London and this was at the King s Bench Rumsey and West were the first witnesses against him and they swore that they knew nothing of the prisoner since the conspiracy began They had heard that he was one of the council of six and what is most curious West had heard this from Rumsey and Rumsey had heard it from West Lord Howard followed adding many particulars to his former tale but as he was the only direct witness the evidence required by law was filled up with a manuscript book in Sydney s hand writing written some years before Quotations proving that he approved of the conspiracies against Nero and against Caligula were read as proofs of his having compassed the King s death T The Life of William, Lord Russell John Russell Russell,2016-04-26 The Life of William, Lord Russell Earl John Russell Russell,1875
