Transforming Christian Thought in the Visual Arts Sheona Beaumont, Madeleine Emerald Thiele, 2021-07-06 This volume explores how the visual arts are presenting and responding to Christian theology and demonstrates how modern and contemporary artists and artworks have actively engaged in conversation with Christianity Modern intellectual enquiry has often been reluctant to engage theology as an enriching or useful form of visual analysis but critics are increasingly revisiting religious narratives and Christian thought in pursuit of understanding our present day visual culture In this book an international group of contributors demonstrate how theology is often implicit within artworks and how regardless of a viewer's personal faith it can become implicit in a viewer's visual encounter Their observations include deliberate juxtaposition of Christian symbols imaginative play with theologies the validation of non-confessional or secular public engagement and inversions of biblical interpretation Case studies such as an interactive Easter glow sticks as sacrament and visualisation of the Bible's polyphonic voices enrich this discussion Together they call for a greater interpretative generosity and more nuance around theology's cultural contexts in the modern era By engaging with theology culture and the visual art this collection offers a fresh lens through which to see the interaction of religion and art As such it will be of great use to those working in Religion and the Arts Visual Art Material Religion Theology Aesthetics and Cultural Studies Places of the Bible, 2007 A collection of photographs of places from the Old and New Testaments with supporting text from the Bible
