Lifeboat to Scorpio MR J. L. Walden, 2012-09-01 It was widely known that it could be built it was just a matter of engineering logistics and finance It was becoming apparent that it had to be built as global warming had its way with the planet Earth Construction began on the starship in orbit above Earth No one anticipated the angry and vitriolic opposition from the major religions on Earth the formation of militias that attacked logistical sites and no one expected the rate of the habitat deterioration due to global warming Civilization was crumbling around them as the organization responsible for the project struggled to complete the starship and launch it toward the planet in the Scorpio star system 300 Years in Space Jerry Walden, 2018-09-08 Volume 2 of the Starship Evergreen Trilogy chronicles the 300 year journey of the Starship from the Sol galaxy to the Scorpion 12 galaxy Volume 1 Lifeboat to Scorpio describes the trials and tribulations of designing funding building passenger selection and launching the Starship on its mission Volume 3 The Winking Planet begins with the Starship achieving an orbit around Alfa the Winking Planet the transference of the colonists from the ship to the planet and their adventures during the first few decades Volume 2 has several main themes 1 Changes in management structure due to knowledge of others in space 2 The psychological and sociological changes due to the awareness that the community lives in a tiny in a vast uncaring universe 3 The change in the concept of what it means to be human in an environment where conservation of resources is mandatory and everything recycled including human corpses 4 The Starship evolves from a passenger vessel transferring colonists from Earth to Alfa with a few captured in tow asteroids in tow to an armed fortress with an armada of militarized asteroids as outposts and forward attack stations 5 The development of social classes professional organization heritage clubs quasi religions 6 Future planning If this is it then what is next Look around us look at what we are We really should use all this for something shouldn't we
