

LIFE PRINCIPLE 21

OBEDIENCE ALWAYS BRINGS BLESSING.

Luke 11:28

The Lord's simple requests often serve as stepping stones to life's most wonderful blessings. Notice Peter illustrates what can happen when we say yes to God.

One day a large crowd pressed around Jesus while He preached (Luke 9:1-11). The Lord wanted to use Peter's boat as a fishing platform from which to address the multitudes, so He asked the Father's assistance to push the vessel out a little way from shore (v. 8)—not in itself a particularly remarkable request. But Peter's compliance to His request paved the way for a life-changing blessing. From his example, we also learn how essential it is to obey God in even the smallest matters.

The noisy crowd received the first blessing of Peter's obedience; the people could now clearly hear Jesus' words. At the conclusion of the lesson, the Lord said to Peter, "Launch out into the deep and let down your nets for a catch" (9:1)—a second opportunity to say yes or no. But this time, Peter may have felt tempted to decline. After all, he was a seasoned fisherman. He had worked the entire night for a catch but had returned empty-handed. Now this young teacher—a carpenter, by the way, not a fisherman—was asking him to go fishing again!

Peter's reply demonstrates the beginning of a lifetime of faith in God. He said, "Master, we have toiled all night and caught nothing; nevertheless at Your word I will let down my net" (9:5, emphasis added). The answer to his disciple's question about the Lord's request was the consequence of his decision to obey.

But notice what happened as a result of Peter's obedience—Jesus had launched His power and authority. Peter and his partners may have seen this day off thinking their educational studies ending. But they ended in complete amazement because they pulled in not one but two hundred boatsloads of fish (9:7). Jesus received the Lord's request resulted in a miracle that transformed not only one fisherman's life, but the lives of the entire group.

Consider those reasons why obedience is critical to the successful Christian life:

1. Obeying God in small matters is an essential step in receiving God's greatest blessings.

Suppose Peter had said, "Lord, I'm busy cleaning my nets right now. I can't help You because I'm going fishing again tonight." Or he could have said, "Why don't You ask to use the other boat, over there?" Or, "I've already been fishing today; it would be a waste of time to go again." If Peter had said anything other than yes, he would have missed the greatest fishing experience of his life. But because of Peter's obedience, the Lord arranged a miracle that he would never forget.

When God's greatest blessings come to us, think of our willingness to do something that appears very foolish. Remember, the apostle Paul had been told by the Lord to do something very important that I have not yet mentioned. It was to do something I have mentioned by saying, "I don't want to," or "I don't think I can do it." It was to go to the city of Corinth.

2. Our obedience always benefits others.

Think of how many people were blessed by Peter's obedience. Not only Jesus, but the Lord and the Father would the crowd see the Lord and hear His voice, but Jesus himself also knew the Lord—preaching from the boat enabled Him to speak in comfort while the crowd was at ease. Of course, Peter's obedience had a very profitable day—they caught two boatsloads of fish that night in two weeks as full of fish that night in two weeks. More importantly, they had the opportunity to witness the Lord's supernatural power.

God often rewards others—in particular, those closest to us—as a result of our obedience. For example, when a father obeys the Lord, his entire family enjoys the reward of God's blessings. Likewise, a child's obedience will bless his or her parents. This does not mean that those who choose to disobey the Lord will escape His discipline because of someone else's guilty walk. His call to obedience always demands our response.

God's ways will never disappoint us.

However, when we hear God's voice, those who know and love us will want the peace and joy the Lord gives us. Instead of conflict, there will be peace and joy—and that is just one part of experiencing God's goodness.

3. When we obey God, we will never be disappointed.

Peter's obedience resulted in Jesus' blessing. Jesus' blessing would amount to a word of love. But when he was placed with the Lord's simple request, Christ brought about a miracle that proved the disciple's obedience. Jesus turned an empty boat into a full one. We, the Father, must recognize that obeying God is always the wisest course of action. He can also give us wisdom—whether related to business, relationships, or career—and change it into something spiritual.

Perhaps you have been asked to obey God because you fear the consequences of your decision. But the Lord's command is for you to hear Him above all else. The same morning, tomorrow God will keep your heart beating and the planets orbiting in more than able to handle the results of your obedience. When He tells you to do something and you know without a doubt it is His will, then you need to obey Him and not who is doing the talking.

When you choose to obey the Lord, He will bless you. This is because obedience always leads to blessing. I have always told people when we obey do not understand why God is asking them to do a certain thing that if they will obey Him, He will reward them with a word of peace and joy that compares to nothing this world has to offer. Therefore, it is a goal to obey the Lord and watch Him work in your life.
