, Jean Luc Bernaud, Issa Abdou Moumoula, Jean Guichard, 2018-11-29 This book is the product of a series of reflections by career counseling and guidance specialists on a question central to society: How can career and life design interventions contribute to fair and sustainable development and to the implementation of decent work all over the world? This question was formulated by Professor J. Guichard, the director of the UNESCO Chair in Lifelong Guidance and Counseling at the University of Wrocław, Poland. The researchers involved in this Chair's activities proposed answers which form the chapters of this book. These reflections emphasize the need to focus on the study and implementation of certain central psychological processes which can enable individuals to face the main challenges of our society. The contributions also propose new avenues of intervention for career counseling and guidance. The entire book is the bedrock of a program of research and interventions to be implemented in order that the field of career counseling and guidance plays a key role for individuals who must design their lives in a rapidly changing and ever more complex context. This book is therefore a major scientific contribution and marks a turning point for researchers and practitioners in career counseling and guidance and for all professionals who support the self-construction of individuals in the 21st century. The authors draw on a diverse range of disciplines and research traditions and offer readers a rich array of insights helping them reflect on how career guidance can be mobilised to serve citizens in a world that is increasingly challenged by complex, seemingly intractable problems. A central crosscutting concern is the ways in which career guidance can foster well-being by facilitating access to meaningful and fulfilling work in contexts that promote equity, social justice and dignity for all. While engaging the micro-worlds of individuals and throwing light on their valiant efforts to design a life that realises their hopes and aspirations, it is a commendable feature of many of these papers that they do not eschew the societal, indeed planetary stage across which personal dramas are enacted. Prof. Ronald G. Sultana, Director, Euro-Mediterranean Centre for Educational Research, University of Malta. The primary strengths are the authors' capacity to provide forward-thinking perspectives on the important issue of sustainable lifelong interventions and career design in its broadest sense. The volume offers depth in a way of thinking that is pertinent to the 21st century and provokes both an interest in the further study of this domain as well as providing tools and references for novice and experienced researchers and professionals. The book is sure to become a major text in the field. Prof. Maurice Taylor, Faculty of Education, University of Ottawa, Canada.

Constructions of Gender Pamela L. Eddy, 2017-09-26 A groundswell of activism on campus is underway to recognize a wider understanding of gender to support long-time marginalized populations and to open up leadership pipelines that result in a reflection of the populations community colleges serve, which include women.

minorities and diverse stakeholders This issue expands on the research regarding the stubborn persistence of the glass ceiling and thinking about constructions of gender inclusivity and strategies to advance equity for all Tackling new and extended conceptions of gender to include issues facing the LGBTQ community it highlights the intersections of race and gender addresses how gender performance continues to influence the experiences of men and women in the 2 year college sector presents strategies for supporting women leaders updates readers on the Clery Act on campus and includes strategies for inclusivity This is the 179th volume of this Jossey Bass quarterly report series Essential to the professional libraries of presidents vice presidents deans and other leaders in today s open door institutions New Directions for Community Colleges provides expert guidance in meeting the challenges of their distinctive and expanding educational mission The Routledge Companion to Accounting Education Richard M.S. Wilson,2014-04-29 Many enquiries into the state of accounting education training undertaken in several countries over the past 40 years have warned that it must change if it is to be made more relevant to students to the accounting profession and to stakeholders in the wider community This book s over riding aim is to provide a comprehensive and authoritative source of reference which defines the domain of accounting education training and which provides a critical overview of the state of this domain including emerging and cutting edge issues as a foundation for facilitating improved accounting education training scholarship and research in order to enhance the educational base of accounting practice The Routledge Companion to Accounting Education highlights the key drivers of change whether in the field of practice on the one hand e g increased regulation globalisation risk and complexity or from developments in the academy on the other e g pressures to embed technology within the classroom or to meet accreditation criteria on the other Thirty chapters written by leading scholars from around the world are grouped into seven themed sections which focus on different facets of their respective themes including student curriculum pedagogic and assessment considerations Atlas of Moral Psychology Kurt Gray,Jesse Graham,2019-11-15 This comprehensive and cutting edge volume maps out the terrain of moral psychology a dynamic and evolving area of research In 57 concise chapters leading authorities and up and coming scholars explore fundamental issues and current controversies The volume systematically reviews the empirical evidence base and presents influential theories of moral judgment and behavior It is organized around the key questions that must be addressed for a complete understanding of the moral mind Schools and Informal Learning in a Knowledge-Based World Javier Calvo de Mora,Kerry J. Kennedy,2019-09-19 This book has two purposes To open up the debate on the role of informal education in schooling systems and to suggest the kind of school organizational environment that can best facilitate the recognition of informal learning Successive chapters explore what is often seen as a duality between informal and formal learning This duality is particularly so because education systems expend so much time and effort in certifying formal knowledge often expressed in school subjects reflecting academic disciplines Recognizing the contribution informal learning can make to young people s understanding and development does not negate the importance of valued social knowledge That complements it Students come to school with knowledge learnt from their families peers the community and both traditional and social media They should not have to unlearn this in order to enter the world of formal learning Rather students different learning worlds should be integrated so that each informs the other In a knowledge based society all learning needs to be valued Some contributors to this book reflect on how new educational systems could be created in a move away from top down authoritarian and bureaucratic management Such open systems are seen to be more welcoming in acknowledging the importance of informal learning Others provide practical examples of how informal learning is currently recognized Some attention is also paid to the evaluation of informal learning A key objective of the work presented here is to stimulate debate about the role of informal learning in knowledge based societies and to stimulate thinking about the kind of reforms needed to create more open and more democratic school learning environments
